GIANTS ADMINISTRATION

WELLINGTON MARA

PRESIDENT & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on October 18, 1925 when the New York Giants played their first home game against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. It was on that day that the then nine-year old Wellington T. Mara began a lifetime that has been dedicated to the Giants and the National Football League.

Because of his extensive background in the development and growth of the National Football League, Mara is recognized as one of the league's leaders.

He has been instrumental in the outstanding accomplishments of the Giants: 17 NFL Divisional championships and six NFL championships, including the Super Bowl XXI and Super Bowl XXV championship titles. Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, are the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor.

Mara has been involved in every aspect of operating the Giants during his seven decades with the team, from his first job as a ballboy at training camp to the on-the-field operations to scouting and general organization, and eventually to the front office executive capacity where he now serves as President and Co-Chief Executive Officer. The only interruption in Mara's Giants career was World War II when he served with distinction for more than three years in the Navy, seeing action in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters aboard aircraft carriers and emerging as a Lieutenant Commander.

Mara has not only served the Giants admirably over the years, but he has also been a valuable contributor to league efforts as a member of many ownership committees. From 1971 until 1977, he was Chairman of the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council, the labor arm of the NFL, and it was under his leadership that the league achieved five years of labor peace from 1977 to 1982. Wellington was elected President of the National Football Conference in 1984, succeeding the late George Halas in that role. Mara is currently a member of the Hall of Fame committee, as well as the Executive Committee of the Management Council. He was a member of the Competition Committee, replacing Vince Lombardi after his death, for one year before leaving to join the Management Council. He also serves as President of the National Football Conference.

In 1925, Wellington's father, Timothy J. Mara, purchased the Giants franchise to establish a New York entry in the fledgling National Football League. The Mara family's presence has been constant with the Giants since Timothy Mara's purchase of the team. In addition to Timothy's and Wellington's involvement, Wellington's older brother, the late Jack Mara, served as the club's President until his death in 1965. After Jack's death, his son Tim served as Vice President and Treasurer of the team until Bob Tisch purchased the Jack Mara holdings in 1991. Today, two of Wellington's sons are important members of the organization: John Kevin as Executive Vice President and General Counsel and Frank as Director of Promotions.

Until 1965, Mara was responsible for the franchise's football decisions, while his brother Jack handled the business side of the team. A key to the Giants' championships in the late-'50s and early-'60s were trades engineered by Mara that brought Y.A. Tittle, Andy Robustelli, Del Shofner, Dick Modzelewski, Pat Summerall, Joe Walton, Dick Lynch, Erich Barnes, Bill Svoboda, Harland Svare, Bob Schnelker, Herb Rich, Ed Hughes and Walt Yowarsky, among others, to the Giants. Draft choices Frank Gifford and Rosie Brown went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, as did Tuffy Leemans, whom Wellington recommended in 1936.

Wellington T. Mara, whose nickname is "Duke," was born on August 14, 1916 in New York City. He graduated from Loyola High School before matriculating to Fordham University where he earned his degree in 1937. His brother, Jack, preceded him to Fordham University where he earned a law degree, but Wellington was only interested in joining his father with the Giants and did so immediately after graduation. He has been with the organization ever since.

Wellington married the former Ann Mumm in 1954 and the Maras have 11 children: John Kevin, Susan Ann, Timothy Christopher, Stephen Vincent, Francis Xavier, Shelia Marie, Kathleen Mary, Maureen Elizabeth, Ann Marie, Meghan Ann, and Colleen Elizabeth. The Maras, who reside in Rye, N.Y., also have 32 grandchildren.

PRESTON ROBERT TISCH CHAIRMAN & CO-CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

For Preston Robert Tisch, it was a dream come true in 1991, when he became Co-Owner of one of New York City's premier sports franchises, the New York Giants. It was following the Giants Super Bowl XXV victory that he completed negotiations with Tim Mara and his family for a 50% interest in the team. Thus he began his career as an owner of a professional sports franchise - only one of many careers he simultaneously pursues.

At Loews Corporation, one of the country's most successful financial companies, Mr. Tisch serves as Co-Chairman, Co-Chief Executive Officer and a Director. The Company, with 1997 revenues of $20.1 billion and assets exceeding $69 billion, owns and operates hotels and resorts through Loews Hotels; 84% of CNA Financial Corporation; 97% of Bulova Corporation; 50.3% Lorillard Tobacco Company; and Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc.

The Company's history dates back to a summer camp in New Jersey run by Mr. Tisch and his brother Laurence, followed by the purchase of a hotel in Lakewood, N.J. and the formation of Tisch Hotels, Inc.

In 1959, the Tisch brothers bought controlling interest in Loews Theaters, Inc., a real estate-rich theatre chain. In 1971, after Loews acquired Lorillard Tobacco, its name was changed to Loews Corporation.

Mr. Tisch served as Postmaster General of the United States from August 1986 until returning to New York in March 1988. Prior to his appointment as Postmaster, he served as President and Chief Operating Officer of Loews Corporation and its corporate predecessor, Loews Theatres, Inc., a position held from 1960 until his appointment as Co-Chairman and Co-CEO.

Throughout his career, Tisch has been active in civic affairs. Prior to being named Postmaster General, he served as Chairman of the New York Convention & Visitors Bureau for 19 years and currently serves as the Bureau's Chairman Emeritus. He was also founding Chairman of the New York City Convention and Exhibition Center Corporation and Chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Conventions held in New York City in 1976 and 1980.

In May 1990, Mayor David Dinkins appointed Tisch New York City's Ambassador to Washington. Through 1993, he served as a liaison between the City of New York and his friends and colleagues in both the national government in Washington and the business community in New York City.

From 1990-1993, Tisch served as Chairman of the New York City Partnership, Inc. and the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, where he was instrumental in developing a campaign to enhance New York's position as an international business center. He remains an active member of both organizations, where he continues to serve on their Boards of Directors. A founding Co-Chairman of Citymeals-on-Wheels, he became President of the Board of Directors in September 1993. He is chairman of Public Private Initiative, a public private partnership which raises funds for important community programs.

Tisch currently serves on the Board of Directors of Hasbro, Inc. He was also re-elected to the Board of Rite Aid Corporation, and renamed a Trustee of New York University. He also served on the organizing committee for the 1990 Economic Summit of Industrialized Nations held in Houston.

In addition to these involvements, Mr. Tisch makes considerable time for the Giants. In his role as Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, he visits his office at Giants Stadium each week, without fail, and attends every game, both home and away. As a member of the National Football League's Finance and Super Bowl Policy Committees, he's attained a prominence in the sports arena equal to his position in the world of business.

Mr. Tisch was born in New York City. He attended Bucknell University before entering the Army in 1944. After military service in World War II, he earned a B.A. degree in economics from the University of Michigan in 1948. Mr. Tisch is married to the former Joan Hyman, and they have three children: Steven, Laurie and Jonathan, who is Treasurer for the Giants. Mr. Tisch lives with his wife in New York City and Rye, New York.

JOHN K. MARA

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL COUNSEL

John K. Mara, the oldest son of team President Wellington Mara, begins his ninth season with the Giants after joining the club in 1991 as Executive Vice President and General Counsel. In his present position, Mara is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization and reports directly to the Co-Chief Executive Officers, Wellington Mara and Preston Robert Tisch.

Mara was born in New York City on December 1, 1954, grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in Marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. John earned his Law Degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the firm of Shea & Gould in Manhattan where he continued until April 1991 when he joined the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincents Hospital in Harrison, NY, The School of the Holy Child, also in Harrison, NY, and Iona Preparatory School in New Rochelle, NY.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, 18; Courtney, 16; John Jr., 15; Christine, 11; and Erin, 9. The Mara family resides in Harrison, New York.

JONATHAN M. TISCH

TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch joined the Giants in February 1991 and immediately began his role as Treasurer. In addition to serving on the Giants Board of Directors, Tisch serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer for Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has been instrumental in overseeing the company's growth and subsequent emergence as one of the leading luxury hotel chains. Blending a cutting edge approach to marketing and operations, with a conservative development philosophy, he has become recognized as one of the industry's leading authorities. As a result, he has received numerous honors and accolades, for both his dedication to the travel industry, as well as for his commitment to social responsibility and community outreach.

Most recently, he was inducted into the Convention Liaison Council's "Hall of Leaders," and was also named as one of the "25 Most Influential People in the Meetings Industry" by Meeting News Magazine. He has been named one of the "Business Travel Industry's Most Influential Executives" by Business Travel News four times, as well as one of Crain's New York business magazine's "All Stars."

Underscoring his presence as an industry leader, Tisch has served as an officer of the American Hotel & Motel Association for five years, culminating in his Chairmanship of the organization in 1997. In conjunction with the first-ever White House Conference on Travel and Tourism, held October 1995, Tisch co-chaired the Promotions Committee. Tisch is also Chairman of the "Travel Business Roundtable" -- a coalition of chief executives representing various sectors of the travel industry, and has been chairman of the New York University International Hospitality Investment Conference since 1995.

Actively involved in several community and philanthropic activities, Tisch serves on the Board of Directors for Tufts University, the Robert Steel Foundation for Pediatric Cancer Research at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, and the Pediatric AIDS Foundation. Previously, he had served on the Dean's Advisory Council for the School of Hotel Administration at Cornell University.

A graduate of Tufts University, Tisch's affection for the television and film industry traces back to working as a Cinematographer/Producer at WBZ-TV in Boston where he received two Emmy Nominations.

ERNIE ACCORSI

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Ernie Accorsi was named General Manager on January 8, 1998. Accorsi had served as the Giants Assistant General Manager under George Young since July, 1994. In his current position with the Giants, Accorsi is in charge of all player contract negotiations and supervises the Giants player personnel department. Accorsi has managed two NFL franchises in the past. He served as General Manager with Baltimore (1982-83) and Cleveland (1985-92).

Since beginning his NFL career with the Baltimore Colts in 1970, Accorsi has worked in virtually every phase of the football business. Accorsi was brought to the Giants on July 6, 1994 to assist George Young with the football operations. Young was the Colts' offensive line coach when Accorsi first joined the Baltimore organization.

"Philosophically, I basically was molded by him. We have our roots in the same organization, the Baltimore Colts," said Accorsi about his mentor Young. "I feel this job is a privilege. For someone who first watched the Giants play in 1951 in Hershey, Pa., in an exhibition game against the Eagles, the dream that you could ever be in this position is really more than you could ever expect. I just hope when my time comes to leave, I can turn it over to the next person in the same condition it was given to me. We're going to use every avenue we can to make the team better."

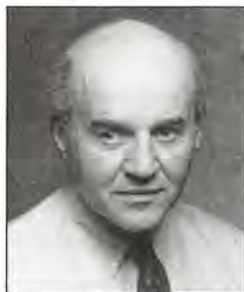

Most recently in the NFL, Accorsi was Executive Vice President/Football Operations for the Cleveland Browns from 1985 until he resigned in 1992. During that time, the Browns made five straight playoff appearances, including four AFC Central titles and three appearances in the AFC Championship game. With the Browns, Accorsi shouldered most of the responsibility for player acquisitions, including the draft and trades. He handled the delicate and important supplemental draft trade that gave the Browns the rights to then sophomore Bernie Kosar in the spring of 1985. Kosar joined the team in the summer, and the Browns went on to win four AFC Central titles and made the playoffs a fifth time as a Wild Card Team.

Accorsi began his NFL career as the Baltimore Colts public relations director in 1970 where he served for five seasons. He then went to the NFL office where he worked on Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as Assistant to the President of the National Football Conference in 1975 and 1976. He returned to the Colts organization in 1977 as the team's Assistant General Manager. Accorsi later became the Colts last general manager in Baltimore for two years, 1982 and 1983, prior to joining the Browns organization.

After leaving the Browns, Accorsi served as a special advisor to Maryland Governor William Donald Schaefer on NFL expansion. In that capacity, he was responsible for selling all 100 sky suites for the proposed NFL football stadium, as well as all 7,500 club seats. The sky suites were sold out in six weeks, while the club seating sold out in eight weeks. In addition, he also raised commitments of $51 million for Baltimore's Expansion Efforts Premium Seating Campaign. Immediately before joining the Giants, Accorsi was Executive Director of Business Affairs for the Baltimore Orioles of Major League Baseball.

Accorsi was born in Hershey, Pennsylvania, where he played baseball all the way to the American Legion level. A 1963 graduate of Wake Forest University, Accorsi has worked as a sports writer for the Charlotte News, Baltimore Sun and Philadelphia Inquirer. He has also worked in the Athletic Departments at St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia and Penn State University.

Accorsi has three children: Michael, a former graduate assistant under George Welsh at the University of Virginia and currently a teacher and assistant football coach at Serra High School in San Mateo, Calif.; Patrick, who works for Alex Brown brokerage firm in Baltimore; and daughter Sherlyn, a graduate of Penn State University.

RICK DONOHUE

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Donohue was named assistant general manager in 1998 following the departure of George Young to the NFL office and the promotion of Ernie Accorsi from assistant general manager to the general manager position.

Donohue spent four seasons as assistant director of player personnel after spending 10 years as a scout. He originally joined the Giants in August of 1983 after serving in coaching capacities on both the collegiate and high school levels.

Donohue played his scholastic sports at Dewitt Clinton High School in the Bronx. He earned a B.S. degree in Education from the University of Dayton, then continued at Michigan State University in Educational Administration. He began his coaching career as a head football coach at Buckeye H.S. in Rushsylvania, Ohio, then was a coach and science teacher at Bellefontaine H.S. in Bellefontaine, Ohio before entering the collegiate ranks as a freshman football coach at Michigan State. He then served as a defensive coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, secondary coach at C.W. Post College, and freshman coach, assistant varsity coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University before joining the Giants as a scout.

Donohue and his wife Elaine reside in Washington Township, N.J.

THE ORIGINAL GIANTS-THE 1925 TEAM

FOOTBALL STAFF

JIM FASSEL HEAD COACH

Entering the 1998 season, many observers felt that in spite of the Giants 1997 NFC East Division Championship season, the team would be hard-pressed to reach postseason play for a second straight year. In fact, most of those same observers predicted an 8-8 finish. The Giants did indeed wind up 8-8 by winning five of their last six games. The strong finish kept the Giants in the playoff hunt until the final weekend of the season.

"We left it a little short in 1998, we didn't get into the playoffs," said Fassel following the season. "I'm very disappointed in that. We fought through some things, but we left in short. We're not going to leave it short again. I've got to figure out what changes to make so that doesn't happen again."

The Giants started the campaign with a 3-7 record, and Fassel's leadership was evident with the 5-1 finish, which included a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. The Giants entered the final week of the season needing a victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, combined with a loss by Tampa Bay and Arizona, to qualify for the third Wild Card spot in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to end the Giants playoff hopes.

"I'm proud that we stood up and fought our way out of a rough start. There is a mental toughness in that, and I don't think it will go away this year," said Fassel.

Fassel was named the 15th head coach in Giants history on January 15, 1997 and led his squad to a 10-5-1 record and a berth in the playoffs while capturing the NFC East Championship. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous media outlets, including The Sporting News (as voted by NFL coaches), after helping the Giants improve from a 6-10 record and a last place finish in the NFC East in 1996. Under Fassel's guidance, the Giants became the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The worst-to-first turnaround has occurred 13 times, including the 1997 Giants, since the 1970 merger. Fassel's group finished with a 7-0-1 Division record and became the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play.

Fassel and the Giants faced their share of adversity throughout the 1997 campaign. Brian Williams, arguably the team's best player, sustained a season-ending eye injury during the first few days of training camp. First-round draft choice WR Ike Hilliard, who was expected to provide an instant spark to the offense, was lost in the second game of the season with a neck injury. Despite these early problems, the Giants overcame a 1-3 start and went 9-2-1 over the rest of the year.

COACHING HISTORY

The 1997 season marked Fassel's return to the Giants organization. He entered the NFL as an assistant coach with the Giants in 1991 as quarterbacks coach, then as offensive coordinator in 1992. Following his service with the Giants, Fassel spent two campaigns as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Denver Broncos in 1993 and 1994. He spent the 1995 season as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders and was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals in 1996. Before coming to the Giants as head coach, Fassel built a reputation for an ability to develop quarterbacks. Under Fassel's guidance, Broncos quarterback John Elway enjoyed his finest season as a pro in 1993, earning honors that included the AFC Player-of-the-Year and Most Valuable Player. Elway led the AFC in all six major passing categories. The Broncos offense ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and scored 373 points to rank first in the conference and third in the league. In 1996 with the Cardinals, Fassel tutored Giants quarterback Kent Graham into a solid player and helped rejuvenate veteran Boomer Esiason. The Cardinals finished sixth in passing offense in 1996.

Fassel earned the label "quarterback guru," but upon his return to the Giants, he quickly showed that he is a complete coach.

"Anybody who's a first-time head coach in this league and gets the job from the assistant ranks – and primarily it's from a coordinator's job – you're on one side of the ball or the other, and you're labeled," said Fassel. "You're either the defensive guy or the offensive guru. You have to establish yourself beyond that."

A former collegiate quarterback at Fullerton College, Fassel began coaching in 1973 at his alma mater, then was a player-coach for the Hawaii Hawaiians of the World Football League in 1974. He coached quarterbacks and receivers at Utah in 1976, then served seven seasons as offensive coordinator at both Weber State (1977-78) and Stanford (1979-83). At Stanford Fassel was credited with recruiting and coaching Elway, who finished second in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 1982. It was also at Stanford that Fassel's offensive system began to take shape. Fassel adapted his offense from Stanford head coach Bill Walsh, who would later lead San Francisco to three Super Bowl titles.

Fassel's second stint in professional football was in 1984 as offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Breakers of the USFL. From there he returned to Utah as the school's head coach from 1985-89 where he recruited and coached Detroit Lions quarterback Scott Mitchell. En route to the NFL under Fassel's tutelage, Mitchell set 10 NCAA and five Western Athletic Conference records in addition to virtually every school passing record. Fassel's Utah experience taught him to be more hands-on in his approach to handling the team.

"The one thing I said when I took the Giants job that was very, very important to me was that I'm going to be around, and I'm going to coach this football team, and I'm not going to be an aloof head coach," said Fassel. "I'm going to be active on the field, I'm going to be active in the meetings. That gives me a better sense for them."

BACKGROUND

A native of Anaheim, California, Fassel was a standout quarterback at Anaheim High School before leading Fullerton College to a 25-1 record over two seasons and winning the junior college national championship in 1967. He also spent one season with Green Bay Packers head coach Mike Holmgren at Southern California during the Trojans' Rose Bowl Championship season of 1969. Holmgren did not play in any games that year due to a shoulder injury. Fassel was a junior backup behind Jimmy Jones after transferring from Fullerton College.

He was drafted by Chicago in the seventh round of the 1972 NFL Draft and went to camp with the Chicago Bears, Houston Oilers and San Diego Chargers.

THE COACH AND HIS FAMILY

Fassel's arduous journey to the top of his profession includes 12 moves since he began coaching in 1973. Fassel and his family have made three stops in California and two in Utah. They lived in Hawaii, New Orleans, New Jersey, Colorado, Los Angeles and Arizona.

"Our family has always enjoyed new experiences," Fassel said. "For our kids, the world is not intimidating to them. They can go anywhere, talk about anything."

After his stint with the Hawaii Hawaiians, Fassel took a job as a salesman for an air-conditioning company in 1975. Miserable in the sales business, Fassel took his first full-time coaching job as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach at Utah, starting a career path that would culminate 22 years later when he was named head coach of the New York Giants.

Born August 31, 1949 in Anaheim, California, Fassel and his wife Kitty, have four children, John (1-10-74), Brian (12-22-75), Jana (10-31-78) and Mike (6-19-81). Mike is a junior in high school (Don Bosco) where he is a member of the school's varsity basketball team.

LESSONS FROM A FATHER

Jim Fassel's father, Bud, was the assistant fire chief in his native Anaheim until his neighbor Claire Van Hoorebeke, the Anaheim High School football coach who would become a legend in southern California, hired the elder Fassel as a full-time equipment manager. Bud Fassel wanted to be a coach but he had been in the war and did not go to college to get his teaching certificate.

"If some kid wanted to quit, the coach would tell him to go turn in my dad," said Fassel. "Nobody ever quit. Guys didn't get past my dad. He talked them out of it."

"I learned everything about how to relate to people from him. How to observe and get along with them, too."

HAL SHERBECK, FASSEL'S COACH AT FULLERTON

The team concept that no single player is bigger than the whole is an important element of Fassel's motivational technique. It was a lesson he learned from Hal Sherbeck, who was Fassel's head coach at Fullerton Junior College.

"We were going to play for the 1967 national championship," said Fassel. "And we used to dress 100 guys for each game. It was a big team, but coach Sherbeck never excluded anyone. He told us we were one team. The week before the game the officials told us that the rules said no more than 60 players could dress.

"They wouldn't budge on that rule. Coach Sherbeck told the guy in charge: 'Fine. We forfeit. You go give them the trophy for winning right now.' But then we're playing the game anyway. And we are dressing all 100 guys."

Fullerton captured the junior college national championship with a 41-0 victory.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN FOX

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

John Fox enters his third season as defensive coordinator of the Giants. The highlight of his second season was the development of a defensive gameplan that helped the Giants become the only team to hold the eventual super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos to less than 21 points in the Giants 20-16 victory.

Fox is the architect of a Giants defense that led the NFL in takeaways in 1997 with a franchise record of with 44. The Giants led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished tied for third with 54 sacks. The 54 sacks rank fourth in team history. The Giants defense finished second in the NFC against the run at 90.7 yards per game. In addition, the Giants defense held the opponent to 20 points or less in 12 of the 16 regular season games. The Giants held the opposition to 10 points or less in six of those games. Fox was honored as The Pro Football Weekly Assistant Coach of the Year.

Fox was named defensive coordinator by head coach Jim Fassel on January 22, 1997. Fox came to the Giants after spending two seasons as defensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders. Under Fox's guidance, the Raiders finished 10th in total defense in 1994 and 11th in 1995. Fox left the Raiders prior to the start of the 1996 season and worked as a consultant for the St. Louis Rams. Fassel worked with Fox in 1995 when Fassel was the quarterbacks coach for Oakland.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Fox was the defensive backs coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1992 and 1993. Fox entered the NFL as secondary coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989 through 1991. The Steelers had the NFL's top-ranked pass defense in 1990 under Fox's leadership.

Fox came to the Steelers after three years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1986 through 1988. The Panthers' pass defense had a top-ten national ranking each of his three seasons there.

Fox began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1978 before becoming an assistant coach at United States International University in San Diego in 1979. He also coached the secondary at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983) and Iowa State (1984).

He entered the professional coaching ranks in 1985, coaching the defensive backs for the USFL's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the collegiate level that fall on the staff at Kansas before heading to Pittsburgh.

Fox was born on February 8, 1955 in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He grew up in the San Diego area and attended Castle Park High in Chula Vista. He went on to play two years at Southwestern Junior College in Chula Vista (1974-75) before finishing his career as a defensive back at San Diego State from 1976-1977. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a secondary education teaching credential in 1977.

Fox and his wife, Robin, have three sons, Mathew, Mark and Cody.

JIM SKIPPER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

Jim Skipper was named offensive coordinator and running backs coach by Jim Fassel on January 23, 1997. Fassel runs offensive meetings when he is available, but as head coach he often is not, leaving Skipper in charge. He is intimately involved in gameplanning and has primary responsibility for the running backs.

Under Skipper's leadership last season, RB Gary Brown finished seventh in the NFC with a career-best 1,063 yards to become the Giants first 1,000-yard back since Rodney Hampton in 1995. In his first season with the Giants in 1997, the club finished seventh in the NFL in rushing with an average of 124.3 yards per game.

Skipper came to the Giants after spending the 1996 season as the Arizona Cardinals running backs coach. Prior to joining the Arizona staff, Skipper served as running backs coach for the New Orleans Saints for ten seasons (1986-95).

"In working with Jim, I am impressed with his overall feel for the offense," said Fassel. "He is a detailed, organized planner and we worked well together with the Cardinals. He knows the offensive system, and I am comfortable and confident in our relationship as it relates to the direction of the offense."

Skipper coached Pro Bowl FB Larry Centers in Arizona in 1996. While in New Orleans, Skipper tutored two Pro Bowlers, Reuben Mays and Dalton Hilliard. Skipper opened his coaching dossier with one season at the high school level in 1973 before stops at Cal Poly-Pomona (1974-76) and San Jose State (1977-78) as defensive backs coach. He moved to offense as running backs coach at Pacific in 1979 and then coached the running backs at Oregon from 1980-82. Skipper entered the professional coaching ranks as running backs coach for the USFL Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983-85.

Born January 23, 1949, Skipper and his wife, Elmarie, have three sons, Kelly, Timmy and Courtney. Kelly is the running back coach at UCLA. Timmy is the starting middle linebacker at Fresno State. Courtney is a freshman at Fresno State. Skipper and son Kelly both have coached Saints running back Lorenzo Neal.

Skipper holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from Whittier College.

DAVE BRAZIL

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dave Brazil joined the Giants staff in the spring of 1992 as the team's linebackers coach. Since January of 1993, Brazil has served as defensive quality control coach. Head coach Jim Fassel and Brazil coached together on Ray Handley's staff in 1992. Brazil and defensive coordinator John Fox also worked together for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989 to 1991.

Prior to coming to the Giants, Brazil was defensive coordinator of the Steelers in 1990 and 1991 after joining Chuck Noll's coaching staff in Pittsburgh as linebackers coach in 1989. Brazil's 1990 Steelers defense finished first in the NFL, allowing the fewest overall yards and fewest passing yards in the league. From 1984 through the 1988 season Brazil was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs coaching staff as secondary and then linebackers coach.

Before joining the NFL in 1984, Brazil was defensive coordinator at Kent State (1981-1982) and Boston College (1980). Brazil's first pro coaching experience was in the World Football League with the Detroit Wheels (1974) and the Chicago Wind (1975). Prior to joining the pro ranks, Brazil coached at Eastern Michigan (1971-1973), Tulsa (1969-1970) and Holy Cross (1968).

Brazil was born in Detroit, Michigan on March 25, 1936. He graduated from the University of Detroit with a business administration degree. He and his wife, the former Bridget Kennedy of Royal Oak, Mich., have six children: daughters Kathleen and Mary Ann and sons Michael, Daniel, Thomas and Patrick, who works with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Assistant Video Director.

JOHN DUNN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

John Dunn joined Jim Fassel's coaching staff on January 23, 1997 as strength and conditioning coach. Dunn installed his offseason program immediately. Dunn's program uses shorter, higher-intensity workouts that put less stress on the body.

"We want to keep our players healthier and not wear down their joint systems," said Dunn. "It's taking a muscle group, putting a person in a safe position and trying to exhaust that muscle group."

Dunn came to the Giants after serving in the same capacity for the San Diego Chargers from 1990-96 and the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-89. Dunn began his career in the NFL as an assistant strength coach with the Washington Redskins from 1984-86.

In 1994 Dunn was voted the National Football League's Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by his peers.

Dunn graduated with a degree in health and physical education from Penn State University in 1978. He played defensive line his first two seasons (1974-75) before switching to offensive tackle as a junior and then to guard as a senior. He was named offensive co-captain for the Nittany Lions his senior season. Dunn signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1978. He returned to Penn State as the team's assistant offensive line coach in 1979.

He operated "Mother Dunn's Nautilus Club" in York, Pa., and Goshen, New York, before coming to the NFL in 1984.

Dunn was born on July 22, 1956 in Hillsdale, New York. He was a three-sport star, including a nationally-ranked shot putter, for Taconic Hills High in Philmont, New York. Dunn and his wife, Julia, have two daughters, Jessica and Taylor. He was nicknamed "Mother Dunn" during his freshman season at Penn State.

MIKE GILLHAMER

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Mike Gillhamer serves as the offensive assistant coach for the Giants. He joined the team's staff on February 24, 1997. Included in his many duties on the offensive side of the ball, Gillhamer assists Jim Skipper in coaching the running backs. He came to the Giants after spending the 1996 season as defensive backs coach at Rutgers University.

Prior to his stint with the Scarlet Knights, Gillhamer was defensive coordinator for the University of Nevada in 1995 after serving the 1994 season as Nevada's defensive backs coach. He also coached the defensive backs at San Jose State (1990-93), the University of Utah (1985-89) and Weber State (1984). Jim Fassel was head coach during Gillhamer's tenure at Utah. His collegiate coaching career began with a five-year stay at the College of the Sequoias (Visalia, CA) from 1979-83. In 1979 he coached the defensive line and from 1980-83 he was the defensive secondary coach. He received a degree in physical education from Humboldt State and a master's degree in special education in 1981. In 1988, he served as the "guest" assistant coach with the Ottawa Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

He was a player at Humboldt State and was named most valuable defensive back in 1975. He also played baseball and ran track at Humboldt State. Gillhamer and his wife, Tammy, have two daughters, Meagen and Taylor.

MIKE HALUCHAK

LINEBACKERS

Mike Haluchak joined head coach Jim Fassel's staff as linebackers coach on January 31, 1997. Haluchak's prized pupil with the Giants has been two-time Pro Bowl LB Jessie Armstead, who set a single-season personal high with 134 total tackles in 1997, eclipsing the 114 tackles he had in 1996. The 134 total tackles are one tackle higher than Lawrence Taylor's team record of 133 total tackles set during his rookie season in 1981. Haluchak's teaching style has also benefitted middle linebacker Corey Widmer, who has been a vital cog in the Giants run support.

Haluchak joined the Giants after serving three seasons (1994-96) as linebackers coach for the Washington Redskins. He joined the Redskins following two seasons in Cincinnati (1992-93), six seasons in San Diego (1986-91) and three years with the USFL's Oakland Invaders (1983-85).

Haluchak coached seven years at the collegiate level, coaching linebackers at North Carolina State (1982), California (1981) and Pacific (1979-80). He was the defensive backfield coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1978 and was a graduate assistant at USC in 1976 and 1977.

Haluchak had a four-year playing career at USC where he started at inside linebacker and later moved to strong safety. He played in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan.

He received a degree in history from USC and a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran College.

Haluchak was born November 28, 1949 in Concord, Ca. His wife's name is Carol.

JOHNNIE LYNN

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Johnnie Lynn joined the Giants staff on January 31, 1997 as defensive backs coach. Lynn was instrumental in the development of Conrad Hamilton in 1998 as Hamilton turned in a solid performance in place of the injured Jason Sehorn. In his first season with the Giants, Lynn's unit led the NFL in interceptions with 27. Lynn has molded a young group of defensive backs - Sam Barnes, Percy Ellsworth, Shaun Williams, and Hamilton - with veteran performers Sehorn and Phillippi Sparks.

Lynn came to the Giants following a stint with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach during the 1996 season. Lynn served in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995.

Lynn spent seven seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks at Arizona, beginning as a graduate assistant in 1987, before tutoring the outside linebackers (1988-91) and defensive backs (1992-93).

Lynn was a standout defensive back at both safety and cornerback in the NFL for eight seasons as a member of the New York Jets (1979-86) following his fourth-round draft selection out of UCLA. He earned a starting position as a rookie and concluded his career No. 10 on the Jets career list with 17 interceptions. He was a letterman on four UCLA bowl teams and received All-Pac 10 Honors as a senior. Lynn earned a bachelor's degree in history from UCLA.

Born December 19, 1956 in Los Angeles, Lynn and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of three children, Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

LARRY MAC DUFF

SPECIAL TEAMS

After serving as defensive coordinator for the University of Arizona since 1987, Larry Mac Duff was named special teams coach for the Giants on January 23, 1997.

Under Mac Duff's leadership, the Arizona defense was rated in the statistical top 10 four times. His units at Arizona produced five Pac-10 Defensive Players of the Year. In 1992, Arizona's defense led the nation in scoring defense (8.9 pts./game) and in 1993, it was No. 1 in rushing defense, allowing just 30.1 yards per game. During Mac

Duff's tenure at Arizona, the Wildcats appeared in five Bowl games, including a 29-0 victory over Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl. Mac Duff served as assistant head coach for three seasons in Arizona from 1994 through 1996.

Prior to joining Arizona, Mac Duff spent three seasons (1983-86) as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator for the University of Hawaii. Mac Duff coached linebackers at Fullerton JC in 1970, was line coach and defensive coordinator at Sunny Hills High in 1971-73 and was defensive line coach and linebackers coach at Fullerton from 1974-1979. He moved to Stanford as defensive line coach in 1980-81 and 1983, and was defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach in 1982.

Mac Duff was a two-time all-conference defensive end at Fullerton JC and led Fullerton to a 12-0 record and national title in 1967. He was conference player of the year in 1967 and earned All-America honors. Mac Duff was a starter at Oklahoma and helped the Sooners earn a Big Eight co-championship in 1968.

Mac Duff received a degree in physical education from Oklahoma in 1970 and a master's in physical education from Fullerton. He was born June 22, 1948, in Clinton, Iowa. He and his wife, Barbie have a son Justin.

DENNY MARCINI

DEFENSIVE LINE

Denny Marcini was named defensive line coach by Jim Fassel on February 10, 1997. Under Marcini in 1997, the Giants finished with two players with double-digit sack totals for the first time since 1986. DT Robert Harris had 10 sacks and DE Michael Strahan finished tied for third in the NFL with 14 sacks. The Giants repeated the feat in 1998 with Strahan recording a career-best 15.0 sacks and DE Chad Bratzke setting a career-high with 11.0 sacks. Marcini guided the Giants to consecutive 54-sack seasons, finishing first in the NFL in that category in 1998 and third in the league in 1997. Strahan was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad for his efforts in each of the last two seasons.

Marcini joined the Giants staff after spending nine seasons (1988-96) as defensive line coach at the University of Illinois. In addition to his defensive line responsibilities, he spent four seasons (1992-95) as defensive coordinator before being named assistant head coach for the 1996 season.

Marcini served as defensive coordinator at North Carolina from 1978-1987, after which he also added the duties of assistant head coach. During his ten years at North Carolina, the Tar Heels had 24 defensive players move on to the National Football League, including former Giant Lawrence Taylor. At the conclusion of the 1981 season, North Carolina was ranked No. 1 in the nation in total defense.

Prior to his ten-year stay at North Carolina, Marcini was an assistant coach at Miami of Ohio from 1974-1977. He served as defensive coordinator in 1977.

A 1964 graduate of Miami of Ohio, Marcini earned a B.S. in education. He played on both the offensive and defensive lines for Miami of Ohio.

Marcini was instrumental in the development of two former Illinois players that were selected in the first round of the 1996 draft - Simeon Rice of the Arizona Cardinals and Kevin Hardy of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Marcini also aided in the development of Moe Gardner, a two-time All-American and a 1991 4th round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Marcini and his wife Betsey, have four children, Jeff, Denny (married to Lynn), Melinda and Susie, and four grandsons.

JIM MC NALLY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Jim McNally joined the Giants staff on January 12, 1999 as offensive line coach, bringing with him 19 years of NFL coaching experience. McNally joined the Giants after spending the last four seasons (1995-98) as line coach with the Carolina Panthers.

"I'm excited about having Jim join our staff," said head coach Jim Fassel on the hiring of McNally. "He knows what we want to do offensively, and it's a good fit."

McNally's first NFL coaching position was as offensive line coach for the Cincinnati Bengals for 15 seasons (1980-94) where he first earned his reputation as one of the league's best. From 1986-90, the Bengals fashioned one of the NFL's strongest running games, finishing 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing. For 13 years, his lines were anchored by NFL Hall of Famer Anthony Munoz, who is widely regarded as the best offensive tackle in league history. In all, McNally's offensive lines helped the Bengals to two Super Bowls during his decade and a half with Cincinnati.

He joined Cincinnati in 1980 after a series of positions as a college assistant. McNally was an assistant at Wake Forest (1978-79), Boston College (1975-77), Marshall (1971-74). Before joining the staff at Marshall, he was an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Buffalo, for five seasons (1966-70).

McNally played guard at the University of Buffalo from 1961-65, where his playing prowess in conjunction with his coaching acumen earned him a place in the University of Buffalo Hall of Fame.

McNally was born on December 13, 1943 in Buffalo, New York. He is a graduate of Kenmore (N.Y.) West High School and is in the school's Hall of Fame. Nationwide, he is known for his clinics on offensive line coaching, which he conducts in the offseason. McNally and his wife Carolyn have two daughters, Jenny and Betsy; and a son, Jon.

SEAN PAYTON

QUARTERBACKS

Sean Payton joined head coach Jim Fassel's staff as quarterbacks coach on February 3, 1999, replacing Rod Dowhower who left the Giants to become offensive coordinator of the Philadelphia Eagles. Payton spent the 1997 and 1998 season as quarterbacks coach for the Eagles.

After spending the 1987 season as quarterback with the Chicago Bears, Payton sandwiched two coaching stints at San Diego State (1988-89, 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). It was in his second tenure at San Diego State that Payton served as the Aztecs' running backs coach, working closely with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk (Indianapolis Colts) before becoming the Aztecs' quarterbacks coach. In that later role, Payton helped Tim Gutierrez earn All-WAC honors in 1993. Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami of Ohio (1994-95) where he served as quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator. He spent the 1996 season as quarterbacks coach at Illinois prior to joining the Eagles.

Payton earned a degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he threw for 10,655 yards, then seventh-best on the all-time NCAA Division I-AA list. After leading all Division I-AA quarterbacks in passing in 1986, the three-time Associated Press All-America selection had brief stints with Chicago of the Arena League, Ottawa of the Canadian League and the Bears in 1987.

Payton was born December 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif. and was raised in Naperville, Illinois. He and wife, Beth, have a daughter, Meghan.

DICK REHBEIN

TIGHT ENDS/ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Dick Rehbein originally joined the Giants staff in February 1992 as the team's tight ends coach. When Dan Reeves took over the team in January of 1993, Rehbein was given the assignment of coaching the wide receivers. Rehbein, who coached with Jim Fassel in 1992 under Ray Handley, was retained when Fassel took over as head coach in 1997 and was assigned to coach the tight ends. He took on the new responsibility of assisting with the offensive line in 1998.

Rehbein joined the Giants after spending eight seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (1984-91). While with Minnesota, Rehbein was a special assistant in 1984, receivers coach from 1985 through 1988 and assistant offensive coordinator/passing game coach from 1989 through 1991. Prior to his Minnesota experience, Rehbein was special teams coach and assistant offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1984. Before that, he was special teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1979 through 1983.

A four-year starter as a center at Ripon College in Wisconsin, Rehbein was a Division II All-American who went to training camp with the Green Bay Packers in 1977.

Rehbein was born on November 22, 1955 in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Rehbein and his wife Pam have two daughters, Betsy and Sarabeth.

JIMMY ROBINSON

WIDE RECEIVERS

Jimmy Robinson was named wide receivers coach on February 13, 1998. Robinson previously served in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts from 1994-97 and the Atlanta Falcons from 1990-93. A Giants player from 1976-79, Robinson caught the first Giants touchdown in Giants Stadium history on a 30-yard pass from QB Craig Morton against Dallas on October 10, 1976.

While with the Colts, Robinson helped WR Sean Dawkins improve his receptions in each of his four seasons and helped WR Marvin Harrison become only the third rookie in Colts history to lead the club in receptions. He helped Falcons WRs Andre Rison and Michael Haynes lead the NFL in tandem touchdown receptions in 1991 and 1992 and Rison and Mike Pritchard in 1993.

Robinson entered the coaching ranks following an NFL playing career that included stops with Atlanta (1975), the Giants (1976-79), San Francisco (1980) and Denver (1981). His first role came as receivers/tight ends coach of the Memphis Showboats (USFL) from 1983-85. He moved to his alma mater, Georgia Tech, as receivers coach from 1987-89 before joining the Falcons in the same role.

Robinson was a standout receiver at Georgia Tech from 1971-74. He notched 101 career receptions for 1,633 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was added to the school's Hall of Fame in 1981 and named to the school's All-Time Team in 1992. He earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management at Georgia Tech.

Robinson was born January 3, 1953 in New York City. He is married to the former Karen Gresham of Rome, Ga. They have four children, Jamie, Jessica, Jim and Katie.

CRAIG STODDARD

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Craig Stoddard joined the Giants coaching staff on February 1, 1997 as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach. Stoddard came to the Giants after spending two seasons (1995-96) as a graduate assistant strength coach on Joe Paterno's staff at Penn State. The Nittany Lions advanced to the Outback Bowl in 1995 and the Fiesta Bowl in 1996 during his tenure at Penn State.

After graduating with a degree in Exercise Science from Springfield College in 1994, Stoddard interned under strength coach John Dunn with the San Diego Chargers during the 1994 season. He served as Fitness Director at New Canaan High School in Connecticut prior to joining the Penn State staff. Stoddard was a middle linebacker at Springfield College where he earned four varsity letters.

Originally from Brookfield, Connecticut, Stoddard was born in North Tarrytown, New York on February 8, 1972. Stoddard is married to the former Amanda Larrabee of Beverly, Ma.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

TOM BOISTURE

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

After serving for 10 years as a scout, chief scout and in the personnel department for the New England Patriots, Tom Boisture joined the Giants in the spring of 1980 as Director of Player Personnel. Boisture was named Vice President of Player Personnel in 1998.

Boisture began his coaching career at Austin Catholic H.S. in Detroit where he was head football coach, then continued as a head coach at St. Ambrose H.S. in Detroit. He moved into the collegiate ranks at the University of Houston as an assistant coach for offensive backs then moved on to Holly Cross College in 1966 as Defensive Coordinator. He was named head coach at Holy Cross in 1967 and upset Yale in his first game as head coach — the only defeat Yale was to suffer in three years. In 1969, Boisture moved on to Tulsa University as Defensive Coordinator, and in 1970 he moved into the NFL with New England as a scout.

Born March 23, 1931 in Detroit, Boisture played his high school sports at Holy Redeemer H.S. in Detroit then won three varsity letters as both an offensive and defensive lineman at Mississippi State where he earned a B.S. degree in Education and History.

Boisture is married to the former Dolores Ann Kenney of Detroit and has five children: daughters Susan Ann, Deborah Lynn and Nancy Ann, and sons David and Michael. He and his wife reside in Little Ferry, N.J.

MARV SUNDERLAND

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Marv Sunderland was appointed Director of Player Personnel on May 7, 1998 following the move of Tom Boisture to Vice President of Player Personnel. He is in charge of overseeing all aspects of college scouting, including primary responsibility for organizing the Giants drafts.

He is entering his 23rd season in the National Football League after spending time in the scouting departments for the New England Patriots and the New York Jets. He first joined the NFL in 1976 as a personnel assistant for the Patriots. Sunderland learned the evaluation system that is coveted by the Giants during his time with the Patriots. He joined the Jets organization as a talent scout in 1979 and served there until taking the Giants post. Prior to joining the NFL, Sunderland served as an assistant coach at North Dakota State from 1970 until 1975. North Dakota State won five conference titles during his tenure and finished undefeated in 1970.

Born June 22, 1944 in Chester, Montana, Sunderland was a three-time all-Conference fullback at Northern Montana from 1964 through 1966. He had a tryout with the New Orleans Saints in 1967 and signed with the Calgary Stampeders for the 1968 season. Sunderland earned a master's degree in physical education from North Dakota State. Sunderland has a daughter, Shay Nicole, 24, and a son Brock, 19. He is married to the former Charlotte O'Hara and has a stepson, Brock O'Hara (19).

DAVID GETTLEMAN

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Gettleman was named the club's Director of Pro Personnel following Tim Rooney's retirement last spring. Gettleman joined the Giants in 1998 as the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel, assisting Rooney with the pro scouting evaluation process. He came to the Giants after spending the last four and one half seasons as an area scout for the Denver Broncos, concentrating on the East Coast region.

Gettleman, 48, became a full-time scout with Buffalo in 1987, was assigned as the Bills' representative to the BLESTO combine in 1988, and continued in that capacity through 1992. From June 1992 through December 1993 he worked as a regional scout for the BLESTO combine.

Gettleman began his coaching career at Spackenkill High School in Poughkeepsie, New York as head coach (1972-81), leading his team to a pair of league titles. He spent a year as a graduate assistant at Cal State Long Beach (1979-80), then joined the faculty at Kingston (N.Y.) High School as a teacher-coach in 1982. In 1984 he became the head football coach at Kingston High School and led his team to a play-off berth.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts on February 21, 1951, Gettleman earned a bachelor's degree from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1972 and was an offensive tackle for the football team for two seasons. He has two master's degrees: one in physical education from Southern Connecticut State (1978) and another in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami (1986).

Gettleman and his wife, Joanne, have three children, Aaron, Sam and Ana.

JERRY REESE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Jerry Reese was named Assistant Director of Pro Personnel last spring. He originally joined the Giants scouting department on December 15, 1994 after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is high on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions and still holds several punt return records. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant for one year and as a graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

Reese has his Bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education and earned his Master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision.

Reese is married to the former Gwen Moore, who is also a UT-Martin graduate. The couple has two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

JERRY SHAY

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Shay, a Giants tackle during the 1970 and 1971 seasons, was named Director of College Scouting in 1977 after serving as a scout for the team since 1972. While serving as a scout, Shay was responsible for the Western states area, including all of the West Coast as well as Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas.

Shay was an All-America star at Purdue University and was the number one draft choice of the Minnesota Vikings in 1966. He was a starting defensive tackle for the Vikings for two years, then was traded to the Atlanta Falcons in 1968 where he again starred for two seasons before coming to the Giants in a trade in 1970 for a draft choice. Shay was a key performer that season as the Giants finished with a 9-5 record and missed the playoffs by one game. In that season's final game against the Rams, he suffered a broken leg and retired after the 1971 season after appearing in only six games. He became a scout the following season.

Born on July 10, 1944 in Gary, Ind. (family name Dzedzeji), Jerry is married to the former Cynthia Zajkowski, and has three daughters: Tiffany Lee, the 1995 recipient of the John V. Mara Scholarship awarded annually to the child of a former Giants player, Shannon Marie, and Jeri Lynn. The Shays reside in San Diego, California.

RAY WALSH, JR.

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

Walsh has been with the Giants since 1973, initially as an Administrative Assistant before moving over to the scouting and player personnel department. As a youngster, Walsh worked at Giants pre-season training camps from 1956-63.

Walsh, who is also known by his nickname "Whitey," earned a degree in Inter-American Relations at Fordham University in 1963 after graduating from Archbishop Stepinac H.S. in White Plains where he grew up. After a tour of duty in the U.S. Army, he joined United Airlines in 1965 in the Passenger Service department and remained with United until April of 1973 when he joined the Giants.

Married to the former Judith Carey, Walsh is the father of two sons, David, 26, and Timothy, 11, and a daughter Susan, 24. The family resides in Ramsey, New Jersey. Aside from football, Walsh is an avid British history buff, particularly the medieval period, as well as a devotee of Hollywood movies from the 1930s and 1940s.

GREG GABRIEL

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gabriel joined the Giants scouting department during the 1985 off-season after serving as an area scout for an NFL scouting combine in the Great Lakes area. Gabriel gained his first professional football experience working part-time in the scouting department of the Buffalo Bills, both in film grading and in player evaluation.

A native of Buffalo where he was born on May 4, 1951, Gabriel played his scholastic sports at Bishop Neumann High School in Williamsville, New York. He won three varsity letters as a running back at Canisius College where he earned a B.S. degree.

Prior to entering the football profession, Gabriel was an account executive with Prudential-Bache and later with Dean Witter Reynolds while working part-time with the Bills.

He played for eight seasons as a running back with the Buffalo Geminis, a semi-pro outfit, and was additionally the offensive backfield coach for one season there. Gabriel lives in Buffalo and is the father of three daughters, Liza, Ryan, and Kelsey.

HARRY HULMES

After retiring from his post as Special Assistant to the General Manager in 1998, Hulmes has remained with the Giants as a player personnel scout, one of his duties since joining the club as Assistant General Manager in 1984.

Prior to being named by the Giants, Hulmes had served as Chief Operating Officer for the Arizona Wranglers of the USFL, but virtually all of his previous experience was within the NFL where he served for 12 years with the Baltimore Colts and 13 years with the New Orleans Saints in a variety of positions.

Hulmes began his career in sports with the Baltimore Orioles as assistant business manager, then was the sports information director at Bucknell University before entering the NFL as business manager of the Colts in 1958. He subsequently served as public relations director and general manager of the Colts before moving to the Saints in 1970 as assistant general manager. Until he departed for the Wranglers in 1982, Hulmes also served the Saints as Director of Player Personnel and Vice President of Administration.

After graduating from Northeast High School in Philadelphia, Hulmes spent three years in the Navy as a radarman in the South Pacific and Persian Gulf theaters. Hulmes earned a B.A. degree in journalism and psychology at the University of Pennsylvania after returning from the service.

Born on July 20, 1927 in Philadelphia, Hulmes is married to the former Barbara Lockhart of Mount Holly, N.J. and is the father of two daughters, Linda Ann and Terry Ellen, both graduates of LSU, and a son, Richard Wayne, also a graduate of LSU.

SCOUTING

ROSIE BROWN

After a Hall of Fame career as a tackle for the Giants from 1953-1965, Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout in 1971.

During his playing career, Brown ranked as one of the all-time great offensive linemen in the National Football League. The wide-ranging tackle earned All Pro honors eight times and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl on ten occasions. In 1956, Brown was voted Lineman of the Year in the NFL.

Brown was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966. In 1969, Brown replaced Jim Trimble as head line coach. In 1971, Brown, along with another coaching aide, Ken Kavanaugh, left Alex Webster's staff to assume new responsibilities under Jim Lee Howell, his one-time coach, in the scouting department.

Brown, now 66, is a resident of Scottsville, Va. but spends a good deal of his time on the road in search of fresh talent for the Giants.

JOHN CREA

Crea originally joined the Giants as a scout in the spring of 1992 after an impressive college coaching career.

After graduating from Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island, Crea began his collegiate days at the University of Utah. He then transferred to Albany State University where he won three varsity letters as a defensive back and wide receiver. He graduated from Albany State with a B.A. degree in English and Communications. Crea added a Master's degree in Physical Education from Arizona State University where he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant.

He continued his collegiate coaching career with stops at Albany State, Kean College, Frostburg State in Maryland, and Holy Cross. In 1982, Crea was named the head coach at William Paterson College in New Jersey. After six years in that position, he became the head coach at Methodist College in Fayetteville, North Carolina from 1987 through the 1991 campaign.

Married to the former Kathleen Coyle, John and his wife have a daughter, Kelly, 16, and he lists racquetball and golf as his favorite hobbies.

JEREMIAH DAVIS

Davis began his affiliation with the Giants in 1988 as a part-time scout after a career as a collegiate coach. In March of 1990, Davis was named to the Giants scouting department in a full-time capacity.

Davis graduated from Montclair High School in Montclair, New Jersey, then began his college football career at Washington State before receiving a B.A. degree in Criminal Law from the University of Wyoming in 1977. He subsequently earned a Master's degree in Sports Administration from Grambling University in 1981.

Davis began his college coaching career at Wyoming as a secondary assistant and strength coach and served in the same capacity at the University of Washington and at Grambling where he also worked with the linebackers. He moved on to Northern Iowa and to the University of Central Florida as an assistant coach, then moved into the recruiting arena with Purdue University in 1985. He was also at Tennessee-Martin for two years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator before joining the Giants in 1988.

KEN KAVANAUGH

Kavanaugh, a member of the Chicago Bears all-time team, brought a wealth of experience as both a professional player and a coach to the Giants when he joined the scouting department in 1971. He moved into the scouting department from the coaching staff where he had been offensive ends coach from 1955-68 and offensive coach from 1969-70. Kavanaugh coached the Giants for a total of 16 years under three head coaches: Jim Lee Howell, Allie Sherman and Alex Webster.

Prior to joining the Giants coaching staff, the College Hall of Fame end spent one season (1951) as ends coach for the Chicago Bears and one season (1954) at Villanova College in his hometown of Philadelphia.

As a player, Ken starred for the Chicago Bears from 1940-41. He left the Bears for an Air Force tour of duty as a bomber pilot in World War II in Europe, then returned to the team to make All Pro in 1946 and 1947. Kavanaugh set four all-time Chicago records which still stand today: most touchdown passes caught (50); most TD passes caught one season (13); highest average gain, career (22.4); and highest average gain, season (25.6).

During his collegiate career, Kavanaugh was a three-year regular (1936-40), once earning All-America honors. Kavanaugh and his wife, Ann, now reside in Sarasota, Florida.

STEVE VERDEROSA

The 1998 season marks Steve Verderosa's twelfth season with the New York Giants after joining the scouting staff in 1988. Verderosa came to the Giants after serving in the scouting department of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Verderosa began his collegiate career at Central Iowa as a wide receiver and punter after graduating from Melville High School in Setauket, N.Y. He then moved to New York Institute of Technology where he continued his dual roles, earning ECAC Player of the Week Honors for an eight-catch, 100-yard day vs. Western Connecticut in the 1975 season.

After receiving a degree in general architecture and a design award in his senior year, Verderosa had a tryout with the Washington Redskins as a wide receiver and punter in 1977 and also had a two-week stint with the Cleveland Browns as a punter in the 1978 preseason.

Verderosa worked for one year as an architectural draftsman before getting the football urge and beginning a coaching career at his alma mater, New York Tech, as an offensive assistant. He then spent two seasons as a coach and teacher at St. Anthony's High School before landing a spot as defensive backfield coach at Columbia University. From there, he moved on to C.W. Post for four years as secondary coach and then joined the scouting department of the Buccaneers.

A native of Roslyn, Long Island where he was born on June 9, 1954, Verderosa is married to the former Lori Ann Felicetti. The Verderosas reside in Apex, North Carolina with two sons, Alex and Matthew Lucas, and one daughter, Mikala.

RONNIE BARNES

HEAD TRAINER

Ronnie Barnes has compiled an impressive dossier of accomplishments since joining the Giants as a student intern in 1976. The 47-year old Barnes was elected to the National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame this past spring.

A graduate of East Carolina University where he won distinguished student honors, Barnes was the school's first graduate of the Sports Medicine program and has since been elected to the East Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and been named a winner of the Outstanding Alumni Award as well. He received a Master's degree from Michigan State University in Administrative Services and also served as trainer and assistant professor of health at MSU where he was the trainer for both Magic Johnson and Kirk Gibson during his tenure.

A native of Rocky Mount, North Carolina, where he was born on February 15, 1952, Barnes graduated from Fike Senior H.S. in Wilson, North Carolina. Since assuming his full-time capacity with the club in 1980, Barnes has twice been voted National Professional Trainer of the Year by the National Athletic Trainers Association, a 20,000-member organization, and he served on the NATA board of certification for 10 years. Barnes is the past president of the NATA Research and Education Foundation and is currently a board member. He serves on the Board of Directors for Honestly House, a drug and alcohol rehabilitation center and is a member of the NFL Sub Committee on Mild Brain Trauma. In June of 1995, Barnes was elected President of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. In June of 1996, he was awarded the NATA Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award.

Barnes has made State Department tours to Brazil and other countries and he has lectured nationally and internationally on sports medicine, including a German tour. Barnes is the Founder of Professional Sports Care Management, a public physical therapy company with facilities throughout the tri-state area. He was named the March of Dimes Man of the Year in 1994. Barnes resides in Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

JOHN JOHNSON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Johnson, a graduate of the Swedish Institute of Physical Therapy, has been a trainer for the Giants for more than 40 years. During this period, he has also served as head trainer and instructor at Manhattan College where he is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame.

After serving as an intern at Brooklyn Jewish and Long Island College Hospitals (1937-38), Johnson worked as a physical trainer for the Bedford YMCA and then was in charge of physical therapy and rehabilitation at a U.S. Air Force base hospital from 1942-46. His service hitch included duty as a physical therapy instructor, athletic trainer for post teams and as an air-sea rescue medic. From 1946-47, Johnson was a civilian athletic trainer at the U.S. Naval Preflight School in Otumwa, La.

A member of the Eastern and National Athletic Trainers Associations as well as the National Physical Therapy Association, Johnson has also served as a trainer for visiting teams at Madison Square Garden (1954-63). Johnson resides in Cresskill, N.J.

STEVE KENNELLY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Steve Kennelly, a native of Leonia, New Jersey, joined the Giants in July of 1992. He is responsible for assisting Ronnie Barnes in the overall injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of the Giants players. Kennelly earned a B.S. degree from Northeastern University in 1985 and an M.Ed. from the University of Virginia in 1987.

Prior to joining the Giants, Kennelly was the head athletic trainer for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League. He also served as the director of athletic training services for Professional Sports Care Meadowlands and as head athletic trainer for the New York Knights of the Arena League.

He began his career as the assistant athletic trainer at Hobart College in Geneva, New York before serving a graduate assistantship at Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va. Kennelly is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Society of New Jersey, where he serves as Secretary.

Born in Teaneck, New Jersey on September 26, 1962, Kennelly and his wife, Rita, have a son, Ryan Connor (6-29-95) and a daughter, Lia (4-13-99) and reside in Oakland, New Jersey.

BYRON HANSEN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Byron Hansen begins his second season with the Giants after spending the last 18 seasons on the athletic training staff at the University of Southern California. Hansen, who coordinates the Giants rehabilitation, replaced Michael Colello, who left the Giants in 1998 to become the Head Athletic Trainer for the Cleveland Browns. A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Society of New Jersey, Hansen spent ten seasons assisting the Giants during training camp.

A native of Ord, Nebraska where he was born on December 11, 1955, Hansen grew up in Albany, Oregon. He earned a B.S. degree in Health Education from the University of Oregon in 1978 where he worked as a student assistant in the athletic department. Hansen worked as an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Colorado's football program for two years and earned a Master's degree in Exercise Physiology in 1981.

After graduation, Hansen began his career at USC, serving under five head coaches and working with athletes such as Tony Boselli, Marcus Allen, Junior Seau and Jason Sehorn. He served as an athletic trainer at the 1984 Olympic basketball venue in Los Angeles. Hansen and his wife Laurie have two daughters, Kelly (13) and Kristen (11).

DR. RUSSELL F. WARREN

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Warren joined the Giants medical staff in 1984. A graduate of Columbia College in New York and the Upstate Medical School in Syracuse, New York, he completed his residency in orthopedic surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City after a two-year tour of duty as a medical officer in the U.S. Navy.

He then completed a fellowship in shoulder surgery with Dr. Charles Neer at the Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. Dr. Warren is currently an Attending Orthopedic Surgeon for The New York Presbyterian Hospital, Surgeon-in-Chief at The Hospital for Special Surgery and Professor of Orthopedic Surgery for Weill Medical College of Cornell University. Previously, he was the President of the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine and American Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons.

Born in Burlington, Vermont on June 18, 1939, Dr. Warren is the author of numerous publications in his specialties of knee and shoulder surgery specifically pertaining to joint instability, rotator cuff tears and shoulder replacements. He is a resident of Greenwich, Connecticut. An outstanding halfback at Columbia, Warren had a tryout with the Giants in 1962. Warren and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of a son, Rusty, and a daughter, Lisa.

DR. ALLAN LEVY

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Allan Levy joined the Giants prior to the 1976 season and brings impressive credentials with him to the job. In private practice for over 30 years in Westwood, New Jersey, Dr. Levy has been involved in sports medicine for most of those years, initially as the team physician for Westwood High School.

He moved into professional football as team physician for the Newark Bears and then with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the old Continental Football League. Dr. Levy continued in football as team physician for the Westchester Bulls, a Giant affiliate in the late 1960s, and was the first team doctor for the New Jersey Nets when they began play originally as the New Jersey Americans. He has also worked as the team doctor for the New York Islanders hockey team of the NHL. He is also the author of "The Sports Injury Handbook," professional advice for amateur athletes, and "Golf Injury Handbook."

Born on May 28, 1927 in Saranac Lake, New York, Dr. Levy received his B.A. from Columbia University in 1947 and his M.D. from Cornell University in 1951. He and his wife Gail have three children.

DR. STEPHEN J. O'BRIEN

ASSOCIATE TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stephen O'Brien originally joined the Giants prior to the start of the 1993 season. A graduate of Harvard University and the University of Virginia's School of Medicine, he did his internship at Yale University Medical Center and his Orthopedic Residency and Fellowship at The Hospital For Special Surgery in New York City.

He is currently the Chief Orthopedic Consultant at St. John's University and the Medical Director for the New York Racing Association. Dr. O'Brien is the author of numerous research articles and chapters and has participated in many scientific exhibits and presentations.

Among the awards Dr. O'Brien has received are the Charles S. Neer Award, given by the American Shoulder & Elbow Society to the top shoulder researcher in the USA, and the 1991 Optimate Society Award for Excellence in Medicine/Society.

Dr. O'Brien won varsity letters in both football and baseball while an undergraduate at Harvard. He and his wife, Kathleen Donnelly-O'Brien, reside in Garden City, New York with their four children.

DR. JOEL GOLDBERG

DIRECTOR OF COUNSELING SERVICES

As one of the NFL teams in the forefront of encouraging the development of career counseling for players, the Giants added Dr. Joel Goldberg to the staff to oversee this function in February of 1981.

The object of his counseling programs is to help players through the transition from playing days to non-playing days and life adjustment and to stimulate interaction between the metropolitan community and the players.

A native of Brooklyn, Dr. Goldberg earned a B.S. in Physical Education from the University of Rhode Island, a Master's degree in Psychology from New York University and a Doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from Rutgers University.

A licensed therapist and school psychologist in the state of New Jersey, Goldberg is the CEO of an international consulting company, Career Consultants, specializing in assessment, employee development, search, conflict resolution and organizational development. He also serves on eight corporate boards, including Modell's, Phillips-Van Heusen, Marcal Paper Company and Merrimac.

Born on July 5, 1943, Dr. Goldberg and his wife Roberta, who holds a Ph.D. in Anthropology from Rutgers University and is a professor at William Paterson University, have a son Jason, who is a pilot for American Airlines, and a daughter Emily, who is a law student at New York University.

DR. KEN EHRLMAN
TEAM CHIROPRACTOR

DR. MARK GARDY
EMERGENCY MEDICINE

DR. HUGH GARDY

TEAM DENTIST

Dr. Gardy joined the Giants during the 1977 season. He is nationally known as the Father of Sports Dentistry and has probably treated more professional athletes than any other dentist in the country. He is also currently the team dentist for the New Jersey Devils, New Jersey Nets, NY/NJ Metrostars and was the dental director for soccer's World Cup 1994.

Gardy was a dentist for the U.S. Olympic team in 1984. He was the founder and past president of the Academy for Sports Dentistry and was the only dentist on the New Jersey Governors Council on Sports and Physical Fitness. Dr. Gardy is a Fellow of the Academy of General Practice, Diplomate of the American Society of Osseointegration and a Fellow of the American College of Dentists. In 1997 he was awarded the Distinguished American Award the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

Dr. Gardy received his A.B. and D.D.S. from New York University. He and his wife Sandy reside in River Vale, N.J., and have three children.

HEIDI SKOLNIK

NUTRITION CONSULTANT

Heidi Skolnik joined the Giants in May of 1992 to work throughout the year with the players on nutritional aspects of training and competition, providing dietary counseling for preventive health and rehabilitation. Skolnik brings a diversified background to the Giants.

A graduate of Ithaca College, she earned a B.A. degree in Exercise and Nutrition, a Master's degree in Sports Medicine for physical educators and a Master's in Nutrition. While at Ithaca, she devised and implemented conditioning plans for that school's football and baseball teams, then worked with Morgan Stanley & Co. in New York for seven years as Director of Exercise, Training and Health Promotion.

Skolnik has also been the New York Mets nutrition consultant since 1986, devising spring training camp menus and conducting presentations to the Majors as well the Minor League teams and providing individual nutrition coaching. Skolnik is the nutritionist for The American School of Ballet and has done some work with the New Jersey Nets.

Additionally, Skolnik is the contributing nutrition advisor for Conte' Nast Sports for Women magazine. She lectures to corporations (Becton-Dickenson, Colgate-Palmolive, Meryl Lynch), colleges (Cornell, University of West Virginia, C.W. Post, Hofstra, Monmouth University) and professional organizations. She is a Fellow with the American College of Sports Medicine and is affiliated with The National Strength and Conditioning Association, The American Dietetic Association and The International Association of Fitness Professionals. Skolnik acts as a resource for national media, including "G.Q.", "Rolling Stone", and "Women's Day", and has been seen on "NBC Live", "20/20" and "The TV Food Network". She is the founder of Nutrition Conditioning, Inc., a nutrition and fitness consulting practice based out of New York City.

VIDEO STAFF

TONY CEGLIO

DIRECTOR OF TELEVISION PRODUCTIONS

Ceglie begins his 23rd season with the Giants and his fifth as the team's Director of Television Productions after joining the Giants in 1975 as the club's Film Director. Ceglie handles the broadcasting side of the Giants video operations, including producing, directing and roaming the sidelines shooting for the Giants TV shows, "Giants Today" and "Giants Online." Both shows are broadcast on the MSG Network. "Giants Today" was honored with an Emmy Award in the category of Outstanding Sports Programming at the New York Emmy Awards ceremony in 1995 and 1996. In addition, "Giants Today" received an Emmy Award for Outstanding Editing and Outstanding Original Music Composition in 1996 and Best Audio and Outstanding Original Music Composition in 1997. The show was nominated for Outstanding Sports Programming, Outstanding Editing and Outstanding Original Music Composition following the 1997 season.

When the NFL officially switched from 16mm film to video in 1986, Ceglie designed the premier video tape editing system in the NFL, the Lake Sports Compiler. The Giants were the first team in the NFL to put this system on line, and since then many other teams have employed this system. Ceglie also co-authored the official NFL rules for the video taping of games and game tape exchange, and he was elected chairman of the NFL Video Directors for three years.

Ceglie is well-known in the freelance community as a producer, cameraman, documentaries, feature film promotions and sports.

Born on September 23, 1954 in Mount Vernon, New York, Ceglie is a graduate of Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and the New York School of Visual Arts where he earned a B.A. in Film and an outstanding student award. He teaches an undergraduate course in film and video at his alma mater. Married to the former Carolyn Trainor, the Ceglios reside in Montvale, New Jersey with their twin daughters, Dawn and Danielle. Ceglie is an avid skier who enjoys Colorado and the Jersey shore in the offseason.

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Mancuso begins his fifth season as Video Director after joining the Giants in a full-time capacity in 1978 as an assistant to Tony Ceglie in the team's film department.

Mancuso works closely with the coaching staff in the taping of all practices and games with the Sony Betacam video systems, as well as in the duplicating and editing of all video in the Giants' ultra-modern video offices. In addition, he assists Ceglie with the production of "Giants Today."

A native of Queens, Mancuso attended Stepinac High School in White Plains, New York and then graduated from nearby Scarsdale High School. He then served as a Recreation Director for the Tibbits Nursing Home in Westchester for several years before working part-time for the Giants in the film department in 1977. Mancuso freelanced for two years as a cameraman, still photographer and videographer for the New Jersey Nets of the NBA before assuming his present full-time position with the Giants. Married to the former Reena Slatky, the couple has two sons, John and Julian, and resides in Tuxedo, New York. An accomplished musician, Mancuso has played guitar, bass and piano for various musical groups for the last 23 years.

DAVE MALTESE

ASSISTANT VIDEO DIRECTOR

A native of Rockaway, New Jersey, Maltese joined the Giants as a full-time assistant director in the spring of 1993 after serving as an intern in the team's video department during the 1991 season and working on a part-time basis in 1992.

Maltese works with John Mancuso in taping all of the Giants practice sessions and games and assists in the cutups of the coaching staff's game and opponent tapes. He is responsible for the taping and breakdown of the defense and special teams units. In addition, he assists Tony Ceglio with the production of "Giants Today."

Maltese has worked extensively in cable television in New Jersey and has also served as a cameraman in the taping of music videos that have appeared nationally.

A resident of Wayne, New Jersey and a 1987 graduate of Kinnelon High School, he graduated from William Paterson College in 1993 with a degree in Radio and Television Communications. While at college, Maltese worked at WPSC Radio for five years. Maltese is an accomplished pianist who has been playing for 25 years. He also won two Silver medals in the American Open Tae Kwon Do Championship in 1996. Currently he is a first-degree Black Belt in Tae Kwon Do. He was born on June 13, 1969.

CARMEN PIZZANO

VIDEO ASSISTANT

Pizzano is in his second season as a full-time member of the Giants video staff. He originally joined the Giants organization as an intern in the video department during the 1997 season.

In his current position, Pizzano's primary responsibility is to accommodate the filming and breakdown needs of special teams coach Larry Mac Duff. In addition, he assists the public relations department with the filming of all Giants press conferences that are distributed to the local and national television stations.

A native of Belleville, New Jersey, Pizzano is currently enrolled at William Paterson University where he is majoring in Communications with a concentration in Radio and Television.

COMPUTER SERVICES

JON BERGER

DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

Although he was named to his current position in February of 1987, Berger has been associated with the Giants since 1981 when he worked in the team's preseason training camp as an on-the-field assistant and later as an intern in the media services department.

After graduating from Stuyvesant High School, the Queens native attended Albany State University where he majored in Computer Science and Mathematics, earning a B.S. degree and graduating Cum Laude with Dean's list honors in 1985. He was also a member of the Purple & Gold honor and service society and while an undergraduate also served as a Computer Science teaching assistant. After graduation, he remained at Albany State for another year as the computer coordinator for the physical education department, producing programs for all of the men's and women's intercollegiate teams.

In addition to his full-time duties with the Giants, Berger has also been a familiar figure court-side at all New York Knicks home games at Madison Square Garden where he serves as computer statistician. Berger and his wife, Alicia Cassio, have a son, Justin, and a daughter, Keri, and reside in Kendall Park, New Jersey.

MICHAEL LOSA

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COMPUTER SERVICES

Michael Losa joined the Giants in 1996 as an intern during the team's first training camp in Albany, NY. He was hired full-time in 1997 to assist in the everyday operation of the team's various computer systems. He is responsible for the administration of the network infrastructure as well as developing software for various departments.

Born in Chatham, New York on July 17, 1973, Michael graduated from The University of Albany in 1996 with a degree in Computer Science. He currently lives in Wallington, New Jersey.

EQUIPMENT & SECURITY

ED WAGNER

LOCKER ROOM MANAGER

The overseer of the locker room operations and a much-decorated Army veteran, "Whitey" Wagner assumed his duties in 1976. Since that time, Whitey's domain has not only included all aspects of running the locker room, but also the care and feeding of the players during the week, as well as supervising the maintenance of the pressroom at Giants Stadium which houses all of the metropolitan area media. Wagner is in charge of the Giants' annual largescale moving operation from Giants Stadium to their preseason training camp, as well as the return move and the supervision of maintenance at the camp. During World War II, Wagner earned a Silver Star, Legion of Merit, two Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart.

A native of Staten Island, New York, Wagner and his wife, Gertrude, have a daughter, Patricia, and a son, Edward Jr.

ED WAGNER, JR.

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Ed Wagner Jr. was named to the position of Equipment Manager in June of 1979 and since that time has handled a myriad of details, including the purchase, upkeep and repair of all equipment and uniforms, the transportation of equipment and uniforms to and from all road trips and to and from training camp, the handling of all training camp duties and arrangements, as well as field maintenance.

A native of Staten Island, Wagner had served as assistant equipment manager for two seasons with the Giants prior to being named head equipment manager. Edward Kenneth Wagner was born on November 29, 1956 in Staten Island and graduated from Curtis High School in 1974. He and his wife, the former Andrea DeNonno, have a daughter, Donna, 15, and a son, Christopher, 11. The Wagners reside in River Edge, New Jersey.

JOSEPH SKIBA
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

After serving as assistant locker room manager since joining the Giants prior to the 1994 season, Skiba began new responsibilities this past offseason when he was promoted to assistant equipment manager. In his current position, he assists Ed Wagner, Jr. and Steve Songy with the maintenance of the equipment room. Skiba handles the practice field setup and assists the coaches with the daily practice procedures.

Skiba is a senior at William Peterson University and is majoring in English Literature. He graduated from Bergen Catholic High School in 1994 where he was a member of the football team during the school's run of three consecutive state titles. Born November 19, 1976 in Ridgewood, New Jersey, Skiba resides in Paramus, New Jersey.

ED SKIBA
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

After serving the past three seasons as an intern in the equipment room, Ed earned new responsibilities this offseason as the club's assistant equipment manager. Ed's role is to assist with the maintenance of the equipment room and the Giants day of game and travel operations. The 25-year old Skiba is a senior Movement Science major at William Paterson University. Along with the rest of the Skiba clan, Ed resides in Paramus, N.J. and is a proud alumnus of Bergen Catholic High School.

JOE MANSFIELD
FIELD SECURITY MANAGER

A retired White Plains Police Department detective, Mansfield joined the Giants in 1976. In addition to his field security duties, Mansfield also assists the club in locker room operations during the regular season and at the team's training camp site.

A native of New York City, he joined the United States Marine Corps in 1943 during World War II and was recalled during the Korean conflict in 1950. He spent nine years with the Fifth Avenue Coach Co. of New York and a short period of time with the Corrections Department at Sing Sing Prison before joining the White Plains Police Department in 1956, where he rose through the ranks to Detective, collecting numerous citations and commendations along the way until retiring in 1976.

Mansfield was re-introduced to his childhood sweetheart after a forty-year separation after each of them had been widowed. Shortly thereafter, he and Maggie were married and they now live in White Plains and together are enjoying their combined family of 10 children and 26 grandchildren.

MIKE MURPHY

TEAM SECURITY

Mike Murphy begins his ninth season in charge of team security for the Giants. Murphy was originally hired by former head coach Bill Parcells to accompany the team to San Francisco for the 1990 NFC Championship game and Tampa for Super Bowl XXV, as increased security was required during the Gulf War. After Parcells' departure, former general manager George Young retained Murphy's services. In his position, Murphy handles travel, game day and training camp security operations.

Murphy has been a police officer in Florham Park, New Jersey for 15 years and is in charge of the town's D.A.R.E. program and the Community Policy Committee. He is a 1983 graduate of the 180th New Jersey State Police Class. Prior to joining the police force, Murphy attended Iona College on a track scholarship under Tony Naclerio, the head coach for the USA track throwers in Atlanta during the 1996 summer games.

A native of Newark, New Jersey where he was born on May 14, 1957, Murphy grew up in Florham Park, New Jersey and was an all-league football player and all-league shot putter on the track team. Former Giant Bart Oates invited Murphy to be a speaker for the NFL's No Hope and Dope program, conducted during the Pro Bowl week in Honolulu, Hawaii. Murphy is a graduate of Fairleigh-Dickinson University.

A newlywed, Murphy and his wife Vitamarie reside in Florham Park, N.J.

JULIUS HORAI

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

A key man in the Giants' operation is Julius "Whitey" Horai, who has been associated with the club since 1954. Whitey handles a myriad of details as well as serving as the coordinator of transportation and film exchanges. A native of Richmond, Staten Island, Whitey graduated from Curtis High School, then went on to Wagner College where he worked for the athletic department as equipment and field maintenance man under Jim Lee Howell. When Howell came to the Giants as head coach in 1954, Horai came too in a part-time capacity, then joined the club full-time in 1970. A bachelor, Whitey still resides in Staten Island.

ALFORD TID BIT...

Selected as student commencement speaker for University of Purdue School of Technology Class of 1998. Chosen by student services committee and the athletic department in recognition of the work he did to turn around his academic career.

Transactions: Originally a third round (70th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Appeared in two games in his rookie season as a reserve at wide receiver...Should challenge for more playing time in 1999.

1998: Was inactive for the first 14 games before playing in the final two games...Was active for the first time vs. Kansas City (12-20) due to the knee injuries to WR Joe Jurevicius and WR David Patten. Showed burst of speed to get deep on two routes against the Chiefs, but the balls were under-thrown. Finally caught his first and only pass of the season, an 11-yard reception from Graham in the fourth quarter...Was active for the second straight week at Philadelphia (12-27) in the season-finaile due to the injuries to Jurevicius and Patten.

College: Holds the school's all-time records with 3029 yards and 31 touchdowns receiving, topping the previous marks of 2316 yards and 27 scores by Dave Young (1977-80), the Giants second round draft choice in 1981...Those figures also rank fourth in Big Ten Conference history...His 164 receptions rank third in Boilermaker annals behind Young (180) and Rodney Carter (181, 1982-85)...All-American first-team selection by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and Football News, earning second-team honors from Associated Press and third-team accolades from The Sporting News following his senior season in 1997...Also named All-Big Ten Conference first-team choice and team co-Most Valuable Player...As a senior, caught 63 passes for a school season-record 1228 yards (fourth in the nation) and 10 touchdowns (19.5 avg)...His 1228 yards broke the old Purdue mark of 1099 by Rodney Carter in 1985...Gained at least 100 yards receiving in five contests...All-Big Ten Conference first-team selection as a junior in 1996 and was named team Most Valuable Player...Recipient of the Pop Doan Award, given to the team's outstanding player...Ranked second in the conference and 22nd in the nation with 63 receptions and ranked 17th in the NCAA Division I-A ranks with 1057 yards (16.8 avg)...His 12 touchdown catches set a school season-record...Started the first six games, leading the team with 34 receptions for 686 yards (20.2 avg) and eight touchdowns as a sophomore in 1995... Appeared in the final five games as a freshman in 1994...Had four receptions for 58 yards (14.5 avg)...Redshirted as a freshman in 1993.

Personal: Single...All-State, All-Suburban and Oakland Press Dream Team selection as a senior at Oak Park (Mich.) High...Caught 23 passes for 257 yards with three touchdowns and returned 15 kickoffs for 319 yards (15.3 avg) as a senior...Had 69 receptions for 899 yards, including 17 touchdowns, and returned 41 kickoffs for 883 yards during his career...Played in the Michigan All-Star Game...Lettered in track, competed in 200 meters (21.7)...Born Brian Wayne Alford on June 7, 1975.

Armstead is a major participant in the Ronald McDonald House in the New York City area. He also likes spending time with his family.

Transactions: Originally an eighth round (207th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Named to the Pro Bowl squad for the second straight season in 1998 after leading the team in tackles with his third consecutive 100-tackle season (1996-114, 1997-134, 1998-101)...He is the first Giants player to lead the team in tackles for three straight seasons since former LB Pepper Johnson led the team from 1990-92...Earned his first Pro Bowl berth in 1997 after setting a team single-season record with 134 total tackles....Moved into the starting weakside linebacker spot in 1996 and, along with CB Jason Sehorn, led the Giants defense that season...Proved to be a valuable member of the team as both a special teams player and middle linebacker in nickel and dime defensive packages during his first three NFL seasons...Named Giants Rookie of the Year for 1993, Defensive MVP in 1996 and Most Valuable player in 1997 for his play....Kept the nickel linebacker responsibilities during his first year as a starter before passing on the duties to Marcus Buckley and Scott Galyon in 1997...Served as a game captain in 1997 and 1998...Has not missed a game in his six professional seasons.

1998: Earned his second straight Pro Bowl berth, representing the NFC squad as a reserve linebacker...Suffered a severely sprained ankle in the fourth quarter vs. Washington (9-6) in the season-opener that effected him for much of the year, but he still eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight season with 101 total tackles (75 solos) to lead the team in that category...Established a single-season high with 5.0 sacks and equalled his single-season high with two interceptions...Also had three forced fumbles and five passes defended...In the second week of the season at Oakland (9-13), the Raiders faced a third-and-six situation from the Giants 23-yard line in the fourth quarter when Armstead grabbed hold of QB Jeff George's jersey and made a one-handed sack for a loss of 11 yards to knock the Raiders out of field goal range at the Giants 43-yard line. Armstead forced George to fumble on the play but Oakland T Pat Harlow recovered the loose football...Tweaked his sore ankle again at San Diego (9-27) but did not miss any action...Cracked the double-digit tackle mark for the first time at Tampa Bay (10-4), finishing with ten total tackles (6 solos). Left the game with leg cramps in the third quarter but did return...Finished with a sack and two forced fumbles vs. Atlanta (10-11). Ended the Falcons first offensive drive when he forced RB Jamal Anderson to fumble on Atlanta's first play, allowing CB Conrad Hamilton to recover for the Giants at the 36-yard line to set up a PK Brad Daluiso field goal for a 3-0 Giants lead. In the second quarter he ended a Falcons drive when he forced FB Bob Christan to fumble after a five-yard reception. LB Corey Widmer recovered for the Giants at the Atlanta 49-yard line but the Giants fumbled the ball back to the Falcons two plays later...Put the Giants in scoring position in the second quarter vs. Arizona (10-18) when he broke behind the Cardinals line of scrimmage and picked off a QB Jake Plummer pass intended for FB Larry Centers to give the Giants a first down at the Cardinals 19-yard line. The Giants failed to take advantage of the turnover when PK Brad Daluiso's field goal attempt sailed wide left...Was forced to leave the game in the fourth quarter vs. Green Bay (11-15) due to his sprained ankle. Was replaced at weakside linebacker by Scott Galyon...Had the second two-sack game of his career vs. Philadelphia (11-22). His other two-sack game was vs. Arizona (11-16-97)...Was bothered by his ankle injury late in the first half and was replaced for much of the game by Marcus Buckley, who shifted from the strongside to the weak-side with Ryan Phillips taking over at the strongside...In the Giants 20-16 victory over Denver (12-13), Armstead combined with LB Marcus Buckley on a two-play sequence with under three minutes left to play that prevented the Broncos from running out the clock to preserve their 16-13 lead and gave the Giants the ball to set up the game-winning play. On second-and-one from the Denver 38-yard line, Armstead broke through the line of scrimmage and tackled RB Terrell Davis for a two-yard loss. Buckley stopped FB Howard Griffith for a loss of five yards on the next play to force the Broncos to punt the ball back to the Giants...Combined with CB Phillippi Sparks vs. Kansas City (12-20) to stop Chiefs RB Bam Morris at the line of scrimmage for no gain on a fourth-and-one run from the Chiefs 44-yard line in the second quarter. The Giants took over on downs and marched downfield for a touchdown to build a 21-0 halftime lead. Intercepted a QB Elvis Grbac pass inside Giants territory midway through the fourth quarter...Increased his season sack total to 5.0 when he dropped QB Koy Detmer in the season finale at Philadelphia (12-27).

1997: Named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad following a season that saw him set a personal high with 134 total tackles, eclipsing the 114 tackles he had in 1996. The 134 total tackles are one tackle higher than LB Lawrence Taylor's team record of 133 set during his rookie season in 1981...Also set a career mark with 3.5 sacks...Set a single-game high mark with 18 total tackles (12 solos) vs. Dallas (10-5) and equalled his career-high of 12 solo tackles at St. Louis (9-21). His previous career mark was 14 total tackles (9 solos) vs. Buffalo (9-1-96). Against the Cowboys, Armstead broke free from a block to chase down TE Eric Bjornson at the Giants 17-yard line, holding him out of the end zone and preserving the Giants 20-17 victory. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his efforts against Dallas...Made two big plays vs. Cincinnati (10-26) that helped turn the game in the Giants favor in the second half after falling behind 21-10. Helped get the Giants in position for their first touchdown in the second half when he stripped QB Jeff Blake of the ball after a third down scramble out of the pocket. S Percy Ellsworth recovered the loose ball at the 47-yard line and raced 24 yards to the 23-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a one-yard touchdown by FB Charles Way to close the gap to 21-16. In the fourth quarter, Armstead stopped a fourth down play by the Bengals. Blake faked a quarterback sneak on fourth-and-one, stopped and threw an overhand lateral to RB Ki-Jana Carter on the left side. Armstead read the play, pulled out of a blitz and stopped Carter for no gain. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Bengals...Set a career-high with his first two-sack performance vs. Arizona (11-16)...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the NFL for his performance at Philadelphia (12-7). Against the Eagles, Armstead had a team-leading 10 tackles (8 solos), one sack, two interceptions and three passes defended. He ended the Eagles first drive of the game with an interception that he returned 57 yards for a touchdown, the second such score in his career (the first was vs. Arizona, 10-8-95). He recorded his second interception in the third quarter when he picked off a Hoyer pass at the Eagles 38-yard line. It marked the first two-interception game of his career. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff following the Eagles game...Started all 16 games at weakside linebacker for the second straight season.

1996: Led the team with 114 tackles (83 solos). Tied for first on the team with two fumble recoveries, tied for fourth on the team with three sacks and tied for fourth on the team with eight passes defended. Also intercepted two passes...Made his first start as a regular in the lineup when he started at the weakside linebacker position in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1) - his two previous starts were in 1995 in special schemes to stop the West Coast offense at San Francisco (10-1) and vs. Philadelphia (10-15). Established a career-high in tackles with 14 (9 solos) against the Bills. Sacked QB Jim Kelly when Buffalo was faced with a third-and-five situation and forced the Bills to punt. The Giants returned the ensuing punt 87 yards for a touchdown. Played in 105 plays in the game (96 on defense)...Ended a Panthers drive at the Giants 22-yard line at Carolina (11-10) when he intercepted a QB Kerry Collins screen pass to preserve the Giants 14-10 halftime lead...Forced Arizona RB LeShon Johnson to fumble and S Percy Ellsworth recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 42-yard line at Arizona (11-17). The play helped set up the second Dave Brown-to-Tyrone Wheatley touchdown pass to cut the Arizona lead to 28-20...Led the team with 11 total tackles (6 solos) vs. Dallas (11-24). The Giants defense limited the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing, holding Emmitt Smith to 18 yards on 11 carries for a 1.6 average. Recovered the ball for the Giants at the 47-yard line after CB Jason Sehorn forced a fumble when he tackled Dallas FB Daryl Johnston late in the fourth quarter. Named Linebacker of the Game by the coaching staff.

1995: Played in all 16 games with two starts...Continued to excel as the team's middle linebacker in nickel and dime situations...Finished with 46 tackles, one-half sack, a fumble recovery, one interception, two passes defended and six special teams tackles...The Giants took advantage of Armstead's speed and coverage ability and started him in place of Mike Croel at San Francisco (10-1) to help contain the 49ers passing attack. Marked his first NFL start. Coverage helped limit QB Steve Young to just 202 yards passing on 26 completions...Scored the game-winning points in overtime vs. Arizona (10-8) as he returned an interception 58 yards to give the Giants a 27-21 victory. Earned a Game Ball for his game-winning play...Started vs. Philadelphia (10-15) against the Eagles West Coast offense. Helped hold the Eagles to just 66 net yards passing...Named Special Teams MVP by the coaching staff for neutralizing the play of return man Brian Mitchell at Washington (10-29).

1994: Played in all 16 games on special teams and in nickel and dime defensive packages...Finished third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Defensive playing time increased over the last four weeks of the season as he finished with 41 total tackles...Also had three sacks on the year, including one that forced a safety in season-finale vs. Dallas (12-24)...Recorded first career sack vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) when he dropped Neil O'Donnell for a seven-yard loss...Finished fifth on the team with nine passes defended...Also recorded an interception vs. Arizona (11-13)...Was Special Teams MVP at Houston (11-21) when he had two solo tackles.

1993: Played in all 16 games...Led team in special teams tackles with 13...Play in nickel defense increased throughout the season...Was named team's Special Teams MVP three times - vs. Rams (9-19), vs. Washington (11-14) and vs. Indianapolis (12-12)...Giants overall MVP for his effort at New Orleans (12-20) that included his first career interception off Saints QB Mike Buck...Earned a Game Ball for his performance at Miami (12-5).

College: As a senior at Miami, started at weakside linebacker and recorded 81 tackles with five sacks and seven tackles for 22 yards in losses...Also had eight quarterback pressures and deflected eight passes...Finished third on team as a junior with 99 tackles, three sacks and nine tackles for -44 yards...Also deflected five passes...Sophomore season was cut short after four games by a knee injury...Played in every game as a freshman.

Personal: As a senior at Carter HS in Dallas, was Super Prep Player of the Year and a member of USA Today's Top 25 team...Led Carter to state Class 5A championship with 302 tackles, nine sacks and five interceptions...A Criminal Justice major at Miami as an undergraduate, attended graduate school during his final season of eligibility in 1992...Received his undergraduate degree in three years...Formed Jessie's Giant Hoop Team, a charity basketball team that plays in the tri-state area during the offseason to help raise funds for various charities...Born Jessie Armstead on October 26, 1970.

Starred in an off Broadway play called "Seeing Double" this past offseason...Wrote several feature stories documenting his rookie season that were published in The New York Times.

Transactions: Originally a second round (36th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Was the starting running back coming out of his second training camp in 1998 but was replaced in the lineup by veteran Gary Brown after four games...His role was reduced to short-yardage and third down situations...Began his rookie season in 1997 as the starting running back after beating out Tyrone Wheatley in the preseason. Injuries limited him to just six starts in 12 games...Effective all-purpose back, as a running back, third down back and kickoff returner.

1998: Started the first four games of the season at running back before being replaced in the lineup by Gary Brown. Was used on short-yardage situations and as the third down back for the rest of the year...Finished with 166 yards rushing on 52 attempts and caught 42 passes for 348 yards with three touchdown receptions...Also filled in as the kickoff returner where he gained 250 yards on 14 returns...Head coach Jim Fassel's game plan at San Diego (9-27) called for Barber to start the game at running back and then have Gary Brown take over for the rest of the game on the second offensive series...Led the team in receiving vs. Atlanta (10-11) with nine receptions for 56 yards. The nine receptions set a single-game personal-best. His previous best was the seven receptions he had at Washington (11-23-97). Thirty-one of Barber's receiving yards came during the Giants final offensive drive...Made his biggest play of the game vs. Arizona (10-18) at the end of the first half during the Giants two-minute drill. Caught a short pass from QB Danny Kanell and turned upfield for a 27-yard gain to the Cardinals nine-yard line to help put the Giants in position for PK Brad Daluiso's 26-yard field goal that gave the Giants a 17-7 lead...Scored his first touchdown of the season on an eight-yard pass from QB Kent Graham late in the fourth quarter vs. Philadelphia (11-22) to seal the Giants 20-0 victory...Caught a screen pass from Graham on a third-and-19 play in the first quarter at Arizona (12-6) and broke free for an 87-yard touchdown. The play is the sixth-longest play from scrimmage in Giants history. It is the Giants' longest scoring play since a 94-yard pass play from QB Norm Snead to WR Rich Houston vs. Dallas on September 24, 1972. Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals...Caught a swing pass from Graham vs. Denver (12-13) and turned the play into a 21-yard touchdown pass with 51 seconds to go in the first half to give the Giants a 10-6 halftime lead. Took over for David Patten as the primary kickoff returner following Patten's season-ending knee injury in the second half against the Broncos.

1997: Earned the starting running back spot in the preseason and finished the year with 511 yards on 136 carries and three rushing touchdowns and 299 yards receiving on 34 receptions and one touchdown...Finished third among NFC rookies in rushing yards and second among NFC rookies with 810 yards from scrimmage...Started at running back for the first five games of the season before he suffered a posterior cruciate ligament tear of his right knee vs. New Orleans (9-28), forcing him to miss four games and allowing RB Tyrone Wheatley to step in as a starter. Returned to the starting lineup for the last two regular season games when Wheatley left with an ankle sprain at Philadelphia (12-7)...Was one of five rookies (Barber, C Derek Engler, S Sam Games and WR Ike Hilliard with P Brad Maynard handling the punting) in the starting lineup vs. Philadelphia (8-31) in the season-opener. Gained 88 yards on 20 carries and one rushing touchdown for a 4.4-yard average against the Eagles. Helped set up the Giants second touchdown as the Giants began at their own 40-yard line with 1:32 remaining. Barber took a handoff and raced up the middle for a 21-yard gain. On the next play, Barber streaked down the left sideline and made a leaping catch over LB William Thomas for a 28-yard gain to the Eagles 11-yard line. Two plays later, QB Dave Brown connected on a touchdown pass to WR Chris Calloway to extend the Giants lead to 14-3 at the half. Following WR Thomas Lewis' 84-yard kickoff return to open the second half, Barber ran up the middle for a seven-yard gain to the one-yard line, then scored his first NFL touchdown up the middle to increase the Giants lead to 21-3...Scored on a four-yard touchdown run to give the Giants a 7-0 lead at Jacksonville (9-7). Left the game in the fourth quarter with a sprained left shoulder...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) as the Giants opened in a double-tight end alignment. Scored on a one-yard touchdown run in the beginning of the second quarter to cap a six-play, 49-yard drive. A Brown-to-Barber two-point conversion in the third quarter gave the Giants a 20-14 lead...Was knocked out of the game on the second series at St. Louis (9-21) when S Toby Wright made a big hit on Barber that forced a fumble. Barber, who was hit in the jaw on the play, was able to return...Left the game in the third quarter vs. New Orleans (9-28) after suffering a posterior cruciate ligament tear of his right knee and missed the next four games. The Giants second quarter touchdown drive against the Saints was highlighted by two third-down shuffle passes from Brown to Barber that resulted in big gains: 14 yards on a third-and-three situation, 15 yards on third-and-seven...Returned from his injury at Tennessee (11-9). Playing time was limited to a reserve role due to the solid play of Wheatley (13 carries for 94 yards)...Was used in the third down package vs. Arizona (11-16). Led the team with four receptions for 44 yards. Three of his four receptions resulted in Giants first downs...Had three first downs in one series in the second quarter at Washington (11-23). Converted on third-and-two with a four-yard run around the left end, caught a pass in the right flat and turned the play into a ten-yard gain to convert a third-and-ten situation, and followed that play with an 11-yard pass reception from QB Danny Kanell for another first down...Was forced to take the majority of the action at running back at Philadelphia (12-7) after RB Tyrone Wheatley left in the first quarter with a sprained left ankle. Recorded the first 100-yard rushing performance of his NFL career with 114 yards on 21 rushing attempts for a 5.4-yard average. Barber's 114 yards tied FB Charles Way, who had 114 yards rushing vs. Arizona (11-16), as the Giants best individual rushing output of the season. Helped set up the Giants final touchdown in the fourth quarter with a 42-yard run to the five-yard line on a fake reverse. Caught four passes for 28 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown pass from Kanell in the second quarter. It was his first NFL touchdown reception...Replaced the injured Wheatley (ankle) in the starting lineup for the last two regular season games - vs. Washington (12-13) and at Dallas (12-21)...Gained 82 yards on 17 carries against the Cowboys...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game due to the Giants opening in a double-tight end alignment. Fumbled a pitch from Kanell at the Giants four-yard line in the third quarter that set up a Vikings touchdown.

Transactions: Originally an eighth round (214th pick overall) draft choice by Houston in 1991. Was waived by Houston on April 19, 1996. Signed by San Diego as a free agent on February 26, 1997. Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent from San Diego on April 21, 1998.

NFL: Entered the starting lineup in the fifth game of the season in 1998 and became the Giants first 1000-yard rusher since Rodney Hampton in 1995 by finishing with a career-best 1,063 yards...He became the first Giants player to have multiple 100-yard rushing games in a single season since Hampton finished with two during the 1995 season with a career-best six 100-yard games in 1998...Made a big comeback with San Diego in 1997 after sitting out during the 1996 season...Gained 945 yards rushing for a 3.7 yards per carry average for the Chargers...One of the NFL's top running backs in 1993 when he amassed 1,242 yards (1,002 rushing, 240 receiving) and eight touchdowns....In his seven NFL seasons, Brown has started 45 of 96 games and has rushed for 100 yards or more in 14 games.

1998: Replaced RB Tiki Barber as the starter in the fifth game of the season at Tampa Bay (10-4) and reached the 1,000-yard mark for the second time in his career with a career-high of 1,063 yards on 247 attempts. (He finished the 1993 season with 1,002 while in Houston)...Brown finished with a career-best six 100-yard rushing games. He had five during the 1993 season with Houston. He became the first Giants player to have multiple 100-yard rushing games in a single season since Rodney Hampton finished with two during the 1995 season...Brown finished the season with four consecutive 100-yard games. The last Giants player to rush for 100 yards or more in four straight games was Joe Morris in 1986. The six 100-yard games are tied with Morris (6 in 1985) for second on the Giants single-season list, behind the eight that Morris had during the 1986 season...Finished with five rushing touchdowns, only second to the six he had in 1993 with Houston. The five rushing touchdowns are the most by a Giants back since Hampton had 10 in 1995...Also caught 13 passes for 36 yards...Head coach Jim Fassel's game plan called for Barber to start the game at running back with Brown taking over in the backfield on the second offensive series at San Diego (9-27). Emerged with 66 yards on 20 carries with one touchdown as the Giants cracked the 100-yard rushing mark 105 for the first time in 1998. Capped the Giants first scoring drive with a four-yard touchdown run up the middle...Replaced Barber in the starting lineup at Tampa Bay (10-4) and finished with 67 yards on 17 carries for a 3.9-yard average...Had the Giants first individual 100-yard rushing game of the year with 108 yards on 24 carries for a 4.5-yard average vs. Arizona (10-18). Completed the Giants second touchdown drive with a one-yard run to end an 11-play, 79-yard drive in the second quarter. Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals...Finished with 119 yards on 15 carries for a 7.9-yard average at Dallas (11-8). The 7.9-yard average is the highest for a Giants running back with at least ten rushing attempts since FB

Charles Way averaged 8.1 vs. Arizona (11-16-97) when he finished with 114 yards on 14 carries. Brown had two long runs, a 34-yard gain in the second quarter and a 38-yard burst in the third quarter. The 34-yard run gave the Giants a first down at the Dallas 26-yard line, setting up a field goal...Gained 96 yards on 27 carries with one rushing touchdown for an average of 3.6 yards per carry vs. Philadelphia (11-22). Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Eagles...Was not in the starting lineup at San Francisco (11-30) due to the Giants opening in a double-tight end alignment. Scored the Giants only points of the day on an 11-yard run up the middle in the first quarter to cap an 80-yard drive...Tallied a season-high 124 yards on 25 carries for a 5.0-yard average at Arizona (12-6). Had 75 of those yards in the second half to help the Giants capture and preserve their lead...Had his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game and his fourth of the season vs. Denver (12-13). Gained 112 yards on 18 carries for a 6.2-yard average. Kept the Giants first offensive drive alive with a 19-yard gain on third-and-one to help set up a field goal that tied the game at 3-3. Put the Giants in scoring position with a 45-yard run up the middle for a Giants first down at the Denver 18-yard line in the fourth quarter. It was the Giants longest run of the season and Brown's longest run of his career. His old mark was a 39-yard touchdown run vs. the Raiders while with Houston (9-1-91). Following Brown's 45-yard run, the Giants managed a field goal for a 13-9 lead. After Denver took a 16-13 lead, the Giants got the ball back and reached the Denver 38-yard line. Brown ran off tackle for a nine-yard gain when Denver S Tyrone Braxton stripped him of the ball, allowing LB Bill Romanowski to recover with 3:36 left in the game. It was Brown's first lost fumble since December 19, 1993 at Pittsburgh on his last carry of the game as a member of the Oilers. It was his first lost fumble in 807 touches (746 rushes, 61 receptions), a span of 52 games...Had his third consecutive 100-yard game vs. Kansas City (12-20), finishing with 103 yards on 25 carries. Scored his fifth touchdown of the season in the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown run. Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Chiefs...Finished with 112 yards on 12 carries for his fourth consecutive 100-yard game in the season-finale at Philadelphia (12-27).

1997: Started 14 of 15 games for the Chargers in 1997...It was his first NFL game action since the 1995 season...He rushed 253 times for 945 yards and four touchdowns and averaged 3.7 yards per carry...He also caught 21 passes for an additional 137 yards to give him 1,082 all-purpose yards...His 945 yards ranked ninth in the AFC...For his efforts, he was named the Chargers 1997 Offensive Player of the Year by his teammates...He was on pace to reach 1,000 yards, but was limited to eight carries for 27 yards before having to take himself out of the season-finale at Denver (12-21) with a strained groin...He missed the game at San Francisco (11-23) while recovering from a strained right knee suffered vs. Oakland (11-16)...Gained 169 yards on 28 carries (6.0 avg.) and scored one touchdown vs. Indianapolis (10-26). The 169 yards marked the third-best single-game performance in his career and the eighth time in which he rushed for over 100 yards...At Oakland (10-5), he ended the Chargers drought of 24 games without a 100-yard rusher when he racked-up 181 yards on 36 carries. It was the fourth-best regular-season rushing performance in team history.

1996: Was waived by the Oilers prior to training camp and did not play in 1996.

1995: Started four of 10 games played for Houston in 1995...Finished the season with 86 carries for 293 yards...Also had six catches for 16 yards...Started in the first game of the season at Jacksonville (9-3) and led the Oilers with season-highs in rushes (29) and yards (101)...Was inactive for three games...Returned to action at Cleveland (11-5)...Started vs. Jets (12-17) and led the Oilers with 12 rushing attempts for 40 yards.

1994: Started eight of 12 games and finished the season ranked second on the team in rushing yards and attempts...Gained 648 yards and scored four touchdowns on 169 carries...Also caught 18 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown...Tied a career-high mark with two rushing touchdowns and had a season-high 93 yards on 19 carries at Dallas (9-11)...Suffered a thigh injury at Cincinnati (11-13) and was replaced in the starting lineup by Lorenzo White for the remainder of the season.

1993: One of the top stories in the NFL in 1993...Emerging from the bench for the final eight games and became a 1,000-yard rusher...Started eight of 16 games that he played and rushed for 1,002 yards and six touchdowns on 195 carries for a 5.1-yard average...Added 21 catches for 240 yards and two touchdowns...Rushed for 100 yards or more in five games in 1993...Named first-team All-AFC by Football News...Posted AFC-best rushing average of 5.1 yards per carry...Tied for fourth in AFC in touchdowns with eight...Also ranked fourth in the conference in rushing and fifth in total yards from scrimmage (1,242)...Only eight backs in NFL history have gained 1,000 yards on fewer carries...Ran the ball just 16 times in team's first eight games...Entered the lineup following a hamstring injury to Lorenzo White vs. Seattle (11-7)...In 38-3 victory at Cincinnati (11-14), made his first career start and rushed 26 times for 166 yards and one touchdown...Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for his effort...Rushed for career-best 194 yards on 34 carries (5.7 avg.) with one touchdown in a 27-20 win at Cleveland (11-21). His 194 yards was eighth-highest rushing performance in team history and most yards by an Oilers running back since Earl Campbell's 203 yards vs. Minnesota (12-21-80)...Named AFC Offensive Player of the Month for November...Gained 109 yards on 23 carries in 19-17 win over Cleveland (12-12)...Rushed 20 times for 100 yards as Houston clinched AFC Central Division title with a 26-17 victory at Pittsburgh (12-19). Against the Steelers, he had four receptions for 80 yards, including a 38-yard touchdown on a screen pass for his first-career touchdown catch and the longest reception of his career...Rushed for 114 yards on 19 carries in 10-7 win at San Francisco (12-25)...In 24-0 win over Jets (1-2-94), collected 128 yards (85 rushing, 43 receiving) and two scores (one rushing, one receiving), his first multi-touchdown game.

1992: Saw action in all 16 games primarily on special teams in second NFL season...Finished season with seven tackles on special teams...Also rushed for 87 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries and caught one pass for five yards...Most action of the season came in 27-3 win over Buffalo (12-27) in regular-season finale with eight rushes for 21 yards and one touchdown.

1991: Saw action in 13 games as a rookie in 1991...Finished the season with eight rushes for 85 yards and one touchdown...His best game of the season came in season-opening 47-17 win over the Raiders (9-1) with five carries for 60 yards...Missed three games due to a hamstring injury.

College: Saw action at both running back and safety during his career at Penn State...Three-year career totals at running back included 260 carries for 1,321 yards and 11 touchdowns...Also caught 24 passes for 264 yards and one score and had 38 kickoff returns for 920 yards...Totals as a defensive back (all as a junior except three tackles) were 37 total tackles (24 solos), two fumble recoveries, one sack and four passes defended...Returned to tailback during spring drills prior to his senior season...Against Brigham Young in Holiday Bowl as a junior in 1989, stole football from Ty Detmer and ran 53 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

Personal: Single...Lettered in football and track at Williamsport High in Williamsport, Pa...Named Pennsylvania's High School Player of the Year in 1986...Gained 4,111 yards and scored 74 touchdowns during his high school career...Was also a member of state championship 400-meter relay team...Majored in rehabilitation education...Born Gary Leroy Brown July 1, 1969 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

BUCKLEY TID BIT...

An active speaker at his high school in Fort Worth, Tx. Would like to return there to teach and coach when his football career is over.

Transactions: Originally a third round (66th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Following the season-ending neck injury to LB Corey Miller in training camp, was pushed into the starting lineup at strongside linebacker during the 1998 season...Started the 1997 season as the nickel linebacker before being replaced by Scott Galyon...After being a spot starter during his first two seasons, Buckley replaced Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker for five games in 1995 before handing the job back to Miller...Fine special teams player throughout his NFL career.

1998: Took over at strongside linebacker following the season-ending neck injury to Corey Miller in training camp...Started 12 of the 14 games that he played and finished with 46 total tackles (34 solos), 1.5 sacks, one pass defended, one fumble recovery and one interception...Also added six special teams tackles...Missed two games due to a hip injury that he suffered in the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6). Dressed but did not play vs. Dallas (9-21) and at San Diego (9-27) and was replaced in the starting lineup in those games by LB Ryan Phillips...In the season-opener against the Redskins made the call at the line of scrimmage that had DE Michael Strahan follow TE Jamie Asher across the field when Strahan picked off a QB Gus Ferrette pass and returned it 24 yards for a touchdown and a 24-10 Giants lead. As the strongside linebacker, it was Buckley's responsibility to tell Strahan what to do on the play. Was forced to leave the game in the fourth quarter with a hip pointer and was replaced by Phillips...Started at Oakland (9-13) the following week despite missing some practice time. Helped set up the Giants game-tying field goal in the third quarter when he recovered a RB Jon Ritchie fumble at the Raiders 15-yard line that was caused by DT Robert Harris...Returned to action at Tampa Bay (10-4) after missing the Cowboys (9-21) and the Chargers (9-27). Saw significant action at strongside linebacker against the Buccaneers but did not start the game. Moved to weakside linebacker for a series in the fourth quarter when Jessie Armstead was out with leg cramps. Put the Giants offense in prime scoring position in the second quarter when he intercepted Buccaneers QB Trent Dilfer to give the Giants a first down at the Tampa Bay 40-yard line. The Giants offense failed to move the ball and had to punt back to the Buccaneers...Returned to the starting lineup vs. Atlanta (10-11)...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10-18) as the Giants began the game in the nickel defense. Recorded his first NFL sack when he dropped QB Jake Plummer for a six-yard loss in the first quarter...Combined with Harris on a nine-yard sack of Redskins QB Trent Green in the fourth quarter at Washington (11-1)...Late in the first half at Arizona (12-6) when Armstead was slowed by his ankle injury, Buckley moved to the weakside spot with Phillips coming in at strongside linebacker...Combined with Armstead on a two-play sequence vs. Denver (12-13) with under three minutes left to play to prevent the Broncos from running out the clock to preserve their 16-13 lead and allow the Giants to get the ball back to set up the game-winning play. On second-and-one from the Denver 38-yard line, Armstead broke through the line of scrimmage and tackled RB Terrell Davis for a two-yard loss. Buckley stopped FB Howard Griffith for a loss of five yards on the next play to force the Broncos to punt the ball back to the Giants.

1997: Finished the season with 13 total tackles (8 solos), four special teams tackles, one fumble recovery.

ery and one pass defended...Played in 12 games with three starts...Started vs. Baltimore (9-14) when the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense to help combat the strong Ravens passing game...Replaced Corey Miller at strongside linebacker when Miller left in the second quarter at Tennessee (11-9) with a sprained ankle...Started vs. Arizona (11-16) and at Washington (11-23) in place of the injured Miller...Began the season as the Giants middle linebacker in nickel situations but was replaced by Scott Galyon following the Ravens game...Was inactive in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia due to a hip flexor injury...Returned to work the following week at Jacksonville (9-7) and was used in nickel situations. Filled in at weakside linebacker for Jessie Armstead late in the game against the Jaguars when Armstead left with heat cramps. Recovered a QB Steve Matthews fumble at the Jaguars 27-yard line that was caused on a three-yard sack by DT Keith Hamilton. Two plays later, the Giants took the early lead on a four-yard touchdown run by RB Tiki Barber...Was forced to leave the game at St. Louis (9-21) in the first quarter due to the hip flexor injury and was inactive vs. Dallas (10-5) and at Arizona (10-12)...Returned to action at Detroit (10-19) but playing time was limited to special teams...Saw limited action in a special nickel defensive package at Philadelphia (12-7)...Filled in for Miller at strongside linebacker after Miller left with an ankle sprain in the second quarter at Arizona (11-17)...Played the entire second half at Dallas (12-21).

1996: Had 22 tackles (12 solos), four special teams tackles and broke up two passes in 15 games. Started vs. Dallas (11-24) and at Philadelphia (12-1) in place of the injured Corey Miller (ankle)...Forced out of the New Orleans game (12-15) in the second half with back spasms and was unavailable for the season-finale vs. New England (12-21)...Tipped a QB Boomer Esiason pass that was intercepted by Jesse Campbell in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-3) to put the Giants in position for a Brad Daluiso field goal.

1995: Played in all 16 games and replaced Corey Miller in the starting lineup at strongside linebacker in five games...Ended the season with 20 tackles, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a pass defended and four special teams tackles...Was slated for his first starting assignment of the season vs. Philadelphia (10-15), but did not start because the Giants opened with the nickel defense. Played virtually the entire game and finished with three tackles. Recovered a Randall Cunningham fumble at the Giants 12-yard line to end an Eagle scoring threat...Made his first start at strongside linebacker since being named the starter at Washington (10-29)...Stint as a starter ended when Miller returned to the lineup at Arizona (11-30).

1994: Played in all 16 games with one start vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) for the injured Corey Miller (knee) at strongside linebacker... Finished tied for third on the team with nine special teams tackles...Also forced a fumble on the punt team at New Orleans (10-2)...Recorded 15 defensive tackles and one pass defended on the year...Named Giants Special Teams MVP for leading team with three tackles vs. Philadelphia (9-4).

1993: Played in all 16 games of his rookie season, primarily on special teams and in the nickel defense...Started at ILB at New Orleans (12-20) and at Phoenix (12-26) for injured Michael Brooks (foot)...Finished third on team with seven special teams tackles...Also recorded 11 tackles on defense.

College: Ranks fifth in Texas A&M record book with 29 career quarterback sacks...All-time school leader with 10 fumble recoveries, breaking old mark of nine by Jacob Green...As a senior, was named first team All-America by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Associated Press, Walter Camp, Kodak, Football News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Sporting News, United Press International, and the Football Writers Association of America...Consensus All-Southwest Conference first team selection and the SWC's Defensive Player of the Year...Semifinalist for the Dick Butkus Award, given to the nation's top linebacker...In 1992 finished third on the team with 70 tackles and led the Aggies with 12 sacks and 21 tackles for 128 yards in losses...Also deflected four passes and had 18 quarterback pressures and four fumble recoveries...Despite missing two weeks of practice with an infected foot prior to '92 season-opener against Stanford, entered the game late in the first quarter and recorded three tackles, two quarterback sacks, a QB pressure, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble.

Personal: Three-time All-District choice at Eastern Hills HS in Fort Worth, Texas...Kinesiology major with an emphasis in Sports Management at A&M...Born Marcus Wayne Buckley on February 3, 1971.

GIANTS

CHERRY TID BIT...

Led Murray State to two Ohio Valley Conference titles and its first Division I-AA playoff victory after transferring from Arkansas.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (171st pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Enters his third season as the Giants third quarterback...Was allocated to the NFL Europe Rhein Fire franchise this spring for further development...Classic pocket passer with tremendous arm strength and great field vision.

1998: Giants third quarterback for all 16 games...Saw action in one game when he entered late in the fourth quarter vs. Kansas City (12-20) with the Giants in front, 28-7. It marked his second NFL action. During his rookie campaign in 1997 he ran out the clock at Arizona (10-12-97). Was sacked on his first play from scrimmage against the Chiefs and threw an incomplete pass intended to WR Brian Alford on the next play. It was his first NFL pass attempt.

1997: Inactive as the Giants third quarterback for 12 games of the year...Active as the backup quarterback for four games: at Arizona (10-12), at Detroit (10-19), vs. Cincinnati (10-26) and at Tennessee (11-9) when Danny Kanell was pushed into the starting role in place of Dave Brown, who suffered a pulled chest muscle vs. New Orleans (9-28)...Saw his only action when he came in for the Giants last two possessions at Arizona. Did not attempt any passes.

College: Began his collegiate career at Arkansas and when they changed the offense with a new coaching staff following his sophomore year in 1994, transferred to Murray State where they threw the ball more...Did not have to sit out a season after transferring from Division I to Division I-AA...All-Ohio Valley Conference selection after his senior season in 1996...Started every game and completed 170 of 301 passes (56.5%) for 2,406 yards and 18 touchdowns...Associated Press All-American honorable mention and All OVC first-team choice after finishing sixth in the nation with a 152.4 passing efficiency rating as a junior in 1995...Became only the fourth player in school history to throw for over 2000 yards in a season, joining Larry Tillman (2,206 in 1968 and 2,300 in 1967), Matt Huag (2,327 in 1969) and Michael Proctor (2,375 in 1987 and 2,812 in 1989)...Completed 135 of 225 passes (school season-record 60.0%) for 2,084 yards and 16 touchdowns...Put on an aerial show in the opening round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs vs. Northern Iowa as he hit on 31 of 50 throws for 339 yards with two touchdowns...Appeared in seven games as a reserve for the Arkansas Razorbacks as a sophomore in 1994...Completed 14 of 26 attempts (53.9%) for 167 yards and a touchdown...Saw limited action in three games at Arkansas, completing 7 of 15 passes (50.9) for 75 yards as a freshman in 1993...Redshirted in his first year at Arkansas in 1992.

Personal: Married (Lissa)...All-American, All-South, All-State and All-District selection during his three-year career as the starting quarterback at Arkansas High School, Texarkana, Arkansas...Named to the state's Super Team...Despite playing in a run-oriented offense, he completed 120 of 240 passes for 2,000 yards and 22 touchdowns during his career...Gained 996 yards with six scores on 69 of 148 attempts in his final campaign...Added three letters in basketball and two more in track...Member of the

A proud Penn State Nittany Lion, Collins donated $250,000 to his alma mater's football program to fund the Kerry Collins quarterback scholarship, which will endow a Penn State quarterback's books and tuition in perpetuity.

Transactions: Originally a first round (5th pick overall) draft choice by Carolina in 1995. Waived by Carolina on October 13, 1998. Claimed off waivers by New Orleans on October 14, 1998. Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent from New Orleans on February 19, 1999.

NFL: Will enter training camp as backup to Kent Graham...Led the Carolina Panthers to the NFC Championship Game in 1996 after guiding the team to the NFC West title with a 10-4 record as a starter....Earned his first Pro Bowl berth following that season...Led the Panthers to a 7-6 record after being named the starter in the fourth game of his rookie campaign in 1995.

1998: Completed 76 of 162 passes for 1,011 yards, eight touchdowns and five interceptions in four starts for the Panthers....Was inactive in the fifth game of the year at Dallas (10-11) before being waived on October 13....Was claimed off waivers by the New Orleans Saints on October 14 and started the final seven games of this season, finishing with 94 completions on 191 pass attempts for 1,202 yards, four touchdowns and ten interceptions...His season highlight for the Saints was an 89-yard touchdown pass to WR Andre Hastings vs. Dallas (9-6) that tied a team record...His season-high with Carolina was at Atlanta (10-4) when he completed 20 of 38 pass attempts for 302 yards, including three touchdown passes.

1997: Worked to a 55.7 quarterback rating on 200 of 381 passing for 2,124 yards, 11 touchdowns and 21 interceptions in 13 starts...Struggled with his consistency, throwing three interceptions in six wins but 18 in seven losses while working with a young offensive line with much talent but little NFL experience...Suffered a major setback in a preseason contest vs. Denver (8-9) when Broncos LB Bill Romanowski hit Collins from his left during his follow through on a pass, breaking Collin's jaw in two places...Originally thought to be out six to eight weeks, Collins returned in just over four weeks, missing starts vs. Washington (8-31) and at Atlanta (9-7)...He started his first game of the season at San Diego (9-14), while completing 17 of 36 passes for 138 yards, an interception and two touchdowns in leading the Panthers to a 26-7 win...The following week vs. Kansas City (9-21), Collins passed for 328 yards with 24 completions on a career-high 47 attempts with a touchdown and four interceptions...Vs. San Francisco (9-29), Collins completed 11 of 24 passes for 126 yards, a 17-yard touchdown to Rae Carruth and three interceptions...Did not play at Minnesota (10-12) due to a coaches decision but battled back the following week at New Orleans (10-19), completing an impressive 74.2% of his passes on a 23 of 31 effort for 204 yards, a touchdown and an interception...Had one of his best performances as a pro at St. Louis (11-23), completing 23 of 30 passes for a career-best 76.7 percent completion rate, 286 yards, a season-long 59-yard touchdown to Raghbi Ismail and no interceptions...Suffered a concussion vs. New Orleans (11-30) which limited his playing time to seven of 15 passing for 82 yards...He returned to have a solid outing on Monday Night Football in a matchup at Dallas (12-8) hitting on 16 of 28 passing for 136 yards and two touchdowns in a 23-13 win.

1996: Turned in an outstanding season, helping the Panthers to a 10-4 record as a starter and an appearance in the NFC Championship...He improved his quarterback rating to 79.4 from 61.9 his rookie season, recording the second-highest increase in the NFL (Drew Bledsoe 63.7-83.7)...His nine interceptions were the second-fewest among quarterbacks with at least 300 attempts, while his 2.5% interception percentage was third-lowest among league starters...Playing as a second alternate, Collins made his first appearance in the Pro Bowl when injuries to Steve Young and Troy Aikman prevented their participation...In the inaugural game at Ericsson Stadium, Collins completed 17 of 31 passes for 186 yards and two touchdowns in a 29-6 win vs. Atlanta (9-1). He connected with Mark Carrier on the team's opening drive for the initial score at Ericsson...Completed 13 of 21 passes for 171 yards and an interception at New Orleans (9-8) before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a sprained left knee...Was inactive the following week vs. San Francisco (9-22)...Replaced Steve Beuerlein in the fourth quarter at Jacksonville (9-29) and completed two of seven passes for 42 yards and a touchdown in addition to rushing for a two-point conversion...Returned to the starting lineup at Minnesota (10-6)...In a 45-13 win vs. St. Louis (10-13), Collins connected on 11 of 18 passes with an interception and three touchdowns, including a 54-yard scoring strike to Muhsin Muhammad...His second quarter interception vs. the Giants (11-10) ended a team-record string of 110 passes without an interception. He left the game temporarily in the third quarter with a strained right shoulder before returning to throw a 17-yard touchdown to Howard Griffith...The shoulder injury kept him out at St. Louis (11-17) and at Houston (11-24) and he returned vs. Tampa Bay (12-1)...Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after completing 22 of 37 passes for 327 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions at San Francisco (12-8)...Against Baltimore (12-15), completed a career-high 26 of 39 attempts for 268 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions...Threw two touchdowns vs. Dallas (1-5) in the NFC Divisional playoff...At Green Bay in the NFC Championship game, Collins completed 19 of 27 passes for 215 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions.

1995: Was a first-team all-rookie selection by College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Football News and Pro Football Weekly/PFWA...His 7-6 record as a starter in 1995 made him the first rookie quarterback with at least nine starts to post a winning record since Dan Marino's 7-3 mark with Miami in 1983...After being designated as the Panthers inactive third quarterback at Atlanta (9-3), Collins saw his first NFL action at Buffalo (9-10), throwing two incomplete passes...The following week vs. St. Louis (9-17), Collins relieved Jack Trudeau in the fourth quarter and had his first attempt intercepted by the Rams Torin Dorn, who returned it 24 yards for a touchdown. He responded by directing the Panthers to their only touchdown of the day on the next possession, completing five of five passes for 22 yards and capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run -- the first rushing touchdown in team history and the first rushing attempt of his career...After the bye week, Collins took the starting duties vs. Tampa Bay (10-1). In his first NFL start he turned in a solid performance, completing 18 of 32 passes for 234 yards, a touchdown and an interception in a narrow 20-13 loss...At New England (10-29), he completed a season-high 25 of 45 passes for 309 yards and two touchdowns in his first career 300-yard passing day...At San Francisco (11-5), Collins completed 17 of 30 passes for 150 yards in a 13-7 win. It marked the first time an NFL expansion team defeated the defending world champions...At New Orleans (11-26), Collins completed 17 of a season-high 46 attempts for a season-high 335 yards, three touchdowns and four interceptions...On the Panthers longest play of the year, Collins connected with Willie Green for an 89-yard touchdown with less than seven minutes remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a comeback win.

College: A first team All-America selection by the Associated Press, The Football News and the NFL Draft Report, Collins directed the Penn State Nittany Lions to a 12-0 record his senior year, capped by a 38-20 victory over Oregon in the 1995 Rose Bowl...His senior season (1994), he had one of the best campaigns in college football history, posting a 172.9 pass efficiency rating, fifth all-time in NCAA history...He completed 176 of 264 passes (66.7%) for 2,679 yards and 21 touchdowns and averaged 10.15 yards per attempt en route to the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top college quarterback, the Maxwell Award as the nation's outstanding player and honors as a finalist for the Heisman Trophy...He threw for 200 yards in nine of 11 games and eclipsed or tied school single-season records for pass efficiency, completions, passing yards, total offense, yards per attempt and 200-

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (171st pick overall) draft choice, the first of two sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1996.

NFL: Fine special teams player who has led the team in tackles for the past three seasons...Contributor in the Giants goal line and short yardage defense as an extra linebacker...Named Giants Special Teams Player of the Year following his rookie season...Is expected to provide depth at middle linebacker.

1998: Established a career-high with 16 special teams tackles as he led the team in that category for the third straight season...Played in all 16 games as a special teams player and at linebacker in short yardage and goal line situations...Finished with 10 defensive tackles (9 solos)...Filled in at middle linebacker at Oakland (9-13) when Corey Widmer was out for a series in the second half with a strained knee...Registered four special teams tackles (3 solos) vs. Atlanta (10-11) and one forced fumble. Forced Falcons KR Tim Dwight to fumble during a second quarter kickoff return, but the Falcons managed to recover the ball...Recorded four special teams tackles (3 solos) vs. Arizona (10-18) and was awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals...Stopped Cowboys RB Emmitt Smith for no gain on a third-and-one run up the middle to end a Cowboys drive in the third quarter at Dallas (11-8)...Pressed into the lineup at middle linebacker in the third quarter vs. Green Bay (11-15) and finished with five total tackles (4 solos) after Widmer left the game with a concussion.

1997: Led the team for the second straight season with 13 special teams tackles...Added five tackles (4 solos) on defense...After seeing special teams action in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) was deactivated at Jacksonville (9-7) and vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Following the season-ending knee injury to Pete Monty against the Ravens, took over his role on the short yardage defense...Got credited with his first tackle of the season when he joined with DT Keith Hamilton to stop Rams RB Lawrence Phillips short of the first down on a fourth-and-one run in the first quarter at St. Louis (9-21)...Finished with four special teams tackles (3 solos) vs. Dallas (10-5). Tackled Cowboys RB Herschel Walker after his 47-yard kickoff return to prevent a touchdown in the third quarter...Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff after his performance at Arizona (10-12)...Came in for one play at middle linebacker in the Giants short yardage defense at Detroit (10-19) in the third quarter when the Lions were faced with a third-and-one situation from their own 30-yard line. Tackled FB Tommy Vardell for no gain to end the Detroit drive and force the Lions into a punting situation, setting the stage for WR Amani Toomer's 53-yard touchdown return...Had three solo special teams tackles at Washington (11-23). Was in at linebacker in the short yardage defense in overtime when the Giants held the Redskins on a fourth-and-one attempt...

1996: Led the team with 14 special teams tackles and added three defensive stops in short yardage situations...Former head coach Dan Reeves credited Colman with doing an outstanding job with knockdowns and tackles on special teams vs. Minnesota (9-29). Was named Special Teams Player of the Game for his efforts against the Vikings...Recorded his first tackle on defense as part of the Giants goal line defense in the third quarter at Arizona (11-17). Stopped Cardinals FB Cedric Smith short of the goal line on a run up the middle to set up third-and-goal from the one. Registered four solo special teams tackles against the Cardinals...Combined with Chad Bratzke to stop Eagles RB Ricky Watters short of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line in the third quarter at Philadelphia (12-1)...Filled in for starter Corey Widmer at middle linebacker in the third quarter at Miami (12-8) after Widmer re-aggravated a hyperextended elbow.

College: A key contributor who split time at middle linebacker during his senior season in 1995...Finished fourth on the team with 46 tackles (19 solos)...He had one fumble recovery, an interception vs. Colorado and two sacks, both against Kansas State...He also had four quarterback hurries...Tied his career-best with eight tackles against Missouri (four solos)...As a junior in 1994 Colman started the first eight games at linebacker, then gave to way to Phil Ellis, with whom he shared time at the position all season...Colman finished as the team's seventh-leading tackler with 51 stops (17 solos), including three for 16 yards lost (two sacks), one fumble caused, one fumble recovered, one pass breakup and four quarterback hurries...In the Kickoff Classic against No. 24 West Virginia, playing in front of family and friends, Colman led the team with a career-high eight tackles (four solo), including one 10-yard sack and one other tackle for loss. He also caused and recovered a fumble and was Nebraska's nominee for Big Eight Defensive Player of the Week...A backup to Mike Anderson and Daren Williams at middle linebacker as a sophomore, Colman played in every game in 1993 and recorded 11 tackles, including one tackle for a one-yard loss against Colorado State...After playing as a true freshman in 1991, Colman was redshirted...One of three true freshman (with safety Troy Dumas and wingback Abdul Muhammad) to letter for Nebraska in 1991, Colman was a reserve weakside linebacker behind Mike Anderson, Ed Stewart and Paul Wightman...He was also a member of NU's special teams...Colman played in five games and recorded six total tackles, including three unassisted stops...Four of his tackles came against Colorado State.

Personal: An All-State and All-South Jersey linebacker, Colman was named the South Jersey defensive player of the year by the Philadelphia Inquirer and the Atlantic City Press and a high school All-American by Super Prep magazine...He started at both linebacker and fullback, and was honored as the All-County offensive and defensive player of the year while playing for a team coached by his father, Wayne, a former NFL player for Philadelphia and New Orleans...Doug averaged 15 tackles a game (135 total) and intercepted two passes as a senior in 1990...He ran for 1,100 yards and scored 11 touchdowns to lead his conference in rushing, caught 12 passes for 185 yards and returned nine kickoffs for 280 yards to account for nearly 1,500 yards in offense...He also ran a 51.4 second 400 meters in track...Born June 4, 1973 at Somers Point, N.J. Majored in secondary education.

CROSS TID BIT...

Has interned in the NFL office in the Events Department. One of his many assignments was to help with C.I.T.Y. (Challenge and Inspire Today's Youth) football summer camps program, which is part of the League's Play Football efforts.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (158th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1989.

NFL: A regular in the Giants starting lineup for the past eight seasons...Had streak of 71 consecutive starts and 103 straight games played come to an end when he underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right knee and missed the Washington game on 10-29-95...Has started 56 straight games entering 1999...Because of his blocking ability, a vital cog in the Giants rushing attack.

1998: Started all 16 games and finished the year with 13 receptions for 90 yards...Caught a pass from QB Danny Kanell vs. Arizona (10-18) and turned it into a 22-yard gain during the Giants second touchdown drive late in the first quarter. His blocking against the Cardinals helped RB Gary Brown gain 108 yards on the ground...His blocking at Dallas (11-8) helped the Giants gain 159 yards on the ground, including a 119-yard rushing performance by Brown....Blocking played a major role in Brown's 1,000-yard rushing season (1,063 yards).

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Finished fourth on the team with 21 receptions for 150 yards with two touchdown passes...His blocking in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) helped minimize the strong Philadelphia pass rush which forced 27 sacks over the previous four Giants-Eagles matchups. The Eagles finished the game with just one sack...Had a 26-yard pass play from QB Dave Brown in the second quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14), his longest reception since recording a 26-yarder vs. Arizona (10-8-95). The play helped set up a Giants field goal. On the play, Cross caught a short pass and dragged several Ravens defenders to complete the 26-yard gain...Strong blocking at the end of the game vs. New Orleans (9-28) helped spring RB Tyrone Wheatley on outside rushes when he gained 41 yards on the final drive to kill the last 3:38...Part of an offense that helped open holes for a 239-yard rushing performance at Arizona (10-12). The entire offensive line, including TEs Cross and Aaron Pierce, was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff...Capped the Giants first touchdown drive at Detroit (10-19) with a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell to give the Giants a 7-0 first quarter lead...Caught a one-yard touchdown pass from Kanell in the back of the end zone for what proved to be the winning touchdown in the Giants 19-10 victory vs. Arizona (11-16)...Had a team-leading five receptions for 52 yards in the NFC East Division clinching game vs. Washington (12-13). The Giants were faced with a third-and-three situation from the Redskins 45-yard line during their second touchdown drive in the first quarter. Cross ran a slant pattern and turned the pass play into a 22-yard gain for a first down at the Redskins 23-yard line to keep the scoring drive alive.

1996: In his sixth season as a starter, finished fourth on the team with 22 receptions for 178 yards...Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain a season-high 94 yards rushing on 24 carries vs. Arizona (11-3)...Registered a season-high five receptions for 23 yards at Miami (12-8). His previous best in 1996 was three receptions vs. Dallas (11-24). His one-yard touchdown catch that capped the Giants' 78-yard, second quarter drive against the Dolphins was his first touchdown reception since 12-11-94 vs. Cincinnati when he caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown.

1995: Despite playing with a sore knee most of the season, still managed to start 15 games as he caught 18 passes for 197 yards...Saw his streak of 71 consecutive starts and 103 straight games played come to an end when he underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right knee and missed the Washington game (10-29). It marked the first game in his career that Cross missed...Cross originally injured his knee in the Giants' final preseason game at Carolina ...After catching at least one pass in every game in the 1994 season, Cross did not have any receptions at Kansas City (9-10). It was the first game he had been held without a reception since 12-26-93 at Phoenix...Blocking helped the Giants gain 218 yards on the ground and 258 yards in the air vs. New Orleans (9-24)...Returned to the starting lineup at Seattle (11-5).

1994: Started all 16 games for the fourth consecutive season...Had career-highs with 31 receptions for 364 yards...Previous highs were in 1992...Caught four TD passes...Had second two-TD game of his career at Arizona (9-11) when he caught two one-yard scoring passes from Dave Brown...Recorded longest reception of his career at New Orleans (10-2), a 40-yarder from Dave Brown...Led the team with five receptions for 47 yards at Rams (10-16)...Led the team with five receptions for 44 yards, including a nine-yard TD pass from Kent Graham in the fourth quarter, at Dallas (11-7)...Caught a 29-yard pass from Dave Brown at Washington (11-27) during 61-yard scoring drive in third quarter...Capped a 65-yard drive vs. Cincinnati (12-11) with an eight-yard TD pass from Dave Brown with :16 left in the first half.

1993: Started all 16 games and led team with a career-best five TD receptions after scoring two TDs in both the 1991 and 1992 seasons...Finished the season with 21 receptions for 272 yards and the five TDs...Had first two-TD game of his career at Washington (10-10)...Team's Offensive MVP at Miami (12-5) when he caught two passes for 34 yards, including 20-yard TD catch...Caught three passes for 26 yards, including 17-yard TD, at New Orleans (12-20)...Added four receptions for 43 yards in postseason play.

1992: Best statistical season of career to date with 27 catches for 357 yards and two TDs...Established personal single-game highs with six receptions for 77 yards vs. Dallas (9-13)...Scored TDs vs. Dallas (9-13) and at Chicago (9-21).

1991: After departure of Mark Bavaro, assumed the starting position...Finished season with 20 catches for 283 yards...Scored TDs at Pittsburgh (10-14) and vs. Houston (12-21)...Recorded a 30-yard reception, longest of his career at that time, vs. Phoenix (10-6).

1990: Started eight of the 16 regular season games he played in...Excelled in the postseason when he caught five passes for 44 yards and one TD...Scored on a five-yard pass from Jeff Hostetler in playoff victory vs. Chicago (1-13-91)...Had four receptions, including three for key first downs, for 39 yards in Super Bowl XXV victory over Buffalo (1-27-91).

1989: Made the team as a sixth round draft choice and played in all 16 games, with four starts when Mark Bavaro suffered a knee injury...First NFL start came vs. Minnesota (10-30)...First NFL reception was a six-yarder at Philadelphia (10-8)...First NFL TD was a 16-yarder vs. Seattle (11-19)...Rewarded for his efforts by being named to the All-Rookie team by United Press International.

College: A three-year starter at TE for Alabama...All-Southeastern Conference selection as a junior...Won Jacobs Trophy as the outstanding blocker in the SEC as a senior...In final two collegiate seasons, caught 36 passes for 384 yards and six TDs...Had six receptions for 81 yards and one TD in Hall of Fame Bowl vs. Michigan...Played in Senior Bowl.

Personal: Was a straight-A student and outstanding performer in football and basketball at New Hope (Ala.) HS...Active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes...An accomplished public speaker in the community, was named the Giants 1995 True Value Man of the Year...Howard E. Cross was born August 8, 1967 in Huntsville, Alabama.

Transactions: Originally signed by Green Bay as a free agent on May 2, 1991. Traded by Green Bay to Atlanta for an undisclosed 1992 draft choice on August 26, 1991. Waived by Atlanta on September 9, 1991. Claimed off waivers by Buffalo on September 10, 1991. Signed by Dallas as a Plan B free agent on February 18, 1992. Waived by Dallas on August 31, 1992. Claimed off waivers by Denver on September 1, 1992. Waived by Denver on August 23, 1993. Signed by Giants as a free agent on September 1, 1993.

NFL: Entering his seventh season with the Giants, his fifth as the team's full-time placekicker...Daluiso was given the opportunity to be the full-time placekicker in training camp of 1994 before giving way to David Treadwell at the start of the regular season...Regained the full-time role in the 13th week of the season in the second half of the Giants game at Cleveland...Was used primarily as a kickoff specialist through his first three NFL seasons...Ability to put the ball in the end zone makes him a valuable commodity...In 1998, moved into fourth place on the Giants Top Ten Scorers List with 411 points (99 field goals, 114 extra points). Enters the 1999 season behind Joe Danelo (482), Frank Gifford (484) and Pete Gogolak (646)...Daluiso's career field goal percentage with the Giants is 77.3% (99 of 128 entering 1999), best in team history. The previous best success rate was held by Matt Bahr (75.3%, 55 of 73)...Ended a streak of 39 consecutive field goals from inside the 40-yard line in the 1997 season-finale at Dallas...Served as a game captain in 1998.

1998: Was successful on 21 of 27 field goal attempts and all 32 extra point attempts for a total of 95 points...His 77.8% field goal conversion rate ranks fourth on the Giants all-time single-season list behind his own 88.9% in 1996, Ali Haji-Sheikh's 83.3% in 1983 and David Treadwell's 80.6% in 1993...Twenty-two of his 68 kickoffs reached the end zone with 15 going for touchbacks...Kicked five of his seven kickoffs into the end zone for touchbacks at San Diego (9-27)...Connected on three field goals (51, 28 and 45) in the Giants 23-19 victory at Arizona (12-6). The 51-yarder was his longest of the season and his only attempt from 50+ territory all year. Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals.

1997: Connected on 22 of 32 field goal attempts and 27 of 29 extra point attempts for a total of 93 points...After a 3-for-9 start, rebounded with 11 straight successful field goal attempts...In addition, his kickoffs averaged to the opponent's one-yard line, and he had 23 touchbacks in 67 kicks...His 93 points were eighth in the NFC...Ended the preseason a perfect nine-of-nine, including three-of-three from between 40-49 and two-of-two from 50 yards or greater...Extended his streak to 39 consecutive field goals from inside the 40-yard line before he missed on a 38-yard attempt at Dallas (12-21) in the regular season-finale. It was his first miss from inside the 40 since failing on a 37-yard attempt on 11-19-95 at Philadelphia...Missed on two field goals from 41 yards, and the Giants first extra point attempt in the second quarter was blocked in a 24-23 loss vs. Baltimore (9-14). It marked the first time in Daluiso's career that he had a PAT blocked...Missed on a 54-yard field goal attempt in the first quarter and a 42-yard attempt in the second quarter at St. Louis (9-21)...Was successful on field goals of 52 and 47 yards to help give the Giants a 26-20 overtime victory at Detroit (10-19). Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Lions...Missed the first extra point attempt of his career vs. Arizona (11-16) when his kick sailed wide left in the fourth quarter...His 54-yard game-winning field goal attempt at Washington (11-23) sailed wide left midway through the overtime period. Had another try at a 54-yard attempt on the Giants next drive, but his kick was blocked. The play was called back because the Redskins called a time out. Head coach Jim Fassel elected to punt rather than attempt another 54-yard field goal...Tied an NFL postseason record in the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27) with five field goals (43, 22, 41, 51 and 22). Chuck Nelson (Minnesota) kicked five vs. San Francisco in 1987, Matt Bahr kicked five in the Giants 15-13 NFC Championship victory at San Francisco in 1990 and Steve Christie (Buffalo) kicked five vs. Miami in 1992. Daluiso's four first half field goals established an NFL postseason record.

1996: Finished the season with 14 consecutive successful field goal attempts...On the season, his 88.9 conversion rate (24 field goals on 27 attempts) set a team record. The old mark was held by Ali Haji-Sheikh (83.3%, 35 of 42), set during the 1983 season...Connected on field goals of 25, 27 and 18 yards to help give the Giants a 15-10 victory over the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings (9-29)...His strong kickoffs helped limit the Eagles average start of possession to their own 19-yard line vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...His 45-yard field goal in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-3) was his first successful kick between 40-49 yards of the 1996 season. Connected on a 31-yard field goal on the opening drive and a 32-yard field goal in the third quarter. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the National Football League...Connected on field goals of 45 and 46 yards in the second quarter vs. Dallas (11-24) to give the Giants a 6-3 lead. The 46-yarder was his longest of the season...Three of his four kick-offs went into the end zone for touchbacks, and he converted both of his extra point attempts and his only field goal attempt, a 37-yarder, at Miami (12-8). Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the NFL for the second time in 1996.

1995: In his first complete season handling full-time placekicking duties, played in all 16 games and finished 20-of-28 in field goal attempts and 28-of-28 on PATs...After going 11-of-11 in field goal attempts in 1994 and six-of-six in the preseason, missed his first attempt of the 1995 regular-season when his 42-yard attempt was blocked and sailed wide left in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...His missed field goal was the Giants only scoring opportunity of the evening...Kicked a 51-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to extend the Giants lead to 24-17 vs. New Orleans (9-24). Was six-of-six on extra point attempts against the Saints...Did a good job of kicking the ball outside the numbers on kickoffs to limit return specialist Brian Mitchell's running room at Washington (10-29)...His 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right as time expired, capping a 30-28 Seattle Seahawks victory over the visiting Giants (11-5). Is now 3 of 4 lifetime for the Giants when attempting a field goal with the game in the balance. Prior to the missed 48-yard attempt against Seattle, Daluiso had connected from 54 yards with :32 left to defeat the Cardinals, 19-17 on Nov. 28, 1993, hit a 33-yarder with :19 left to defeat Cleveland, 16-13, on Dec. 4, 1994 and nailed an 18-yarder with :54 remaining to defeat Philadelphia, 16-13 on Dec. 18, 1994...Missed his first field goal inside the 40-yard line in 19 attempts when his 37-yard field goal try sailed wide right in the second quarter at Philadelphia (11-19). Was eight-of-eight inside the 40-yard line prior to the miss.

1994: Finished the season a perfect 11-of-11 in field goal attempts after taking over full-time kicking duties in the second half at Cleveland (12-4)...Led the league in touchbacks with 19...Of his 65 kickoffs, 26 went into the end zone, 19 for touchbacks...Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after the Cleveland game when he connected on field goals of 25, 30 and 33 yards, the kick that gave the Giants a 16-13 victory with :19 left in regulation...Awarded a game ball and named team Special Teams MVP vs. Cincinnati (12-11) when he kicked field goals of 52 and 33 yards...The 52-yarder is the second-longest field goal of Daluiso's career; his career-best is the 54-yarder that defeated Arizona on 11-28-93...Named Giants Special Teams MVP at Philadelphia (12-18) after kicking three field goals, including an 18-yard game-winning FG with :54 left in regulation.

1993: Played in 15 games...44 of his 64 kickoffs went into or through the end zone, 39 of those for touchbacks...Connected on a 54-yard FG with :32 left in the game to give Giants 19-17 victory vs. Phoenix (11-28) as he earned a game ball and Special Teams MVP honors...NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for performance at Miami (12-5) when all four of his kickoffs went for touchbacks.

1992: For the season he kicked off 65 times with 53 touchbacks, an .815 percentage, and had only 12 returned, by far the lowest in the NFL...Denver opponents scored just four times after starting their possessions with a Daluiso touchback kickoff...After Denver's starting P Mike Horan was injured following a blocked punt vs. Houston (10-18), Daluiso averaged 48.5 yards on four punts...Also punted in the season finale at Kansas City (12-27), punting six times for a 45.5 average, including a 67-yarder, the Broncos' longest of the season...Picked up off of waivers from Dallas, after signing there as a Plan B free agent, just prior to the beginning of the regular season.

1991: Attended Green Bay's training camp in 1991, but was traded to Atlanta...Waived by Atlanta and claimed by Buffalo where he spent the rest of the 1991 campaign...Posted season totals of 30 touchbacks on 84 kickoffs...Converted two of his three field goal attempts and both extra point attempts with Atlanta.

College: Daluiso was a second-team All-Pac 10 selection as a senior at UCLA...He hit 13 of 19 field goals and 32 of 33 PAT tries to lead the Bruins in scoring...He made the team as a walkon in 1989 and handled 46 of the team's 48 kickoffs...Was a member of the Grossmont (Calif.) JC soccer team before becoming a kickoff specialist on the football team in 1988...He attended San Diego State in 1986 but did not play football.

Personal: Married (Kahle) with son Spencer and twin daughters Mia and Renato...Makes his off-season home in Del Mar, California...Attended Valhalla HS in El Cajon, earning varsity letters in tennis and soccer...Led his soccer team to the CIF soccer championship...Was a member of the Grossmont (Ca.) Junior College soccer team before becoming a kickoff specialist on the football team in 1988...Majored in Sociology at UCLA...Brad Daluiso was born on December 31, 1967 in San Diego, Calif.

Earned a letter on the Virginia basketball team and helped the team advance to the NCAA Elite Eight during junior season...Named Defensive Player of the Week by The Sporting News after intercepting Danny Kanell twice in Virginia's victory over Florida State during his senior season.

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a free agent on April 27, 1996.

NFL: Made roster as a rookie free agent and has become a significant contributor as a part-time starter and in nickel and dime packages.

1998: Played in all 16 games and made nine starts, finishing with 58 total tackles (42 solos), 10 passes defended and a team-leading and career-high five interceptions...Returned two interceptions for touchdowns (a 20-yard return at San Diego and a 43-yard return vs. Kansas City. Ellsworth is the first Giants player to return two interceptions for touchdowns in the same season since Carl Lockhart had two in 1968...Made three starts in place of Tito Wooten (hamstring) at free safety (at San Diego, 9-27, at Tampa Bay, 10-4 and at Philadelphia, 12-27) and five starts in place of Sam Gaines at strong safety (vs. Atlanta, 10-11, vs. Arizona, 10-18, at Washington, 11-1, at Dallas, 11-8 and vs. Green bay, 11-15). His other starting assignment was in a special nickel package vs. Dallas (9-21)...Had two two-interception games: at San Diego (9-27) and vs. Kansas City (12-20). His other career two-interception game was at Arizona (10-12-97)...In the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6), he broke up a fourth down pass attempt from QB Trent Green to WR Michael Westbrook late in the fourth quarter to help preserve the Giants 31-24 victory...Was in the starting lineup in a special nickel defense vs. Dallas (9-21) and replaced Wooten at free safety in the second half...Finished with four solo tackles, two interceptions and three passes defended at San Diego (9-27). Picked off a QB Ryan Leaf pass at the Giants 17-yard line to end a Chargers scoring threat early in the second quarter. Ended a San Diego comeback threat in the third quarter when he left his primary coverage spot and made a perfect read to cut in front of WR Bryan Still to pick off a Leaf pass that he returned 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Giants a 28-9 lead. Awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his effort against the Chargers...Set a single-season high mark with 11 total tackles (8 solos) vs. Atlanta (10-11), breaking his old record of seven that was set vs. Philadelphia (10-13-96)...Put the Giants in position for a field goal in the third quarter vs. Arizona (10-18) when he picked off a QB Jake Plummer pass at the Cardinals 47-yard line and returned it to the 40-yard line for a Giants first down...Deflected QB John Elway's desperation pass in the end zone with no time remaining to secure the Giants 20-16 victory vs. Denver (12-13)...Took over at free safety in the second quarter vs. Kansas City (12-20) when Wooten left with a hamstring injury. Had his third career two-interception game and his second of the 1998 season. Hauled in a pass that deflected off WR Derrick Alexander's hands and raced 43 yards for a touchdown on the game's third play from scrimmage. Ended the Chiefs first drive in the second half with his second interception of the afternoon. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the National Football League and awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance.

1997: Majority of his playing time was in nickel and dime situations...Registered 29 total tackles (20 solos) with four interceptions, two fumble recoveries and nine passes defended...Also added five special teams tackles...Played in all 16 games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota and made one start vs. Baltimore (9-14) when the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense. Against the Ravens, leaped over WR Ryan Yarbrough to intercept a QB Vinny Testaverde bomb at the Giants 21-yard line in the third quarter. The Giants took over and converted the turnover into a 27-yard field goal to take a 23-14 fourth quarter lead...Came in at strong safety in place of Sam Barnes for a series in the third quarter at St. Louis (9-21) when Barnes was getting his injured ankle retaped. Broke up a pass intended for Rams WR Torrance Small from QB Tony Banks on the goal line during a third down play, forcing St. Louis to settle for a field goal during their first scoring drive...Broke up a QB Heath Shuler pass intended for WR Andre Hastings on third-and-seven from the Giants 14-yard line vs. New Orleans (9-28), forcing the Saints to settle for a 32-yard Doug Brien field goal at the end of the second quarter...Finished with two interceptions that ended Cardinals drives inside the Giants 20-yard line at Arizona (10-12). In the second quarter, Ellsworth intercepted QB Kent Graham's pass intended for WR Rob Moore at the Giants 10-yard line. In the fourth quarter, he picked off a QB Stoney Case pass intended for WR Frank Sanders at the Giants two-yard line. The last time that Ellsworth had two interceptions in a game was against Danny Kanell when Ellsworth played at Virginia and Kanell was at Florida State...Recovered QB Jeff Blake's fumble at the Bengals 47-yard line vs. Cincinnati (10-26) after LB Jessie Armstead jarred the ball loose during a tackle out of the pocket in the third quarter. Ellsworth raced 24 yards to give the Giants a first down at the 23-yard line to help set up a Giants touchdown that closed the Bengals lead to 21-16...Entered the game at free safety in place of Tito Wooten when Wooten left for a couple of series in the fourth quarter with a sprained ankle at Washington (11-23)...Was forced into the game at free safety in place of Wooten in the fourth quarter after Wooten aggravated his sprained left ankle vs. Tampa Bay (11-30)...Recovered a fumble at Dallas (12-21) at the Cowboys 44-yard line following a fumbled exchange between QB Troy Aikman and C Clay Shiver in the third quarter...Replaced Wooten late in the fourth quarter vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game after Wooten left with an ankle injury.

1996: Had 45 tackles (36 solos), recovered a fumble and tied for second on the team with nine passes defended, including three interceptions. Added two special teams tackles...Saw his first regular season action vs. Washington (9-15) after being inactive for the Giants first two games. Finished with two tackles on defense...Rotated at strong safety with Jesse Campbell with Ellsworth seeing the majority of his playing in passing situations at the Jets (9-22). When Tito Wooten left in the third quarter with a fractured right fibula, Ellsworth entered the game at free safety...Started vs. Minnesota (9-29) and vs. Philadelphia (10-13) at free safety in place of Wooten (leg)...Coverage helped hold the Vikings to just 143 yards passing on 13 completions...Helped clear the path during Amani Toomer's 65-yard punt return for a touchdown in the second quarter against the Eagles, getting in front of P Tom Hutton, the last Eagles defender to have a chance at Toomer...Recorded his first NFL interception at Washington (10-20) when he stepped in front of RB Brian Mitchell and picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass in the first quarter...Came in at free safety in place of Wooten, who left with an injured shoulder in the fourth quarter at Arizona (11-17). After the Giants closed the lead to 28-13, Ellsworth helped prevent the Cardinals from putting the game out of reach by intercepting QB Boomer Esiason in the end zone to end a scoring threat. Recovered a RB LeShon Johnson fumble caused by LB Jessie Armstead at the Cardinals 42-yard line to set up a Giants touchdown that cut the Arizona lead to 28-20...Picked off a Troy Aikman pass intended for Deion Sanders at the Giants five-yard line with 2:11 remaining vs. Dallas (11-24) to seal the Giants 20-6 victory.

College: Is the first Virginia defensive back ever named a first-team All-American...Tied for third in school history with 12 passes defended in 1995...His six interceptions in 1995 are second-most in a season by a safety...His 10 career interceptions are tied for 12th in Virginia history...Four of his interceptions and eight of his passes broken up came against ACC foes...Had two interceptions against Florida State and was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week and national Defensive Player of the Week by The Sporting News...Made a team-leading eight tackles against Maryland in the game that clinched a share of the ACC championship...Started three games as a true freshman in 1992...Also used as a punt returner during his collegiate career.

Transactions: Originally signed by the Giants as a free agent on April 28, 1997.

NFL: Reserve lineman who is capable of playing center and guard...Promotion from third string center to the starting position during rookie season came as a result of the eye injury to Brian Williams followed by a knee injury to backup Jerry Reynolds in training camp...Rookie season was cut short after five games due to a fractured ankle.

1998: Utilized throughout the season as an eligible receiver so the Giants could have an extra lineman in short yardage and goal line situations...Majority of his playing time was on the extra point and field goal units...Played in 11 games and dressed but did not play in four games...Was de-activated for the season-fine at Philadelphia due to an ankle injury that he suffered during the week of practice...Saw his first action of the 1998 season at San Diego (9-27) when he began rotating at center with Lance Scott. His blocking against the Chargers helped the Giants break the 100-yard rushing mark (105) for the first time all year...Rotated at center in place of Scott at Tampa Bay (10-4)...Entered the game as an eligible receiver vs. Arizona (10-18) to act as an lineman when the Giants reached the one-yard line during the second quarter touchdown drive. His blocking on the play helped RB Gary Brown on his one-yard touchdown run for a 14-0 Giants lead. Came in at center during the fourth quarter against the Cardinals...Replaced Scott at center late in the game vs. Green Bay (11-15)...Entered the game in the fourth quarter vs. Denver (12-13) when the Giants were on the Broncos one-yard line. Shifted to the wide side of the field, causing Denver to jump off sides.

1997: Pressed into the starting job at center after Brian Williams injured his eye and his backup, Jerry Reynolds, injured his knee in training camp...After starting all four preseason games, head coach Jim Fassel elected to keep Engler in the starting lineup rather than disrupt the offensive line rhythm when Reynolds returned from his injury...Started the first five games of the season...Suffered a fracture of his right ankle during the Giants second offensive series vs. New Orleans (9-28) and missed the remainder of the regular season and the postseason...Was replaced in the lineup by Lance Scott...One of five rookies (Engler, RB Tiki Barber, S Sam Barnes, WR Ike Hilliard with P Brad Maynard) to be in the starting lineup on opening day vs. Philadelphia (8-31).

College: Started 12 games at center as a senior in 1996 after making a position switch from guard in the spring... Wisconsin's rushing game averaged 249.4 yards per game...Co-Offensive Player of the Week vs. Ohio State and Minnesota...First offensive lineman of the Barry Alvarez era to earn team Player-Of-The-Week honors twice in one season...Blocking helped the Badgers lead the Big Ten in rushing and rank 12th nationally...Helped pave the way for Ron Dayne's record-breaking 2,109-yard season...Saw action at guard as a junior in 1995...Was second-team guard behind two-time first-team All-Big Ten pick Joe Rudolph as a sophomore in 1994...Missed the second half of his sophomore season after shoulder surgery...Was a reserve guard in 1993 and a redshirt in 1992.

Personal: Super Prep All-Midwest team at Crestin-Derham Hall in St. Paul, Minnesota...Two-time All-City...Sociology major...Born July 11, 1974 in St. Paul, Minnesota.

GIANTS

GALYON TID BIT...

Spent his first offseason as a substitute school teacher at his high school in Tennessee. Would like to teach and coach at the high school level after his playing career is over.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (182nd pick overall) draft choice, the second of two sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1996.

NFL: Suffered through an injury-plagued third season that included an Achilles/calf injury and a season-ending leg/knee injury that limited him to just ten games...Spent the offseason in a rigorous rehabilitation program due to the leg/knee injury and will look to rebound back to his 1997 form when he made a major impact as the Giants nickel linebacker...Took over as the Giants middle linebacker during nickel situations in his second NFL season...A reserve at the weakside linebacking spot who contributed on special teams during his rookie season in 1996.

1998: Played in 10 games with one starting assignment and finished the season with 24 total tackles (19 solos), one sack, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one pass defended and five special teams tackles...Majority of his playing time was at linebacker in the nickel defense...Suffered an Achilles/calf injury in the second game of the season at Oakland (9-13) and missed the next three games (vs. Dallas, 9-21, at San Diego, 9-27, and at Tampa Bay, 10-4)...Suffered a tibial plateau (knee) fracture to his left leg and a torn medial collateral ligament in his left knee while covering a first quarter punt at Arizona (12-6). Underwent surgery to repair the injuries on December 7 at the Hospital for Special Surgery-Cornell Medical Center in New York City and was placed on injured reserve on December 8...Entered the game at weakside linebacker vs. Washington (9-6) in the fourth quarter when Jessie Armstead left with a sprained ankle...Made his first NFL start vs. Arizona (10-18) when the Giants opened in the nickel defense. Helped set up the Giants final touchdown against the Cardinals when he recovered a QB Jake Plummer fumble at the Giants 48-yard line after he forced the fumble on a seven-yard sack...Came in at weakside linebacker vs. Green Bay (11-15) when Armstead was forced out in the fourth quarter due to his ankle injury.

1997: Started the season as a reserve linebacker and special teams performer...Replaced Marcus Buckley as the Giants middle linebacker in nickel and dime packages at St. Louis (9-21) and played extremely well throughout the rest of the season, finishing with 39 total tackles (31 solos), three sacks, two forced fumbles and three passes defended...Also finished tied for second on the team with 11 special teams tackles...Named special teams MVP by the coaching staff following his performance vs. Philadelphia (8-31) in the season-opener. Was used in the nickel defense against the Eagles due to an injury to Buckley (hip flexor)...With the return of Buckley at Jacksonville (9-7), Galyon's role was reduced to special teams duty. When Buckley filled in at weakside linebacker for LB Jessie Armstead, who was out with heat cramps in the fourth quarter, Galyon took over as the nickel linebacker...Suffered a concussion in the second half during a kickoff vs. Baltimore (9-14) and did not return to the game...Credited with his first career sack at Arizona (10-12) when he came in on a blitz and forced Cardinals QB Stoney Case to fumble in the third quarter. The Cardinals recovered the loose football after a 30-yard loss to put themselves in a third-and-40 situation...Combined with DT Robert Harris vs. Cincinnati (10-26) to stop Bengals RB Eric Bienenmy short of the first down on a third-and-four play in the fourth quarter. The Bengals tried a fourth down play on the next play and were stopped by the Giants defense...Came in on a third down blitz vs. Arizona (11-16) and sacked QB Jake Plummer for an eight-yard loss to end a Cardinals drive in the first quarter...Created a turnover that helped lead to a Giants score in the second quarter at Philadelphia (12-7) when he forced Eagles QB Bobby Hoyer to fumble on a nine-yard sack. DT Keith Hamilton recovered the ball at the Philadelphia 42-yard line, and the Giants moved to the 11-yard line before QB Danny Kanell completed an 11-yard touchdown pass to RB Tiki Barber for a 14-7 lead...Stopped QB Jeff Hostetler inches short of the first down on a third down scramble up the middle vs. Washington (12-13). On the next play, P Dan Turk mishandled the snap, allowing the Giants to take over at the Redskins 16-yard line...Used as the nickel linebacker in the first half at Dallas (12-21) before replacing Armstead at weakside linebacker in the second half when head coach Jim Fassel elected to go with the reserves. Led the team with six solo tackles. Also added two solo special teams tackles. Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cowboys....In the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27), finished with three solo tackles, one pass defended and one forced fumble. Hit QB Randall Cunningham and forced him to fumble in the third quarter. The Vikings managed to recover the loose football.

1996: Contributed nine special teams tackles (tied for third on team) and two defensive stops...Saw his first action at linebacker at Dallas (9-8) when he entered the game in place of Jessie Armstead at weakside linebacker in the fourth quarter. Had his first NFL tackle when he stopped Emmitt Smith at the line of scrimmage for no gain on a third-and-one play to help hold Dallas to a field goal...Helped force the Cowboys to start their first drive deep in their own territory by downing a Mike Horan punt at the Dallas two-yard line after Conrad Hamilton batted the ball back from the goal line vs. Dallas (11-24).

College: Leadership role was underscored when Vols elected him as one of four co-captains for 1995...Started every game at right outside linebacker during senior campaign in 1995...Was the team's leading tackler with 91 stops (62 solos), one sack and ten tackles for losses....Registered 10 tackles against Florida, including two for losses, and caused a fumble...Picked off his third career pass against Mississippi State...Led the team in tackles with 93 (67 solos) as a junior in 1994...Started season at middle linebacker, then moved to right side after Mississippi State game...Cracked starting lineup in Alabama game as a sophomore in 1993 and remained a regular for final six games, including the bowl game...Finished as Vols' fourth-leading tackler with 54 hits, 36 solo stops and 18 assists...As true freshman, he backed up former Giants teammate Ben Talley at right linebacker...Made key plays on special teams throughout the season.

Personal: First-team All-Star as defensive back...Honorable mention All-American by USA Today at Seymour High...Named to Tom Lemming's All-Southeast...Had 91 tackles, four interceptions and 10 passes broken up in senior...For career, he had 191 tackles and 14 interceptions...Averaged 38 yards as punter...Caught 21 passes for 500 yards as junior...Moved to quarterback as senior...Played quarterback, receiver, linebacker and safety during high school career...Led Seymour to 27-7 record and two playoffs during his three years...All-District in baseball and basketball...Born March 23, 1974.

GARNES TID BIT...

Would like to someday open a community youth recreation center and open businesses to help promote economic development in hometown of Bronx, NY.

Transactions: Originally a fifth round (136th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Established himself as a starter in his rookie season at strong safety.

1998: Was limited to just 11 starts due to a foot injury. His foot injury surfaced when he suffered a stress reaction to the fifth metatarsal of his right foot during the Chargers game at San Diego (9-27). Garnes started the next week at Tampa Bay (10-4) before missing the next five games. He underwent successful surgery on October 13 to insert a screw in his foot...Closed out the season with 49 total tackles (37 solos), two passes defended, one interception and two special teams tackles...Returned to the starting lineup at strong safety vs. Philadelphia (11-22) and finished second on the team with six solo tackles. Combined with DE Chad Bratzke to stop Eagles RB Charlie Garner for no gain on a third-and-one run in the second quarter that forced Philadelphia to attempt a 44-yard field goal that fell short...Part of a secondary that limited QB John Elway to just 180 yards with no completions longer than 20 yards in the victory over Denver (12-13)...After the Giants took a 13-10 lead late in the third quarter at Philadelphia (12-27), the Eagles answered by marching to the Giants 11-yard line. Barnes intercepted QB Koy Detmer's pass deep in Giants territory to end the scoring threat. The Giants converted the turnover into a touchdown to take a 20-10 lead. Awarded a Defensive Game ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Eagles.

1997: Earned the starting strong safety position in training camp and went on to start 15 of the 16 regular season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Had 60 total tackles (40 solos), one interception that was returned for a touchdown vs. Philadelphia (8-31), five passes defended and 11 special teams tackles...Was replaced by Percy Ellsworth during nickel situations throughout the season...A 95-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Eagles in the season-opener ended a game-tying Eagles scoring drive with less than five minutes remaining and the Giants holding a 24-17 lead. Backup QB Rodney Peete moved the Eagles to the Giants 21-yard line and attempted to throw a pass to TE Jason Dunn over the middle, but Barnes stepped in front and intercepted the ball at the five-yard line and raced 95 yards untouched for the touchdown, the fifth-longest interception return in Giants history. Named defensive MVP by the coaching staff following the game...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) as the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense...Suffered a sprained ankle during practice on the Thursday prior to the game at St. Louis (9-21), but returned for the walk-through on Saturday and was in the starting lineup against the Rams. Missed one series in the third quarter to get his ankle re-taped...Late in the fourth quarter vs. New Orleans (9-28), the Saints recovered a Giants fumble that gave them a first down at the Giants 35-yard line. Barnes surprised the Saints with a safety blitz that took the focus off LB Corey Widmer, who sacked QB Heath Shuler to push the Saints into a third-and-long situation...Came in on a safety blitz in overtime at Washington (11-23) that forced QB Jeff Hostetler to hurry a pass that was intercepted by CB Phillippi Sparks at the Giants 49-yard line...Made a big impact on special teams vs. Washington (12-13) with a team-leading three solo tackles and one assist. Made tackles on the Giants first four kickoffs of the game...Came up from his safety position against the Vikings and tackled RB Robert Smith for a five-yard loss in the second quarter of the Wild Card game.

College: Ranks fifth on the school's all-time chart with 318 total tackles...All-Independent first-team pick following his senior campaign in 1996...Started the season opener at free safety and then shifted to strong safety for the rest of the year...Recorded 69 tackles (47 solos) with a three-yard sack and five pass deflections...All-Conference USA first-team and Liberty Bowl Alliance All-Star pick as a junior in 1995...Ranked eighth in the nation with six interceptions for 101 yards in returns...His six pass thefts tied the school season-record first set by Don Polagy in 1952 and matched by Bill Madeya (1965) and Ed Bolis (1970)...All-Independent first-team choice by the media in 1994 as a sophomore...Recipient of the Claude Rost Award, given to the team's Most Valuable Player...Started every game at strong safety...Led the team with a career-high 134 tackles (88 solos) and had three stops for losses of 15...Valuable performer for the Bearcats, playing in every game behind Latish Kinsler at strong safety as a freshman in 1993...Redshirted as a freshman in 1992.

Personal: All-Borough first-team and All-City honorable mention as a receiver and defensive back at DeWitt Clinton High School, Bronx, NY...Set school season and game records as he hauled in 27 passes for 492 yards (18.2 avg.) and three touchdowns as a senior...Also recorded 58 tackles with an interception that year...Led the team to the Bronx championship game as a sophomore...Added letters in track and golf...Honor Roll student...Criminal Justice major...One of three children (two sisters) of Sam and Carolyn Barnes...Avid football card collector...Born July 12, 1974 in the Bronx, New York.

"Lurch" started his touchdown acrobatics in college, where Grizzly fans appropriately named it the THUNDER ROLL.

Transactions: Originally a second round (54th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1995.

NFL: With the departure of Doug Riesenberger, moved into the starting lineup at right tackle in 1996...Enters his fourth season as a starter.

1998: Started all 16 games at right tackle for the third straight season...Helped block for RB Gary Brown, who produced a 1,000-yard rushing season with 1,063 yards...Offensive line did not allow QB Danny Kanell to be sacked at San Diego (9-27). Blocking against the Chargers helped the ground game crack the 100-yard rushing mark (105) for the first time all year...In the Arizona game (10-18), did a good job against Cardinals rookie DE Andre Wadsworth, limiting him to just three total tackles...Helped the Giants average 5.7-yards per carry at Dallas (11-8) as the ground game amassed 159 yards...Offensive line gave QB Kent Graham time to make his reads as he completed 21 of 33 passes for 265 yards with two touchdowns in the victory over Denver (12-23).

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at right tackle...The Giants offensive line allowed 32 sacks, a vast improvement from the 1997 season when the Giants were sacked 56 times...After allowing 27 sacks in the previous four Giants-Eagles matchups, the Giants offensive allowed just one sack in the season-opener against Philadelphia (8-31)...Blocking helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards on the final drive vs. New Orleans (9-28) as the Giants killed the last 3:38 of the game after being pinned at their own three-yard line...Vs. Dallas (10-5), held Cowboys DE Tony Tolbert without a sack for the first time in Tolbert's past ten games against the Giants...Helped spring the Giants ground game for 239 yards at Arizona (10-12). Line allowed Wheatley to gain 103 yards on 22 carries, breaking a Giants streak of 23 straight games without a 100-yard rushing performance. Against the Cardinals, RB Erric Pegram read Gragg's block during his 18-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter that gave the Giants a 27-6 lead. The entire offensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for its performance against a respected Cardinals defensive front...Offensive line did a good job of combating the noisy Silverdome conditions at Detroit (10-19), opening holes for FB Charles Way to pound out 90 yards on 13 carries.

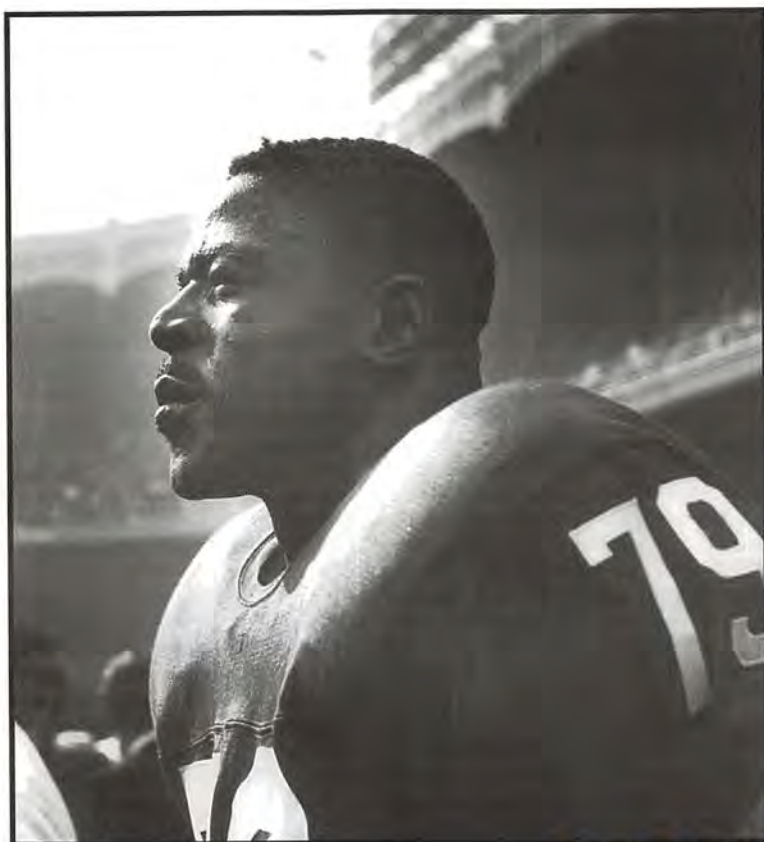

1996: Made his first NFL start in the season-opener vs. Buffalo (9-1)...Offensive line helped the Giants control the ball throughout the game vs. Minnesota (9-29). The Giants first drive took 8:32 off the clock. The team was able to run out the final four minutes of the game to preserve the victory...Blocked PK Greg Davis' 28-yard field goal attempt after the Cardinals reached the Giants 11-yard line in the first quarter vs. Arizona (11-3). Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season. Missed three plays in the third quarter after dislocating his finger...Named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff at Carolina (11-10) for his role in limiting the Panthers, the NFL team with the most sacks in 1996, to just one sack. Held OLB Kevin Greene to no sacks and one tackle.

1995: Broke his foot in the first week of training camp and missed the entire preseason...Saw first regular-season action at Green Bay (9-17) when he lined up as an extra tight end in a short-yardage situation in the second quarter...Vs. New Orleans (9-24), made his first appearance at offensive tackle when he replaced Doug Riesenbergr at right tackle for the final series...Replaced John Elliott at left tackle late in the fourth quarter at San Francisco (10-1) when Elliott left with a burner in both arms...Gragg and Riesenbergr split time at right tackle at Philadelphia (11-19) with Gragg playing the second and fourth quarters...Gragg's blocking on the kickoff team helped Thomas Lewis return a second quarter kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown vs. Washington (12-10).

College: First-team All-America pick by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and Associated Press and All-Big Sky Conference following senior campaign...Made 82 knockdown blocks while grading 89% for blocking consistency as a senior...Recipient of the Paul Weskamp Award as the team's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman after moving into the starting lineup in his sophomore season in 1992...Provided excellent pass protection that season as Montana finished second in the nation in total offense...Redshirted as a freshman and earned Scout Team Offensive Most Valuable Player recognition.

Personal: Married (Toni) with daughter Anna Christina (3-3-98)...Chemistry/Education major, earning Big Sky Conference Academic Team honors in 1992 and 1993...Possessed a 3.13 grade point average...All-Conference selection as a two-way lineman at Union High (Silverton, Ore.)...Lettered in football, twice in basketball and once in track...Football and basketball team captain as a senior...All-American and All-Conference basketball choice...Born February 28, 1972 in Silverton, Oregon.

GRAHAM TID BIT...

Played LB in grade school and wasn't switched to QB until the 8th grade. He did not play football in 6th and 7th grade because he exceeded the weight limit. At 175 pounds in 8th grade, he had to go to a different town to play due to weight restrictions.

Transactions: An eighth round (211th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992. Waived by the Giants on August 30, 1995. Signed by Detroit as a free agent on September 5, 1995. Signed by Arizona as a free agent on March 7, 1996. Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent from Arizona on February 17, 1998.

NFL: Originally an eighth round draft choice of the Giants in 1992, lost a quarterback battle to Dave Brown in training camp in 1994...Was waived by the Giants prior to the start of the 1995 season to make room on the roster for QB Tommy Maddox...After spending a season as Detroit's third quarterback, signed with Arizona where he was reunited with Jim Fassel, who was offensive coordinator for the Giants during Graham's first NFL season in 1992...Earned starting job for parts of the 1996 and 1997 seasons with the Cardinals...Last season, took over as the starting quarterback in Week 11 and finished with a 5-1 record as the starter to help the team overcome a 3-7 start for an 8-8 finish.

1998: Finished with a 5-1 record as the Giants starting quarterback after taking over for Danny Kanell in Week 11 vs. Philadelphia (11-22)...Spent the first ten weeks of the season as the backup quarterback...Completed 105 of 205 pass attempts (51.2 percent) for 1,219 yards with seven touchdowns and five interceptions for a 70.8 passer rating...Saw his first action of the 1998 season during the Giants last drive of the game vs. Dallas (9-21). Completed just one of seven passes for three yards. Following two penalties against the Cowboys, the Giants reached the Dallas 27-yard line before Graham's shotgun pass intended to WR Amani Toomer was intercepted by S Kenny Wheaton at the 11-yard line to seal the 31-7 Dallas victory...Came in to run out the clock at San Diego (9-27) but did not attempt any passes...Replaced Kanell at quarterback with six minutes left in the fourth quarter vs. Atlanta (10-11) and completed 11 of 16 for 105 yards during the Giants final two offensive series. Completed seven-of-nine passes for 56 yards in leading the Giants on a 12-play, 75-yard drive that was culminated with a five-yard touchdown run on a draw play up the middle by Graham. Kept the drive alive with a 20-yard pass to WR Ike Hilliard for a first down on a fourth-and-13 situation from the Falcons 38-yard line...Came in to run out the clock late in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (10-18) but did not attempt any passes...Entered the game late in the third quarter vs. Green Bay (11-15) in place of Kanell. Completed two of five pass attempts for 12 yards...Was named the starting quarterback in place of Kanell early in the week prior to the game vs. Philadelphia (11-22). Completed 10 of 21 pass attempts for 153 yards with one touchdown and one interception to lead the Giants to a 20-0 victory...On the Giants first play from scrimmage at San Francisco (11-30), Graham completed a 48-yard pass to WR Ike Hilliard on a play-action fake that gave the Giants a first down at the 49ers 32-yard line to set up a quick touchdown and a 7-0 Giants lead. Completed a 50-yard pass to Hilliard to get the Giants in scoring position in the third quarter with a first down at the 49ers 31-yard line. That series ended on a missed 42-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso...Completed a screen pass to RB Tiki Barber, who broke free for an 87-yard touchdown in the first quarter at Arizona (12-6). It marks the longest touchdown play in Graham's career...Completed 21 of 33 passes for 265 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions to lead the Giants to a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated Denver Broncos. Connected with WR Amani Toomer on a 37-yard touchdown pass with 48 seconds left to play to help the Giants re-capture the lead. Was eight for 10 passing on third down. Converted on four third down plays during the Giants second quarter touchdown drive that lifted the Giants to a 10-6 halftime lead. Down 16-13, the Giants began their final drive at their own 14-yard line with no timeouts and just 1:49 left on the game clock. Graham moved the Giants 86 yards in six plays before finishing with the game-winner to Toomer. Graham completed a 15-yard pass to Calloway on first down, then scrambled for 23 yards to the Denver 48-yard line and stopped the clock by spiking the ball with 1:13 remaining. Two plays later, Graham completed an 11-yard pass to Jurevicius to convert on third-and-ten to set up the game-winning play. Was named Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week and was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week by the National Football League for his performance against the Broncos...Completed a key third down pass to Toomer while engineering an 83-yard scoring drive that culminated with a 12-yard touchdown pass to Toomer in the first quarter for a 14-0 Giants lead vs. Kansas City (12-20). A pump-fake by Graham on the play helped free Toomer in the end zone. Graham caught his own deflected pass in the second quarter and turned the play into a 16-yard pick up...Led two impressive second half touchdown drives that helped the Giants overcome a 10-6 halftime deficit in a 20-10 victory at Philadelphia (12-27). Both drives ended in Graham-to-Calloway touchdown passes. Completed two third down attempts to take the Giants on a 12-play, 77-yard drive that took 5:22 off the clock and ended when Graham's pass intended to Hilliard deflected into the air where Calloway made the grab for a five-yard touchdown at the end of the third quarter. Completed a key third down pass in the fourth quarter as the Giants marched 81 yards on an 11-play drive that took 6:34 off the clock. Graham connected with Calloway for an 18-yard touchdown and a 20-10 lead. Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his effort against the Eagles.

1997: Began the year as the starting quarterback and started the first six games of the season before hurting his ankle against the Giants (10-12). QB Jake Plummer took over and became the Cardinals permanent starter...Completed 130 of 250 passes for 1,408 yards (52.0 percent) with four touchdowns and five interceptions for a 65.9 passer rating...After suffering through a frustrating first half (5-13-29 yards) with a sack and lost fumble that was returned for a score vs. Dallas (9-7), came back in the second half (21-23-220 yards) with two touchdowns for a 25-22 Cardinals victory...Connected on 22 of 38 passes for 293 yards vs. Minnesota (10-5), including long pass plays of 33 yards to TE Chris Gedney for a touchdown and 42 yards to WR Frank Sanders as the Cardinals forged a 19-10 lead with just 10 minutes left in the game...Suffered knee and ankle sprains with four minutes left in the first half when he became entangled in a pileup against the Giants...Came into the game vs. Philadelphia (11-2) in the fourth quarter in relief of Plummer. Completed just five of nine passes for 33 yards, but scored twice on quarterback sneaks...Again in the fourth quarter at Dallas (11-9) came on in relief of Plummer and completed five of 14 passes for 74 yards.

1996: Split time with Boomer Esiason in his first season in Arizona and earned a 4-4 record as a starter...Completed 146 of 274 pass attempts (53.3 percent) for 1,624 yards with 12 touchdowns, seven interceptions and had a 75.1 passer rating...Led the NFC and ranked third in the league in third-down passing with 45 completions in 80 attempts for 531 yards with six touchdowns and just one interception (96.4 rating)...Equalled two Cardinals records in 31-28 overtime win against St. Louis (9-29) -- 14 consecutive pass completions and 37 pass completions. Effort against the Rams earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors with 37 completions on 58 attempts for 366 yards and four touchdowns, all career single-game bests...Relieved Esiason at start of second half vs. Miami (9-8), completing 13 of 19 attempts for 133 yards and a one-yard scoring toss to FB Cedric Smith...After Esiason struggled again at New England (9-15) the next week, Graham came off the bench midway through the third quarter to thread nine of 19 pass attempts for 111 yards...Earned first starting Cardinals role the next week vs. New Orleans (9-22)...Twice brought club back from 14-point deficits in the second half vs. Rams. On two scoring drives in the second half, clicked on 11 of 12 pass attempts for 71 yards and two touchdowns...After a first half of six-of-10 for 79 yards vs. Jets (10-27), finished 17-of-32 for 255 with three touchdowns...Suffered a sprain of the posterior cruciate ligament in his left knee at the Giants (11-3), forcing him from the game after just nine plays and two completions in three attempts for 29 yards...Was inactive for the next three games...Did not play for two more games as Esiason won three consecutive contests...Was inserted back into the lineup with a healthy knee vs. Washington (12-15), rallying the Cardinals from deficits of 23-14 and 26-24 en route to 27-26 victory. Finished with 20 completions on 46 attempts for 232 yards and two touchdowns against the Redskins.

1995: Released by the Giants on August 31 at the conclusion of the preseason...Was signed by Detroit on September 5, two days after the opening of the regular season...Was inactive as the third quarterback for the Lions 15 remaining regular season games and their postseason loss at Philadelphia.

1994: Played in 13 games, including three at quarterback, with one start for the Giants...Served as holder on placements in other 11 games...Saw his first action of the season at quarterback at Dallas (11-7) when he relieved Dave Brown in the fourth quarter. Engineered the Giants only significant drive of the game at Dallas, a nine-play, 76-yard drive that culminated with a nine-yard touchdown pass to TE Howard Cross. Finished the game nine-of-14 passing for 98 yards, one touchdown and one interception...Received the starting assignment the following week vs. Arizona (11-13) and was nine of 26 for 92 yards, one touchdown and one interception in the Giants 10-9 loss to the Cardinals. On the opening drive vs. Arizona, Graham led the team 82 yards for a touchdown. Graham threw a key 15-yard pass to RB David Meggett on third down to put the Giants inside the Cardinals 20-yard line...Entered the game at Houston (11-21) after Brown left with a concussion in the second quarter. Finished the game with six completions on 13 attempts, including a 40-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Sherrard. Connected with Sherrard on a 55-yard pass to set up PK David Treadwell's 26-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Graham was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for his effort against the Oilers as the Giants broke a seven-game losing streak.

1993: Played in nine games, mainly as a holder...Appeared at QB at Chicago (9-5), vs. Dallas (11-7) and at Phoenix (11-28)...Finished the season with eight completions on 22 attempts for 79 yards...After serving as the No. 2 QB for the first 13 games of the season, rotated with Brown as the No. 2 QB behind Phil Simms for the final five weeks, including the two postseason games.

1992: Forced to start three games, replacing the injured Jeff Hostetler (concussion), who had taken on the starting job after Simms (elbow) was injured...Holder on placements late in the season...Saw action in six games, finishing his rookie season with a total of 42 completions in 97 attempts (43.3%) for 470 yards, one TD and four interceptions...Saw first NFL action at the Rams (10-18) in relief of Hostetler and was two of four for 39 yards and one interception...Relieved Hostetler again at Denver (11-15) and was two-of-two for 12 yards...When Hostetler suffered his concussion vs. Philadelphia (11-22), Graham came in and hit on 11-of-26 passes for 141 yards, one TD and one interception...First NFL start came on Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11-26), and Graham was 12-of-28 for 151 yards...Second start was vs. Washington (12-6) and resulted in effort of eight-of-16 for 73 yards...Third start was at Phoenix (12-12) and Graham hit on seven of 21 attempts for 54 yards with two interceptions...Carried the ball six times for 36 yards on the season with a long run of 15 yards vs. Philadelphia (11-22).

College: Started collegiate career at Notre Dame where he served as backup to Tony Rice and eventually transferred to Ohio State where he initially served as backup to Greg Frey before moving into starting role as a senior...Started 10 of 12 games for Buckeyes in 1991, missing the Washington State game with a concussion and the Hall of Fame Bowl game vs. Syracuse because of a bruised nerve in his left arm...Finished senior season with 79 completions in 153 attempts (51.6%) for 1,018 yards and four TDs...Also had 157 yards rushing on the option play...As a junior backup to Frey, Graham saw action in six games and was 15 of 26 passing for 195 yards and three TDs...During his two seasons at Notre Dame (1987-88), had one start as a freshman vs. Boston College and then saw action in 17 other games behind Rice.

Personal: Married (Courtney) with son Taylor and daughters Lauren, Cassidy and Dakota...One of the most sought-after high school QBs after graduating from Wheaton (Ill.) North HS...Kent Graham was born on November 1, 1968 in Wheaton, Illinois.

Conrad made his second career start and his first at cornerback when he lined up in place of the injured Jason Sehorn (knee) at right corner vs. Washington 9-6-98.

Transactions: Originally a seventh round (214th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Took over at the starting right cornerback position after the season-ending knee injury to Jason Sehorn and turned in a solid season in 1998...A significant contributor in his first two seasons as a member of the nickel and dime packages and on special teams...Has been used as a kickoff return man.

1998: Filled in at right cornerback after Jason Sehorn was lost for the year with a season-ending knee injury during the preseason...Started 15 of 16 games and finished second on the team (behind Jessie Armstead's 101 total tackles) with 91 total tackles (80 solos), one sack, one fumble recovery, a team-leading 17 passes defended and one interception...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Dallas (9-21) as the Giants opened in a special nickel package with Percy Ellsworth in the lineup...Made his second career start and his first at cornerback in the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6). During his rookie season in 1996, Hamilton was in the starting lineup at Detroit (10-27-96) when the Giants opened in the nickel defense. Led the team with nine total tackles (8 solos) with one interception and two passes defended against the Redskins. Early in the third quarter, Frerotte threw a pass that CB Phillippi Sparks dove for and batted into the air. Hamilton grabbed the deflected ball and returned it 17 yards down the left sideline before being forced out of bounds at the two-yard line. The turnover set up a two-yard touchdown run by FB Charles Way to give the Giants a 17-10 lead...Led the team with seven solo tackles at San Diego (9-27)...Play at Tampa Bay (10-4) helped hold the Buccaneers to just 59 net yards passing...Recovered RB Jamal Anderson's fumble vs. Atlanta (10-11) at the Falcons' 36-yard line following a forced fumble by LB Jessie Armstead in the first quarter...A strong blitz by Hamilton in the third quarter vs. Arizona (10-18) forced QB Jake Plummer out of the pocket and made him hurry a pass that was intercepted by Ellsworth to set up a Giants field goal...Broke up a third down pass from QB Troy Aikman to WR Michael Irvin in the first quarter at Dallas (11-8) to end a Cowboys drive deep in Giants territory. Tackled RB Adrian Murrell for no gain on four plays at Arizona (12-6): came up from his corner position to tackle Murrell for a three-yard loss on a run around the left end in the first quarter; combined with LB Marcus Buckley to stop Murrell at the line of scrimmage for no gain on a run in the second quarter; combined with LB Ryan Phillips to tackle Murrell for a four-yard loss late in the second quarter; tackled Murrell for no gain on a run in the third quarter...Finished with a career-high 10 solo tackles in the victory over Denver (12-13). Recorded his first NFL sack when he dropped QB John Elway for a five-yard loss on a third-and-seven play to end a Broncos drive in the second quarter. On the play proceeding the sack, Hamilton broke up an Elway pass intended to WR Rod Smith...In the season-finale at Philadelphia (12-27), made a big tackle on RB Duce Staley on a third-and-two run that stopped him short of the first down marker in the second quarter, forcing the Eagles to settle for a field goal. Tackled RB Corey Walker for a one-yard loss on a third-and-two run late in the fourth quarter that forced the Eagles to attempt a failed fourth down conversion from the Giants seven-yard line.

1997: Took over Thomas Randolph's spot in the nickel defense in the second half vs. Baltimore (9-14) and finished the season with 23 total tackles (21 solos), one interception, one forced fumble and 13 passes defended...Also added two special teams tackles...Was bothered by a knee injury following the Giants-Green Bay preseason game (8-22) and underwent arthroscopic surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery/Cornell Medical Center in New York City to repair a tear to the medial meniscus in his left knee on August 26....Missed the Philadelphia game (8-31) and the Jacksonville game (9-7) due to his injury...Made a key block during WR Amani Toomer's 44-yard punt return vs. New Orleans (9-28) that gave the Giants a first down at the Saints' 32-yard line to set up the Giants first touchdown...The Giants defense closed the gap to 14-8 in the fourth quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) as a strong pass rush by Hamilton led to a safety when QB Trent Dilfer was called for grounding the ball in the end zone...Broke up a QB Bobby Hoying pass intended to WR Freddie Solomon at Philadelphia (12-7) when the Eagles attempted to convert on fourth-and-seven from the Giants 37-yard line in the third quarter...Intercepted a QB Jeff Hostetler pass vs. Washington (12-13) that deflected off RB Brian Mitchell at the Redskins 30-yard line and returned it 18 yards to the 12 with under two minutes remaining in the first half. The turnover set up a PK Brad Daluiso 28-yard field goal and a 20-3 Giants lead at the end of the first half. Hamilton suffered bruises to his ribs and knee during the return but did return to the game later in the second half. Used in the nickel defense in the first half at Dallas (12-21) before spelling Jason Sehorn in the lineup when head coach Jim Fassel elected to go with the reserves in the second half.

1996: Finished his rookie campaign with 26 tackles (24 solos) and broke up three passes with one interception. Was second on the team with 12 special teams tackles...Took Amani Toomer's place as a kickoff returner after Toomer was lost for the season with a knee injury. Returned 19 kicks for 382 yards...The Giants started the game at Detroit (10-27) in the nickel defense with Hamilton in the starting lineup as the nickel back. Hamilton took over Thomas Randolph's nickel position because Randolph was forced into the starting lineup with the injury to Phillippi Sparks (foot)...Had five kickoff returns for 115 yards at Carolina (11-10). Named Special Teams Player of the Game for his returns and his coverage on the kickoff and punt teams...Helped pin the Cowboys deep in their own territory on their first possession (11-24) when he chased a Mike Horan punt and batted it back from the goal line, allowing Scott Galyon to down the ball at the two-yard line. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Recorded his first NFL interception when he picked off a QB Dan Marino pass at the 38-yard line in the third quarter at Miami (12-8). The turnover set up Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal to give the Giants a 17-7 lead.

College: Little All-America first-team pick by The Poor Man's Guide To The NFL Draft, Associated Press and Football Gazette...All-Lone Star Conference first-team choice following his senior season in 1995...Started every game, recording 71 tackles (24 solos) with three stops for losses of 10 yards...Blocked four kicks and caused a fumble...Deflected 13 passes and picked off two others...Closed out his career with eight tackles (six solos), three pass deflections, two kickoff returns for 42 yards and blocked a 26-yard field goal attempt and a punt that set up the game-winning touchdown in a 10-7 victory over West Texas A&M...Attended New Mexico Military Institute in 1992.

Personal: Married (Leah) with son Jordin and daughter Kaysia...All-State and All-District selection as a defensive back and tailback at Alamogordo (N.M.) HAMILTON TID BIT...

Was an outstanding Division I basketball prospect coming out of Heritage HS in Lynchburg, Va. where he averaged 26 ppg as a senior.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (99th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Moved from end to tackle before the start of the 1995 season after the Giants acquired DE Robert Harris from the Minnesota Vikings...In 1996 switched from left tackle to right tackle due to injuries along the defensive line in training camp...In 1993, stepped into the starting lineup at end before making the switch inside...Has displayed pass rushing ability during his career. Enters the 1999 season ranked eighth on the Giants all-time sack list with 41.5 sacks.

1998: Started all 16 games at right defensive tackle and finished the season with 47 total tackles (36 solos), seven sacks, one fumble recovery and four passes defended...Had two sacks and a fumble recovery in the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6). Following a 31-yard touchdown pass from Redskins QB Gus Frerotte to WR Michael Westbrook that was nullified by a holding call, consecutive sacks by DE Chad Bratzke and Hamilton pushed the Redskins back to their own 40-yard line and out of field goal range. Hamilton fought through the Redskins offensive line and dropped Frerotte for an 11-yard sack. He combined with Bratzke for a one-yard sack of Frerotte in the third quarter and combined with DT Robert Harris on a five-yard sack of QB Trent Green in the fourth quarter. In the third quarter, Hamilton recovered a loose football at the Redskins 22-yard line after DT Christian Peter forced Green to fumble on a nine-yard sack. The play helped set up a QB Danny Kanell touchdown pass for a commanding 31-17 lead heading into the final quarter...Deflected three Chargers passes at the line of scrimmage at San Diego (9-27). Tipped a QB Ryan Leaf pass that was intercepted by S Percy Ellsworth early in the second quarter...Finished with five total tackles, including two sacks, vs. Arizona (10-18). Sacked QB Jake Plummer for a six-yard loss late in the first quarter and dropped Plummer for a six-yard loss early in the third quarter. Was part of a defense that limited the Cardinals to just 62 yards on the ground. Awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals...Hamilton's bull-rush up the middle forced QB Jake Plummer to hurry a throw on fourth-and-three in the final minutes of the game at Arizona (12-6). The pass was knocked down by LB Corey Widmer in the end zone to help the Giants hold the lead.

1997: Part of a defensive line that helped limit opponents to 90.7 rushing yards per game, second lowest in the NFC...Registered his highest sack total since the 1993 season with eight sacks...Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at right defensive tackle...Finished with 57 total tackles (40 solos), eight sacks, two forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and three passes defended...Dropped QB Ty Detmer for a four-yard sack on a second-and-two play in the second quarter vs. Philadelphia (8-31). Also against the Eagles, recovered the ball for the Giants following a QB Rodney Peete fumble that was caused on a three-yard sack by DE Chad Bratzke. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball for its performance against Philadelphia...Put the Giants in position for their first touchdown when he forced QB Steve Matthews to fumble on a three-yard sack at Jacksonville (9-7), allowing LB Marcus Buckley to recover at the Jaguars 27-yard line. The Giants reached the four-yard line where RB Tiki Barber ran up the middle for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead...Concluded a strong defensive effort by the Giants in the first quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14), an effort that saw them stop the Ravens on three consecutive plays behind the line of scrimmage, with a 13-yard sack of QB Vinny Testaverde...Joined with LB Doug Colman to stop Rams RB Lawrence Phillips for no gain in the first quarter at St. Louis (9-21) when the Rams elected to go for the first down on fourth-and-one. Sacked Rams QB Tony Banks for a ten-yard loss early in the second quarter...Ended a Saints drive at the 45-yard line vs. New Orleans (9-28) when he recovered a QB Heath Shuler fumbled snap from center in the third quarter...Combined with DE Michael Strahan on an eight-yard sack of Cardinals QB Stoney Case at Arizona (10-12) in the fourth quarter...The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff at Detroit (10-19) after limiting Pro Bowl RB Barry Sanders to just 25 yards rushing in the second half after Sanders gained 80 yards in the first half...Combined with Bratzke on an eight-yard sack of QB Jeff Blake vs. Cincinnati (10-26) on a third down play to end a Bengals drive in the first quarter...Was ejected from the game in the second quarter vs. Arizona (11-16) for kicking Cardinals center Mike Devlin in retaliation to a cut block. Was replaced in the lineup by Ray Agnew...Forced Redskins QB Jeff Hostetler to fumble on a DE Michael Strahan one-yard sack, allowing DT Robert Harris to recover for the Giants at the 40-yard line at Washington (11-23). Combined with Harris on a nine-yard sack of Hostetler to put Washington in a third-and-19 situation late in the third quarter. Had a third down sack of Hostetler for a loss of five yards late in the fourth quarter. Stopped Redskins RB Terry Allen for no gain on a fourth-and-one attempt from the Giants 41-yard line in the overtime period...Finished with a one-yard sack of Eagles QB Bobby Hoyer and half of a sack when he teamed with LB Jessie Armstead in the first quarter at Philadelphia (12-7). Also recovered a fumble for the Giants following a sack and forced fumble by LB Scott Galyon in the second quarter...Defensive line held the Redskins to just 45 yards on the ground and no first downs rushing vs. Washington (12-13). Teamed with LB Corey Widmer to stop Redskins RB Larry Bowie for no gain when the Redskins elected to go for the first down on fourth-and-one from the Giants 22-yard line in the fourth quarter...Sacked QB Randall Cunningham for a seven-yard loss in the second quarter vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game.

1996: Had 37 tackles (31 solos), including three sacks, as he made the move from left tackle to right tackle...Had a season-high eight tackles (six solos) vs. Washington (9-15), including a sack of QB Gus Frerotte on a third-and-long late in the first quarter...Injured his left knee at Washington (10-20) and underwent arthroscopic surgery on October 22 to remove torn cartilage. Returned to action vs. Arizona (11-3) just 12 days after surgery. Missed the Detroit (10-27) game due to his injury...Suffered a compound dislocation of his left thumb in the first quarter at Carolina (11-10). Had a corrective procedure to repair the tendon immediately after the game at Charlotte Memorial Hospital...Played with protective padding on his thumb at Arizona (11-17) and showed no signs of any problems...Led the defensive line with four solo tackles, including a six-yard sack of QB Dan Marino on a second down play in the third quarter to force the Dolphins into a third-and-12 situation at Miami (12-8). On the next play, Conrad Hamilton intercepted Marino to help set up a Giants field goal...Sprained his right shoulder in the second half vs. New Orleans (12-15) and was not able to play in the season-finale against New England (12-21).

1995: Successfully switched from end to tackle and started 14 games, finishing with 42 tackles, including two sacks, three fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and four passes defended...At Kansas City (9-10), Hamilton chugged 87 yards with a Steve Bono fumble that was caused by a five-yard sack by Robert Harris at the Giants five-yard line. Hamilton was stripped of the ball at the Kansas City one-yard line and S Tito Wooten recovered for the touchdown to give the Giants a 17-3 lead...Recovered a fumble at the 30-yard line after Michael Strahan sacked and stripped Dave Krieg of the ball vs. Arizona (10-8). In overtime, Mike Croel forced Krieg to fumble on a sack and Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 38-yard line...Recorded his first sack since 12-11-94 vs. Cincinnati when he dropped Rick Mirer for a three-yard loss early in the first quarter at Seattle (11-5)...Missed the Chicago game (11-26) and Arizona game (11-30) due to a bulging lumbar disc that he suffered at Philadelphia (11-19)...Returned to the starting lineup at Washington (12-10) and dropped QB Heath Shuler for an eight-yard sack.

VETERAN PLAYERS

1994: Started 15 games...Was inactive at Washington (11-27) due to a sore knee...His 6.5 sacks on the season tied for team-lead with DT Erik Howard...Recorded the fourth two-sack game of his career at Arizona (9-11) and was awarded a game ball for his performance...Recovered a fumble vs. Pittsburgh (10-23) at the Steelers 26-yard line that set up PK Brad Daluiso's 49-yard FG...Also recovered a fumble at Cleveland (12-4) on the Browns 17-yard line to put the Giants in position for a FG in their 16-13 victory.

1993: Led team and tied for 6th in the NFC with 11.5 sacks...Finished with 51 total tackles...Had four games of two or more sacks: 3 vs. Tampa Bay (9-12), 2 at Dallas (11-7), 2 vs. Dallas (1-2) and 2 vs. Minnesota (1-9) in the NFC Wild Card game...Was the Giants Defensive MVP in victories vs. Phoenix (11-28), at Miami (12-5) and at New Orleans (12-20)...Awarded game balls for efforts vs. Tampa Bay (9-12) and at Miami (12-5)...Recorded a safety in Miami game when he sacked Dolphins QB Steve DeBerg in the end zone to give the Giants a 19-7 advantage with 5:19 left in the game.

1992: Played in all 16 games, finishing with 3.5 quarterback sacks...Played primarily in passing situations...Recorded a sack vs. Seattle (10-25) and at Phoenix (12-12)...Had 1.5 sacks vs. Philadelphia (11-22)...Also had three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and a pass defended on the season.

College: Primarily an outside speed rusher at Pitt where he compiled 95 tackles, 27.5 sacks, four fumble recoveries, and nine passes defended in his three-year career...Slowed by a knee injury during the latter part of his final collegiate season but still managed to earn All-Big East and All-East honors as he recorded 33 tackles, including 10 for losses, eight sacks, and five passes defended...Started at left end as a sophomore and was named to sophomore All-America and All-East teams with 52 tackles, 18 for losses, and a team high 10.5 sacks...Started 10 games as a freshman in 1989 and had nine sacks and 14 tackles for losses and was named Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

Enjoys reading the Bible and spending time with family and friends when he is away from football. Would like to get into the franchise restaurant business in the near future.

Transactions: Originally a second round (39th pick overall) draft choice by Minnesota in 1992. Signed by the Giants as a restricted free agent from Minnesota on March 20, 1995.

NFL: Became the first Giants defensive tackle ever to produce a double-digit sack total when he finished the 1997 season with 10...Moved from end to tackle during training camp in 1996...Stepped into the starting role for the first time in 1995 after spending three seasons as a reserve defensive lineman with the Minnesota Vikings...In three years with the Vikings, Harris played in 34 games with one start.

1998: A pectoral strain and a calf strain limited Harris to ten starts...Totaled 35 tackles (21 solos), 3.5 sacks and one forced fumble...Missed three games due to the pectoral strain (at San Diego, 9-27; at Tampa Bay, 10-4; and vs. Atlanta, 10-11). Missed the last three games of the season (vs. Denver, 12-13; vs. Kansas City, 12-20; and at Philadelphia, 12-27) due to a left calf strain that forced him to leave the game at Arizona (12-6) early in the first quarter...Hit RB Jon Ritchie after a short pass reception in the third quarter at Oakland (9-13) and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Marcus Buckley for the Giants at the Raiders 15-yard line, setting up PK Brad Daluiso's 43-yard field goal that tied the game, 17-17...Returned to the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10-18) after missing three games with the pectoral strain and tied a career single-game high with two sacks. He also had two sacks at Detroit (10-19-97). Dropped QB Jake Plummer for a seven-yard loss on a sack in the third quarter. Sacked Plummer for a five-yard loss later in the third quarter. Awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Cardinals.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game and had his best statistical season to date with 60 total tackles (38 solos), including a single-season career-high mark of 10 sacks...Also added one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries...With his 10 sacks and DE Michael Strahan's 14 sacks, the Giants finished with two players with double-digit sack totals for the first time since 1986 when LB Lawrence Taylor had 20.5 and DE Leonard Marshall finished with 12...Combined with Strahan on a five-yard sack of Eagles QB Ty Detmer on third-and-seven vs. Philadelphia (8-31) to end an Eagles drive in the third quarter. Sacked backup QB Rodney Peete for a three-yard loss on the Eagles first offensive drive in the fourth quarter. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff for its performance against the Eagles...Dropped QB Tony Banks for a six-yard sack at St. Louis (9-21)...Had a seven-yard sack of QB Troy Aikman vs. Dallas (10-5) on a third down play in the fourth quarter that pinned the Cowboys at their own 12-yard line. The Giants fielded the ensuing punt and returned it 37 yards to the Dallas 33-yard line, setting up a drive that ended with FB Charles Way's three-yard touchdown run for a 20-9 lead...Helped put the Giants in position for a score in the third quarter at Arizona (10-12) when he forced Cardinals QB Stoney Case to fumble on a sack that DE Chad Bratzke recovered for the Giants at their own 36-yard line. Play helped hold the Cardinals to just 27 yards rushing...Finished with five total tackles (three solos), two sacks and a fumble recovery at Detroit (10-19). Had a ten-yard sack of QB Scott Mitchell on a third down play to end the Lions first drive of the game. Recorded his second sack when he dropped Mitchell in the fourth quarter for a six-yard loss. Ended a Lions drive at the Giants 28-yard line in the first quarter when he recovered the loose football after Mitchell fumbled the snap from center. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball for holding Pro Bowl RB Barry Sanders to just 25 yards in the second half after surrendering 80 yards in the first half...Led the team with 10 total tackles (6 solos) at Tennessee (11-9)...Combined on two of the Giants eight sacks of QB Jake Plummer vs. Arizona (11-16). Joined with Strahan on two one-yard sacks of Plummer...Recovered QB Jeff Hostetler's fumble following a hit by DT Keith Hamilton in overtime at Washington (11-23) to give the Giants the ball at their own 40-yard line. Combined with Hamilton on a nine-yard sack of Hostetler to put the Redskins in a third-and-19 situation in the third quarter...Play of the defensive line vs. Washington (12-13) helped hold the Redskins to just 45 yards rushing. Sacked Hostetler for a six-yard loss in the second quarter to put Washington in a third-and-13 situation...On the first play of the game at Dallas (12-21), sacked Aikman for an eight-yard loss. Followed up the sack by stopping RB Emmitt Smith dead in his tracks for no gain on the game's second play.

1996: Made a successful move from end to left tackle and recorded 45 tackles (27 solos) and finished third on the team with 4.5 sacks. Also broke up four passes and forced a fumble...Helped the Giants defense set the tone early vs. Buffalo (9-1) when he sacked QB Jim Kelly and forced him to fumble the ball on the game's third play from scrimmage...Named Defensive MVP by the coaching staff vs. Minnesota (9-29). Finished the game with four tackles (two solos). Had three tackles (two solos), including one sack in the Giants victory over Dallas (11-24)...Combined with Ray Agnew to drop Patriots QB Drew Bledsoe for a ten-yard loss in the third quarter vs. New England (12-21).

1995: In his first season as a regular, started 15 games at left end after arriving from Minnesota as a restricted free agent...Had a career-high 5.0 sacks...Had a total of 41 tackles, along with two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and one pass defended...At Kansas City (9-10), forced QB Steve Bono to fumble on a five-yard sack. Keith Hamilton recovered the ball and raced 87 yards before being stripped of the ball at the one-yard line. S. Tito Wooten recovered the ball in the end zone to give the Giants a 17-3 lead with 10:56 left in regulation...Sacked QB Gus Frerotte for a nine-yard loss in the second quarter on a third down play that forced the Redskins to punt at Washington (10-29)...Recovered a Ricky Watters fumble on the Eagles opening drive at the Giants 40-yard line at Philadelphia (11-19). The Giants converted the turnover into a 46-yard touchdown pass for an early 7-0 lead...De-activated with a shoulder injury vs. San Diego (12-23).

1994: Received his first NFL start in the season-finale against San Francisco (12-26)...Also started at left end in Minnesota's 35-18 loss to Chicago in the NFC playoffs...Recorded 13 tackles and two sacks in 11 games for the Vikings.

1993: Played in all 16 games and one playoff game in 1993, primarily rotating at left end with Roy Barker...Had his only sack of the season and the first of his NFL career vs. Tampa Bay (10-10)...Also saw action in goal line situations and on field goal and extra point block teams.

1992: Played in seven regular-season games...In his first NFL game action vs. Cincinnati (9-27) suffered a knee injury which forced him onto injured reserve...Was re-activated on November 11...Played in the Vikings last five regular season games and the playoff game.

College: A two-year starter for Southern University, Harris finished his college career with 158 tackles, 17 sacks, two fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles...In his final game with the Jaguars, he had five tackles, three sacks and four stops for losses in a 31-10 decision over Grambling in the Bayou Classic...Played in every game as a junior in 1990 and recorded 61 tackles (23 solo) with five sacks for 80 yards in losses, recovered two fumbles and caused another....Participated in the Senior Bowl.

He was nicknamed "Throwback" by head coach Jim Fassel for his work ethic and hustle in training camp as a rookie. His college coach at Florida, Steve Spurrier, called him "Everyday Guy" for the same reasons.

Transactions: Originally a first round (7th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Made a full recovery from successful posterior spine stabilization surgery after suffering a neck injury in the second game of his rookie season...Reported to training camp on time and earned a starting position at wide receiver coming out of his first NFL camp in 1997.

1998: Returned to the starting lineup at wide receiver after a full recovery from a season-ending neck injury his rookie season...Started all 16 games, finishing with 51 receptions for 715 yards and two touchdowns...Also had one rushing attempt that gained four yards on a reverse vs. Philadelphia (11-22)...On a busted play vs. Washington (9-6) in the season-opener, Hilliard broke free down the left side line and hooked up with QB Danny Kanell for a 45-yard gain to the Redskins 21-yard line at the two-minute warning. The play helped get the Giants in position for a game-tying touchdown before the end of the first half...Led the team with eight receptions for 78 yards, including a touchdown catch for his first NFL touchdown receptions at Oakland (9-13)...Drew a pass interference penalty on CB Aeneas Williams vs. Arizona (10-18) to give the Giants a first down at the one-yard line early in the second quarter. The Giants scored on the next play to take a 14-0 lead...The Giants only productive offensive drive at Washington (11-1) came late in the third quarter on a play that was built around a deep pass from Kanell to Hilliard. The play resulted in a 46-yard gain against CB Darrell Green and a Giants first down at the Redskins 24-yard line. Two plays later, he put the moves on Green again to get in position for an 11-yard touchdown reception from Kanell to cut the Redskins lead to 21-14...Became the only Giants receiver in 1998 to reach 100 yards receiving, finishing with six receptions for 141 yards at San Francisco (11-30), Hilliard's first NFL 100-yard receiving game. Had the two longest receptions of his career against the 49ers with catches of 48 and 50 yards. Set up the Giants only score with a 48-yard reception...Caught a pass from Graham in the end zone in the third quarter at Philadelphia (12-27), but the ball deflected off his hands and into WR Chris Calloway's hands for a touchdown that put the Giants in front, 13-10.

1997: One of five rookies (Hilliard, RB Tiki Barber, C Derek Engler, S Sam Garnes and P Brad Maynard) in the starting lineup on opening day vs. Philadelphia (8-31). The last time that a first round draft choice was in the starting lineup for his first Giants game was in 1982 when RB Butch Woolfolk started. Made a fabulous 19-yard catch on third-and-17 to give the Giants a first down at the Eagles 22-yard line. Hilliard came streaking across the middle, made the catch and managed to hold onto the ball despite a big hit by Eagles S Tim Watson...Made a 23-yard sliding reception from QB Dave Brown at Jacksonville (9-7) to give the Giants a first down at the four-yard line and set up a Barber four-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Hilliard was forced to leave the game after a hit by Jaguars S Chris Hudson on the reception. He was diagnosed with a sprained interspinous ligament between the sixth and seventh vertebrae. Underwent successful posterior spine stabilization surgery on September 16 at The Hospital for Special Surgery/Cornell Medical Center. The procedure fused the sixth and seventh vertebrae...Placed on injured reserve for the remainder of the year on September 30...Started two games and finished with two receptions for 42 yards.

College: Tied with Reidel Anthony (1994-96), 1997 first round draft choice by Tampa Bay, for seventh on the school's career-record list with 126 catches...Only Carlos Alvarez (2,563, 1969-71), Jack Jackson (2,266, 1992-94) and Anthony (2,274) gained more yards receiving in Gator annals than Hilliard's 2,214...His 29 touchdown grabs tied Jackson for second on Florida's all-time record chart behind Chris Doering (31, 1992-95)...First-team All-Southeastern Conference choice as a junior in 1996 after finishing second on the team with 47 receptions for 900 yards (19.1 avg.) and 10 touchdowns...Torched the Seminoles' secondary as he hauled in 7 passes for 150 yards with touchdowns of 9, 31 and 8 yards in a 52-20 thrashing of Florida State as the Gators won the national championship...All-American second-team choice by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft as a sophomore in 1995...Shared team Outstanding Wide Receiver Award honors with Chris Doering after finishing second on the team with 57 receptions for 1008 yards (17.7 avg.) and 15 touchdowns...His 57 grabs rank eighth on the team's season-record list and joined Doering (1,045 in 1995), Carlos Alvarez (1,329 in 1969) and Reidel Anthony (1,293 in 1996) as the only Gators to ever gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season...Only Doering (17 in 1995) and Anthony (18 in 1996) had more touchdown catches in school annals...SEC All-Freshman Team choice by the Knoxville News-Sentinel in 1994...Appeared in 11 games, catching 22 passes for 306 yards (13.9 avg.) and four touchdowns.

Personal: Blue Chip Illustrated All-American second-team selection, adding All-District and Most Valuable Player honors during his senior year at Patterson High School (La.)...Rated the Southeast's top free safety prospect by Blue Chip...Also lettered as a wingback, quarterback and split end...Rushed for 737 yards with 12 touchdowns on 101 carries (7.1 avg.), caught 20 passes for 310 yards and a pair of scores and recorded 43 tackles with five interceptions as a senior...Gained 1300 all-purpose yards as a junior...Holds the school's career record with 16 pass thefts...Sociology major at Florida...Uncle, Dalton Hilliard, was a standout tailback at Louisiana State in the 1980s before playing several years with the New Orleans Saints...Brother, Ivory, Jr., was a defensive back at Louisiana State...Son of Doris and Ivory Hilliard, Sr....Born Isaac Jason Hilliard on 4/5/76...Hometown is Patterson, Louisiana.

1998: Placed on the Reserve/Non-Football Illness list on July 25 after being diagnosed with lymphoma during the Giants veteran mini-camp in May...Spent the year in the New York/New Jersey area undergoing treatment for his illness.

1997: Played in 14 games and finished the season with 81 yards rushing on 23 attempts...Missed the final two games of the season with a pulled hamstring suffered vs. Washington (12-7)...Saw increased action vs. Minnesota (10-5) due to an injury to Larry Centers (knee) and rushed for 21 yards on eight attempts...Carried the ball for a season-long 11 yards vs. the Giants (10-12)...Came up with 23 yards on seven rushing tries and rambled 26 yards on a handoff from Kevin Williams on a second quarter kickoff return at Philadelphia (10-19).

1996: Played in 15 games with eight starting assignments and finished with 634 rushing yards on 141 attempts with three touchdowns, including a 70-yard touchdown run at New Orleans (9-22)...Also added 176 yards receiving on 15 receptions with one touchdown...Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week at New Orleans (9-22) with 214 yards rushing on 21 attempts to propel the Cardinals to a 28-14 victory. The 214-yard effort was only the second 200-yard day in Cardinals history (John David Crow, 203, Dec. 18, 1960 vs. Pittsburgh). Carried the ball five times for 25 yards in the first half, 11 totes for 60 yards in the third quarter, then popped touchdown runs of 56 and 70 yards on back-to-back carries in the fourth quarter. The runs are believed to be the longest touchdown jaunts on consecutive carries in NFL history...After his performance at New Orleans, started the following week vs. St. Louis (9-29) and broke open a tight game with a 66-yard run to the Rams eight-yard line in overtime to set the table for the game-winning field goal in the Cardinals 31-28 victory. Concluded the day with 97 yards rushing on 12 attempts and six pass receptions for 55 yards, including his first receiving touchdown, a two-yard touchdown pass from QB Kent Graham...Gained 85 yards on 12 carries vs. the Jets (10-27)...Also returned 10 kickoffs for 198 yards in final three games.

1995: Started the season with Green Bay and was listed on the physically unable to perform list following offseason reconstructive knee surgery. Played in two contests with the Packers (weeks eight-nine) before being released by the Packers...Saw action in the final three games after being claimed off waivers by the Cardinals...Contributed immediately with three kickoff returns for 56 yards at San Francisco (12-9)...Returned the opening kickoff at Philadelphia (12-17) 70 yards. Finished the day with three returns for 117 yards for a 39-yard average...Returned five kickoffs for 86 yards in season-finale vs. Dallas (12-25).

1994: Played in 12 games as a rookie with Green Bay and posted 99 yards rushing on 26 attempts and caught 13 passes for 168 yards...Rookie season ended when he suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee in practice on December 27...Was placed on the injured reserve list January 3 and missed the Packers 1994 playoff run...Saw his first NFL action vs. Miami (9-11) when he caught a swing pass and burst down the sideline for 33 yards...A toe sprain vs. Detroit (11-6) relegated him to inactive status the next three games...Was slowed in training camp after aggravating a hamstring injury during a July intrasquad scrimmage...Missed the first three preseason games.

College: Led the nation in rushing with 1,976 yards on 327 carries (6.0 yard average) as a senior in 1993...Earned unanimous All-America notice...Finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting...Had five 200-yard games and two 300-yard efforts...Set school record with 322 yards rushing, including touchdown runs of 92, 60 and 60 yards against Southern Illinois...Over his two-year career with the Huskies, averaged 150.5 yards rushing per game, the fourth-highest total in college football history behind Ed Marinaro of Cornell (174.6, 1969-71), O.J. Simpson of Southern California (164.4, 1967-68) and Herschel Walker of Georgia (159.4, 1980-82)...Began collegiate career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College.

Personal: Married (Michelle Nalani) with son Clayton...All-Oklahoma most valuable player as a senior at Haskell High School...Ran for 1,154 yards and 12 touchdowns on 104 carries for an impressive 11.1-yard average per carry...Raises American pit bull dogs and at one time had more than 10 dogs...Father Luther was a professional bull rider who now raises horses on the family ranch (Five Bar Ranch) in Tulsa, Oklahoma...Began riding bulls at age 8, continuing until his sophomore year...Owns a degree in studio art from Northern Illinois...Born on January 15, 1971 in Haskell, Oklahoma.

When Jones was 11, he played organized football for the first time as an RB and DE for a team called the Baby Vikings. He so thoroughly dominated his first game that the opposing coach pulled his team off the field.

Transactions: Originally a first round (5th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Playing time increased as a backup at defensive end in 1998...Slowed by injuries during his second NFL season in 1997 but showed potential as a starter in two games when Chad Bratzke (knee/leg) was forced out due to injury late in the season...A training camp holdout and injuries combined to limit Jones' impact in his first NFL season...Has seen the majority of his playing time in short yardage and goal line situations in his first three NFL seasons.

1998: Played in all 16 games with one starting assignment and finished the season with 18 total tackles (14 solos), four sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery...Saw extensive action in the goal line defense and as a member of the field goal and extra point unit...Had a career-high with the 4.0 sacks...Registered his first career NFL sack when he dropped QB Craig Whelihan for a 15-yard loss on a fourth-and-seven play in the fourth quarter at San Diego (9-27). Jones forced a fumble on the play, but the Chargers managed to recover...Filled in at right end in place of Chad Bratzke in the second quarter vs. Atlanta (10-11) when Bratzke left for a series with a sprained ankle...Finished with a personal-best 2.0 sacks at Washington (11-1) when he saw extensive time at right end after Michael Strahan departed with a back injury after just two plays. Entered the Redskins game at right end with Chad Bratzke moving from right end to the left side when Strahan left. Dropped Redskins QB Trent Green for a seven-yard sack on a second down play in the third quarter and sacked Green for another seven-yard loss in the third quarter...Made his only start of the season the next week at Dallas (11-8) when he replaced Strahan at left end due to his lower back injury. Strahan did manage to see significant action in the Giants defense against the Cowboys...Sacked QB Jake Plummer in the third quarter at Arizona (12-6), causing a fumble that he recovered at the Cardinals 36-yard line to set up the Giants go-ahead touchdown.

1997: Limited to just nine games due to a sprained knee early in the year and a left leg injury that required surgery late in the season...Finished with nine solo tackles...Replaced starter Chad Bratzke at right end following Bratzke's knee/leg injury at Tennessee (11-9). Started vs. Arizona (11-16) and at Washington (11-23). Left the Redskins game in the second quarter with a severe bone bruise to the femur, as well as some loose bone. Underwent arthroscopic surgery on December 2 to treat the defect and was placed on injured reserve on December 11...Left the season-opener against Philadelphia (8-31) in the second quarter with a sprained left knee following a chop block by Eagles G Joe Panos and missed the game at Jacksonville (9-7) and vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Returned to action at St. Louis (9-21) and recorded his first tackle of the season when he stopped Rams FB Craig Heyward short of the first down on a second-and-three play in the second quarter...Injured his left knee during Wednesday practice prior to the game at Arizona (10-12) and was inactive against the Cardinals...Returned to action the following week at Detroit (10-19)...Replaced Bratzke when he left with his knee injury in the fourth quarter against the Oilers. Stopped QB Steve McNair at the line of scrimmage on a quarterback scramble up the middle. McNair fumbled on the play but was able to recover the loose football. Later in the game, penetrated through the Oilers offensive line and tackled RB Eddie George for a one-yard loss.

1996: Rookie production was limited by hamstring and eye problems and the development of Chad Bratzke...Finished with 12 tackles (six solos) as a backup at right end...Had his first tackle at Dallas (9-8)...Played the entire final drive at left end in place of Michael Strahan, who bruised his ribs at Washington (10-20)...Saw most of the action at right end in place of Bratzke during the fourth quarter at Arizona (11-17).

College: Holds the Oklahoma all-time record with 31.5 quarterback sacks, topping the previous mark of 24 by Scott Evans (1987-90)...All-American Dream Team choice by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft after senior season in 1995...Rated the top defensive lineman in the country by that publication...All-Big Eight Conference first-team selection...Lined up at right defensive end in nine games, missing the Missouri and Kansas State contests with a knee injury...Recorded 48 tackles (21 solos) with 11 sacks for minus-77 yards and six stops for losses of 27 yards...All-Big Eight Conference first-team choice as a junior in 1994...Manned the right defensive end position as he recorded 86 tackles (52 solos) with 14 sacks for minus 85 yards and six stops for 12-yards in losses...Had 14 quarterback pressures and a pair of forced fumbles...Freshman All-American first-team pick by Football News in 1992...Played in every game, starting three contests...Recorded 33 tackles (20 solos) with 3.5 sacks for minus-20 yards and two stops for six yards in losses.

Personal: All-American selection and rated the seventh-best defensive lineman in the nation by Super Prep magazine at Lamar (Houston, Tex.) High...Chosen Defensive Player of the Year by the Houston Touchdown Club and Houston Post...Recorded 112 tackles with 30 sacks as a senior...Sociology major...4.67 in the 40-yard dash...Son of Annette Jones...Born April 30, 1974 in Houston, Texas.

JUREVICIUS TID BIT...

Joe's right bicep bears a tattoo of the Lithuanian national symbol in honor of his family's heritage.

Transactions: Originally a second round (55th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Production in the Giants offense started to increase as the season went on...Used in some three and four wide out sets and at receiver in the double-tight end formation...With a year's experience and an entire offseason in the Giants system, should play a larger role in the Giants offense.

1998: Played in 14 games with one starting assignment and finished with nine receptions for 146 yards, with a season-long 59-yard reception vs. Philadelphia (11-22)...Inactive for two games(vs. Kansas City, 12-20, and at Philadelphia, 12-27) after spraining his knee vs. Denver (12-23)...Was in the starting lineup in a special three wide receiver formation vs. Washington in the season-opener. Caught a shotgun pass from QB Danny Kanell for a 22-yard gain before being pushed out of bounds at the Giants 40-yard line in the second quarter...Caught a 17-yard pass from Kanell in the second quarter at Dallas (11-8) that gave the Giants a first down at the Cowboys one-yard line. The Giants failed to take advantage of the key field position and were forced to settle for a field goal to tie the game at 6-6...Caught a 59-yard pass from QB Kent Graham vs. Philadelphia (11-22) when he out-muscled Eagles defensive back Tim McTyer. Tripped after the reception with a clear path to the end zone in what would have been a 79-yard touchdown pass. Finished with two receptions for a team-leading 65 yards against the Eagles...Caught three passes for 32 yards on third down plays vs. Denver (12-13) to give the Giants first downs. Caught two third down passes for first downs during the Giants go-ahead touchdown drive at the end of the first half. Caught a six-yard pass from Graham on third-and-two and then turned a short pass into a 15-yard gain to convert a third-and-nine situation that gave the Giants a first down at the Denver 23-yard line at the two-minute mark. Sprained his knee on the play but did return to the game when David Patten injured his knee during the last kickoff of the game. Was in the locker room out of uniform getting his knee treated when Patten went own. Jurevicius got back into uniform so the Giants could use a four wide receiver package as part of the two-minute offense. Minutes after returning to the field he caught an 11-yard pass from Graham on third-and-ten to give the Giants a first down at the Denver 37-yard line to set up Graham's game-winning touchdown pass to WR Amani Toomer with just 48 seconds to play.

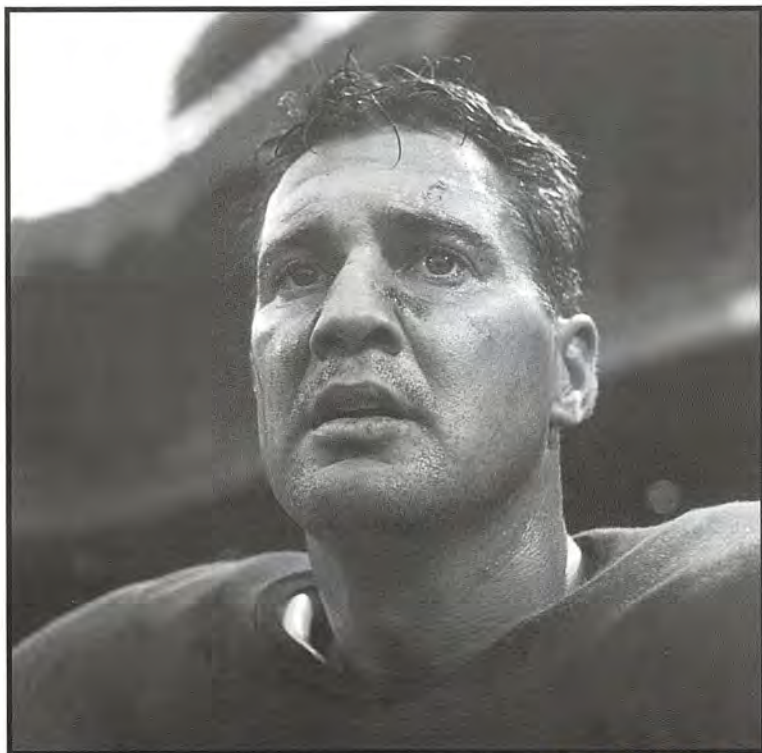

College: Ranks sixth on the school's career-record list with 94 receptions, fourth with 1894 yards and fourth with 15 touchdowns...As a senior in 1997, was Second-team All-American selection by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, All-Big Ten Conference second-team choice and semi-finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver...Started all year at split end, leading the team with 39 catches for 817 yards (20.9 avg) and 10 touchdowns...Only Bobby Engram (11 in 1995 and 13 in 1993) had more scoring receptions in a season for the Lions...His 817 yards rank eighth on PSU's annual record chart...Gained over 100 yards receiving four times...Started 10 games at split end, leading the team with a career-high 41 catches (21.2 avg), good for 869 yards (sixth-best season total in school history) and four touchdowns as a junior in 1996...Played behind Bobby Engram at split end, catching 13 passes for 199 yards (15.3 avg) and a touchdown as a sophomore in 1995...Appeared in 10 games as a reserve split end and shared punting duties with Darrell Kania as a redshirt freshman in 1994...Punted 15 times for 553 yards (36.9 avg)...Redshirted as a freshman in 1993.

Personal: Single...Parade, Super Prep, Scholastic Coach All-American, three-time All-State, All-Metro, All-City and All-North Coast Conference selection, adding Ohio Division III Player of the Year honors at Mentor Lake Catholic (Oh.) High...Led the team to two state titles...Averaged over 40 yards per punt, gained 2600 yards with 37 touchdowns receiving and also played in the secondary...Three-year starter as a point guard on the basketball team..Born Joe Michael Jurevicius on December 23, 1974 in Cleveland, Ohio.

Has started the Lincoln Foundation, which provides free football camps and holds food drives in Toledo, Oh. Has also hosted an NFL radio talk show in Michigan.

Transactions: Originally a third round (80th pick overall) draft choice by Chicago in 1992. Waived by Chicago on August 20, 1996. Signed by St. Louis as a free agent on September 5, 1996. Waived by St. Louis on February 24, 1997. Signed by Seattle as a free agent on June 4, 1997. Signed by Giants as a free agent on June 15, 1998.

NFL: Veteran cornerback who has started 40 games in his NFL career.

1998: Played in all 16 games including one start... Predominately used on special teams and saw limited action in nickel defense situation... Most significant action on the nickel defense came at Arizona (12-6) when head coach Jim Fassel de-activated CB Carlton Gray for disciplinary reasons. Responded by intercepting a QB Jake Plummer pass in the end zone late in the third quarter to enable the Giants to hold their 20-17 lead and eventual 23-17 victory... Tackled Deion Sander for no gain on a punt return in the first quarter to force the Cowboys to begin a drive at their own 16-yard line. Only action was on special teams and finished with two solo special team tackles vs. Dallas (9-21)... With injuries to CB Phillippi Sparks (shoulder), S Sam Games (foot) and S Shaun Williams (hamstring) was pressed into action as part of the nickel defense vs. Atlanta (10-11). Came in for Carlton Gray at cornerback in the second quarter when Gray left with leg cramps for a series. Finished game with two solo tackles... Made first start as a member of the Giants due to injuries and the Giants starting the game in the nickel defense. Finished with one solo tackle and two passes defended. Broke up a third down pass from QB Jake Plummer intended for WR Rob Moore to end a Cardinals drive in the first quarter vs. Arizona (10-18)... With Carlton Gray pressed into the starting line with the neck injury to Phillippi Sparks, took over Gray's duties in the nickel defense and finished with one assisted tackle in the season finale at Philadelphia (12-27).

1997: Used as the third cornerback and on special teams for Seattle... Played in 12 games with three starts and finished the year with 19 tackles (17 solos) and three passes defended... Replaced Shawn Springs (thumb) in the starting lineup at San Diego (11-9), at New Orleans (11-16) and vs. Kansas City (11-23)... Injured his ankle in the Kansas City game and was inactive vs. Atlanta (11-30)... Returned to action at Baltimore (12-7) but re-injured the ankle and was inactive for the final two games of the year.

1996: Signed with St. Louis on September 5 after being waived by the Bears during training camp... Played in 13 games with one start... Finished with 14 total tackles (11 solos) and one interception vs. Atlanta (11-10).

1995: Started 14 of 16 games for Chicago and finished the year with a single-season career-high of 73 tackles... Had a 32-yard interception return at Tampa Bay (9-17)... Recorded his first career sack vs. Pittsburgh (11-5)... Had career-high eight tackles (7 solo) vs. Philadelphia (12-24).

1994: Started 14 games and finished with 47 total tackles (34 solos), one interception and nine passes defended... Had a season-high five solo tackles at Philadelphia (9-12)... Forced a fumble and had four solo stops vs. Minnesota (9-18)... Suffered a dislocated right shoulder in the second quarter at Tampa Bay (11-6) and was inactive at Miami (11-13)... Returned to the field vs. Detroit (11-20) with four tackles... Grabbed a third quarter interception in the postseason win at Minnesota (1-1-95).

Would spend summer afternoons punting, often kicking 200 balls a day, while in high school. In college he worked under kicking coach Bill Reynolds, an 86-year old expert who published a book on the art of punting.

Transactions: Originally a third round (95th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two third round selections by the Giants, in 1997.

NFL: Turned in a fine sophomore season that warranted Pro Bowl consideration as he improved his accuracy and consistency...Set a Giants record and an NFL rookie record with 111 punts during the regular season in 1997...One of the finest long-distance punters in the annals of collegiate football, drawing comparisons to Ray Guy (Oakland Raiders, 1973-86)...Also used as holder on place kicks.

1998: Played in all 16 games and finished fifth in the NFL and second in the NFC with a gross average of 45.2. His net average of 37.8 was sixth in the NFL. His 101 punts were second in the league and his 33 punts inside the 20 tied for second in the NFL...The 4,566 punting yards established a Giants record, breaking the old mark of 4,531 that Maynard set in 1997...Also used as the holder on field goals and extra points...Following a Maynard punt that pinned the Redskins at their own five-yard line in the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6), CB Conrad Hamilton intercepted a QB Gus Frerotte pass and returned it 17 yards to the two-yard line to set up a Giants touchdown for a 17-10 lead...Landed five punts inside the 20-yard line at Oakland (9-13). The Raiders began drives at their own 17-, four-, six- and 14-yard line following Maynard punts...Punting from his own 27-yard line in the third quarter at San Diego (9-27), Maynard nailed a 61-yard punt that sailed out of bounds at the Chargers 12-yard line. Three plays later, San Diego QB Ryan Leaf was under heavy pressure and threw an interception to S Percy Ellsworth that was returned 20 yards for a touchdown and a 28-9 Giants lead. Also hit a 58-yard punt in the second quarter. Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Chargers...A 44-yard field goal attempt by PK Brad Daluiso was aborted in the third quarter at Tampa Bay (10-4) when Maynard did not get a good hold on the snap from center and was forced to attempt a pass to TE Howard Cross that fell incomplete...Punting from his own 14-yard line in the first quarter vs. Arizona (10-18), Maynard got off a 59-yard punt that pinned the Cardinals at their own 29-yard line. In the second quarter, his punt took a good bounce and rolled to the Cardinals 19-yard line for a career-high 63-yard punt...His 11 punts at Washington (11-1) tied for the third-most by a Giant in a single game. Against the Redskins in his rookie season (11-23-97), Maynard had the second-most punts ever by a Giant in a single game with 13. Carl Kinschef set the club record with 14 at Detroit (11-7-43)...Took an intentional safety when he ran out of the end zone with 17 seconds left at Arizona (12-6-98) to give the Giants more leverage for the Cardinals final drive. Also got off a 58-yard punt in the second quarter that pinned the Cardinals at their own 12-yard line. Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his efforts...All three of his punts vs. Denver (12-13) were directed out of bounds to prevent any return yardage. Did a nice job getting a high snap from Lance Scott in place for Daluiso's 36-yard field goal in the first quarter...Punted four times for a 47.5-yard average and a long of 52 at Philadelphia (12-27). Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his effort against the Eagles.

1997: Played in all 16 games and in the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Averaged 40.8 yards on 111 punts with an NFL-leading 33 punts placed inside the opponents 20-yard line with 14 touchbacks...Established an NFL rookie record with the 111 punts. The Giants old mark was 104 set in 1979 by Dave Jennings. The old NFL rookie mark was 108 by John Teltschik of Philadelphia in 1986...Averaged 45.4 yards on eight punts with two inside the 20-yard line and a long of 57 yards vs. Philadelphia (8-31)...The Ravens returned only one of his punts for zero yards vs. Baltimore (9-14) in an effort that saw him average 42.8 yards on five punts with a long of 57...Did a good job vs. Dallas (10-5), limiting dangerous return man Deion Sanders to four punt returns for 16 yards with a long return of eight yards. Biggest contribution came on his last punt in the fourth quarter. Got off a long, high punt of 51 yards, which allowed the coverage unit enough time to stop a reverse on the return and trap the Cowboys inside their own territory with :48 left to play and the Giants holding a 20-17 lead. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Cowboys...His fourth quarter punt was blocked at Arizona (10-12), marking the first time in his football career, including high school and college, that he had a punt blocked. The Cardinals blocked the punt at the Giants 18-yard line. Two plays later, QB Stoney Case scored on a one-yard touchdown run to close the Giants lead to 27-13 with :53 remaining...Had good enough hang time at Detroit (10-19) to limit the Lions to just 11 return yards...Three of his six punts pinned the Bengals inside their own 20-yard line vs. Cincinnati (10-26). Punting from the Bengals 36-yard line, Maynard got off a pooch kick that was aimed at the left corner of the end zone. The ball went out of bounds at the one-yard line. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Bengals...Punted 13 times for a 41.3 average, two touchbacks, three inside the 20-yard line and a long of 57 yards at Washington (11-23). The 13 punts are the second-most ever by a Giant in a single game...Punting from his own 14 in the third quarter vs. Washington (12-13), Maynard nailed a 55-yarder that was muffed by PR Brian Mitchell and recovered by WR David Patten at the Washington 31-yard line for a huge field position turnaround in favor of the Giants.

College: His 44.22-yard average per punt ranks third in NCAA Division I-A annals (minimum 200 punts), topped only by Bill Smith of Mississippi (44.33 avg., 1983-86) and Ray Guy of Southern Mississippi (44.67 avg., 1970-72)...His 242 punts for 10,702 broke Ball State's all-time record of 202 kicks for 7799 yards by Mark O'Connell (1976-80)...Averaged at least 40.0 yards per punt in 32 of 33 games...Consensus All-American selection, All-Mid American first-team pick and Most Valuable Player following his senior campaign in 1996...Punted 59 times for 2705 yards (45.85 avg.) as a sophomore...As a junior, led the nation with a 46.53-yard average on 66 punts for 3071 yards...His 46.53 yard average ranks sixth in Division I-A season annals (minimum 50 punts), topped only by Chris Shale of Bowling Green (66 for 46.77 avg., 1990), Marv Bateman of Utah (68 for 48.07 avg., 1971), Reggie Roby of Iowa (52 for 48.1 avg., 1982), Ricky Anderson of Vanderbilt (58 for 48.16 avg., 1984) and Todd Sauerbrun of West Virginia (72 for 48.42 avg., 1994)...Second-team All-American selection by the Associated Press and Football News...All-MAC first-team choice and added Academic All-MAC honors as a sophomore in 1994...Led the conference and ranked third in the nation with 59 punts for 2684 yards (45.49 avg.)...Ranked third in the MAC with 58 punts for 2242 (38.66 avg.) as a freshman in 1993...Redshirted in 1992.

NFL: A former Arena League wide receiver for the Albany Firebirds who made the Giants as a free agent in 1997...Following injuries to Ike Hilliard (neck) and Thomas Lewis (toe), split time with Kevin Alexander before earning the starting job for the last three regular season games...Emerges as an effective kickoff returner and speed wide receiver in his second pro season...Enters the 1999 season in eighth place on the Giants all-time kickoff return list with 1,051 yards.

1998: Played in 12 games as a third and fourth wide receiver as well as the primary kickoff returner with 43 returns for 928 yards, including a 90-yard return for a touchdown at Washington (11-1)...Finished with 11 receptions for 119 yards, including a 39-yard touchdown pass...Established a Giants single-season record with 43 kickoff returns. The previous team mark of 41 was set by Herschel Walker during the 1995 season. His 928 kickoff return yards in 1998 rank third on the Giants all-time single-season list behind Clarence Childs (987 in 1964) and Rocky Thompson (947 in 1971)...Also used as the gunner on punts where he was credited with four special teams tackles...Missed two games with a back injury and the final two games with a knee injury...Returned five kicks for 131 yards, including a 46-yard return to open the second half in the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6). Awarded a Special Teams Game ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Redskins...For the second consecutive week, opened the second half with a 45-yard plus kickoff return at Oakland (9-13) with a 49-yard return...Culminated the Giants two-minute drill at the end of the first half vs. Atlanta (10-11) by breaking free on a post pattern for a 39-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell to cut the Falcons lead to 14-13...Had a 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. Arizona (10-18) negated by a holding call against RB Tyrone Wheatley in the second quarter. Caught two passes from Kanell during the Giants two-minute drill at the end of the first half that resulted in a PK Brad Daluiso field goal...Displayed his breakaway speed with a 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the second quarter at Washington (11-1). His 90-yard kickoff return for a touchdown is the 13th and the first since Thomas Lewis returned one 91 yards vs. Washington (12-10-95). Was aided on the run by a crushing block by Pete Monty. Broke right, then turned left and followed Monty's block down the left sideline...Was forced to leave practice early on the Thursday prior to the Green Bay game (11-15) when his back tightened up. Was a Friday de-activation...Also inactive vs. Philadelphia (11-22)...Returned to action at San Francisco (11-30) after missing two games...Suffered a sprained medial collateral ligament in his knee during the last kickoff return vs. Denver (12-13) and was placed on injured reserve on December 16, missing the final two games of the year.

1997: Played in all 16 games with three starting assignments...Caught 13 passes for 226 yards with two touchdowns, including a 40-yard touchdown pass at Philadelphia (12-7)...Returned eight kickoffs for 123 yards. Was replaced as the deep man on kickoffs at Arizona (10-12) so he could concentrate on taking reps at wide receiver... Patten took over for WR Thomas Lewis (toe) as the deep man on kickoffs in the second half at St. Louis (9-21)...Made an impact on special teams vs. Philadelphia (8-31) when he finished with three tackles as a gunner on the punt team. The last tackle may have prevented a touchdown. With the score 24-17, Eagles PR Mark Seay fielded a punt at the Philadelphia 12-yard line and raced 42 yards to the Giants 46-yard line before being tackled by Patten...Saw his first regular-season action from the line of scrimmage as the third wide receiver against the Rams after Lewis left the game in the second half with a toe injury. Kevin Alexander, who was the third receiver, was forced to move into the regular two-wide-out role. Patten also assumed Lewis' position as the deep man on the kickoffs...After the Cowboys scored late in the game to make the score 20-17 vs. Dallas (10-5), Patten muffed the ensuing kickoff inside the Giants 10-yard line, but RB Tyrone Wheatley recovered for the Giants at their own 14-yard line. Redeemed himself as the gunner on the punt team when he flung himself at Deion Sanders and in the process tripped up Kevin Mathis who had taken a handoff on a reverse, trapping the Cowboys at their own 36-yard line with :48 left to play...Started splitting time with Alexander at wide receiver at Arizona (10-12). Finished with a team-high three receptions for 66 yards. His first NFL reception resulted in a nine-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell for a 13-6 third quarter lead. Hooked up with Kanell on a short pattern that resulted in a 34-yard gain in the fourth quarter when he shrugged off Cardinals CB Tom Knight to give the Giants a first down at the eight-yard line to set up a TD for a 20-6 Giants advantage...Had one solo special teams tackle at Detroit (10-19) following a third quarter kickoff when KR Glyn Milburn broke into the open field for a 36-yard gain before Patten made a touchdown-saving tackle...Drew a pass interference call vs. Cincinnati (10-26) against Bengals CB Tito Paul early in the second quarter. The penalty gave the Giants a first down at the Cincinnati one-yard line and led to a 10-7 lead...Caught a 26-yard pass from Kanell for a first down at the Cardinals 20-yard line during the game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (11-16)...Made his first NFL start when he was inserted into the starting lineup in place of Alexander at Philadelphia (12-7). Finished with three receptions for 54 yards, including a 40-yard touchdown pass from Kanell in the second quarter...Recovered a Brian Mitchell muffed punt vs. Washington (12-13) at the Redskins 31-yard line in the third quarter...Had five receptions for 86 yards vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the Wild Card game.

Pro/College: Played with the Albany Firebirds of the Arena Football League in 1996 where he was used as a defensive back and as a wide receiver...Four-year letterman at Western Carolina...Finished collegiate career tied for ninth on school's career touchdown pass reception list with 14...As a senior in 1995 was named All-Southern Conference and ranked among the nation's top ten receivers with 59 catches (No. 8) for 881 yards (No. 9)...Led the conference in receiving (5.9 per game) and receiving yards (88.7 yards per game)...Ranked sixth in the Southern Conference with 3.6 receptions per game as a junior in 1994.

Personal: Married (Galiena) with son, Daquan Lamar (2-10-98)...Born August 19, 1974 in Hopkins, South Carolina.

Works as a floor manager at his parents' restaurant (Framagerie) in Rumson, New Jersey.

Transactions: Originally a fifth round (149th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two fifth round selections; by New England in 1996. Waived by New England on April 24, 1996. Signed by the Giants as a free agent on January 22, 1997.

NFL: Played a more prominent role in the defensive line rotation during his second NFL season...Was forced into the starting lineup for six games for the injured Robert Harris and play demonstrated he could handle the assignment...Backup tackle who saw limited action in his first season...Spent the 1996 season out of football after being released by New England.

1998: Played in all 16 games with six starting assignments at left tackle in place of the injured Robert Harris. Started in place of Harris at San Diego (9-27), at Tampa Bay (10-4) and vs. Atlanta (10-11) when Harris was out with a pectoral strain. Started in place of Harris vs. Denver (12-13), vs. Kansas City (12-20) and at Philadelphia (12-27) when Harris was out with a calf injury...Finished the season with 32 total tackles (22 solos), one sack, one forced fumble and three passes defended...Majority of his playing time came in the defensive line rotation in place of Keith Hamilton at right tackle and in place of Harris at left tackle...Recorded his first NFL sack when he dropped QB Trent Green for a nine-yard loss late in the third quarter of the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6). Peter also caused a fumble on the play, allowing Hamilton to recover the loose ball at the Redskins 22-yard line. The turnover set up a QB Danny Kanell-to-WR Amani Toomer touchdown pass for a commanding 31-17 lead heading into the final quarter of play...Made his first professional start at San Diego (9-27) in place of Harris (pectoral strain) at left tackle...Entered the game at left tackle in the first quarter at Arizona (12-6) when Harris was forced out with a calf strain. Tipped a third down pass from QB Jake Plummer at the line of scrimmage, forcing the Cardinals to settle for a field goal in the second quarter.

1997: Played in seven games in a reserve role...Was inactive for seven games and dressed but did not play in two games...Was used in the Giants goal line defense late in the season...Finished with two total tackles (one solo)...Saw his first regular season game action in place of Robert Harris at left defensive tackle in the second quarter at Jacksonville (9-7) and finished with one solo tackle...Active but did not play vs. Arizona (11-16) and at Washington (11-23)...Replaced Harris at left tackle for the entire second half at Dallas (12-21) when head coach Jim Fassel elected to go with the reserves...Dressed for the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) but did not play.

College: Entered Nebraska's starting lineup at left defensive tackle as a junior in 1994 and was a key ingredient in the Cornhuskers National Championship teams in 1994 and 1995...Was named an All-America honorable mention by United Press International and Football News and added All-Big Eight Conference first-team honors after finishing his senior campaign in 1995 with 46 tackles (12 solos) and two sacks...Started his collegiate career as a backup nose guard before switching to defensive tackle during his junior year.

Personal: An all-state tackle as a junior at Middletown South (N.J.) High...Due to transferring schools as an underclassman, was ineligible his senior year...Brother Jason also attended Nebraska and was a first-round pick by Carolina in 1998...Born October 5, 1972...A native of Locust, New Jersey.

Transactions: Originally a third round (68th pick overall) draft choice, the first of two third round selections by the Giants, in 1997.

NFL: Converted defensive end who saw most of his playing time on special teams during his rookie season...Role in the Giants nickel defense increased with the injuries to Scott Galyon (Achilles injury and a knee and leg injury) in 1998...Backup at strongside linebacker who started three games when Marcus Buckley was out with a hip injury last year.

1998: Started three of 16 games and totaled 21 tackles (15 solos) and 13 special teams tackles...Forced into the starting lineup at strongside linebacker in place of the injured Marcus Buckley (hip injury) vs. Dallas (9-21), at San Diego (9-27) and at Tampa Bay (10-4)...Entered the game at strongside linebacker in the fourth quarter of the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6) when Buckley left the game with a hip pointer...Played linebacker in the nickel defense at Oakland (9-13) in place of Scott Galyon, who left in the first half with an Achilles injury. Recovered a RB Napoleon Kaufman fumble deep in Giants territory, but the officials ruled against the fumble and the Raiders kicked a field goal before the half to take a 10-7 lead...Made his first NFL start in place of Buckley (hip) vs. Dallas (9-21) on Monday Night Football and stopped RB Emmitt Smith for no gain on the Cowboys first offensive play from scrimmage...Started at Tampa Bay (10-4) but for most of the game split time with Buckley, who was still slowed by his hip injury...Saw significant action at strongside linebacker when Buckley was switched to the weakside when Jessie Armstead aggravated his ankle injury in the second quarter at Arizona (12-6).

1997: Played in ten games, primarily on special teams where he had two total tackles....Saw limited action at strongside linebacker in a reserve role and as part of the short-yardage and goal line defense...Was inactive for six games, three due to a knee sprain...Came in at strong-side linebacker late in the game in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) and recorded his only defensive tackle of the year when he dropped QB Rodney Peete for an eight-yard sack with 39 seconds remaining in the game...Saw action late in the game at strongside linebacker at Arizona (10-12)...Played outside linebacker as part of the Giants goal line and short-yardage defense at Washington (11-23). Was on the field when the Giants stopped the Redskins on a fourth down attempt in the overtime period...Sprained his right knee in the Giants goal line defense in the second quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11-30). An MRI showed a tear to the medial collateral ligament...Missed the Giants final three games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) due to his injury.

College: Ranks second on the school's career-record list with 39 sacks, topped only by Jeff Robinson (90) in school annals...First-team All-Big West Conference choice as a senior in 1996...Played in nine games, seeing action at right defensive end early in the year before shifting to the left side in the sixth contest...Finished with 70 tackles (46 solos), 7.5 sacks for minus-41 yards and 15 stops for losses of 43 yards...Team co-captain as he started all year at left defensive end as a junior...Recorded 60 tackles (36 solos) as he led the team with 11 sacks for minus-61 yards, 13 stops for losses of 48 yards and 24 total hits behind the line of scrimmage...Started every game at left defensive end as a sophomore, setting a school season-record with 28.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage, breaking the previous mark of 28 by Jeff Robinson in 1991...Recorded 82 tackles (29 solos) with 13.5 sacks for minus-87 yards...Recorded 68 tackles (42 solos) and ranked second on the team with seven sacks for -32 yards and seven stops for losses of 11 yards a redshirt freshman...Redshirted as a freshman in 1992.

Personal: All-State and All-Area selection as a tight end by the Tacoma News Tribune at Auburn (Wash.) High School...Added All-Conference honors as a linebacker and tight end in his final season...Caught 29 passes for 400 yards with nine touchdowns and recorded 74 tackles with three fumble recoveries, returning two for touchdowns (including a 76-yarder) that year...Lettered twice on the gridiron...Wildlife Resources major...Son of Donna and Richard Phillips...Born February 7, 1974 in Renton, Washington...Hometown is Auburn, Washington.

SEHORN TID BIT...

Successfully defended his Superstars competition title this past April against several world-class athletes, including many of his NFL brethren, after fully recovering from season ending knee injury.

Transactions: Originally a second round (59th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two second round selections by the Giants, in 1994.

NFL: Spent the offseason rehabilitating his knee after suffering a season-ending knee injury against the Jets in the preseason on the game's opening kickoff...In 1997 turned in an outstanding season that warranted Pro Bowl consideration in his second season as a starter...Due in part to Thomas Randolph's limited participation in training camp, Sehorn moved into the starting right cornerback spot and proved to be the team's most improved player in 1996...Played both safety and cornerback during his first two seasons with the Giants...A fine athlete who only played two seasons of major college football before entering the NFL.

1998: Placed on injured reserve on August 24 after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a tear to the medial collateral ligament of his right knee during the game's opening kickoff against the Jets in a preseason contest on August 20...Underwent successful surgery on September 18 at The Hospital for Special Surgery-Cornell Medical Center in New York City to reconstruct his anterior cruciate ligament. The MCL healed with rehabilitation and rest.

1997: Turned in his second straight solid season as he set a single-season personal best with six interceptions, the most by a Giant since Everson Walls had six in 1990...Started all 16 regular season games and the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) and finished third on the team with 86 total tackles (75 solos), six interceptions, 1.5 sacks, one fumble recovery and 20 passes defended...Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the NFL following his performances vs. Arizona (11-6) and vs. Washington (12-13). For his play at Philadelphia (12-7), vs. Washington and at Dallas (12-21), Sehorn was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month by the NFL for December. During that stretch, Sehorn held Eagles WR Irving Fryar to just two catches, shut out Redskins WR Michael Westbrook and returned an interception 35 yards for a touchdown, and shut out Cowboys WR Michael Irvin before being pulled to rest in the second half...Was credited with a two-yard sack of QB Rodney Peete in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31)...Blitzed into the Ravens backfield and stopped RB Jay Graham for a two-yard loss vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Came in on a blitz vs. New Orleans (9-28) and chased down RB Mario Bates across the field for a two-yard loss. Set a single-game personal-high with 12 total tackles against the Saints. Lined up as the deep man in the offensive formation against the Saints when QB Dave Brown knelt down on the final three plays to run out the clock...QB Troy Aikman tried to drill a pass to WR Michael Irvin in the third quarter vs. Dallas (10-5), but Irvin was covered by Sehorn to the outside, allowing S Tito Wooten to come from the inside and intercept the ball and race 61 yards for a touchdown that put the Giants in front, 20-9...Recorded his first interception of the season at Arizona (10-12) when he picked off a QB Stoney Case pass in the end zone to seal the Giants 27-13 victory with :18 left to play...After the Bengals closed the score to 29-27 vs. Cincinnati (10-26), the Giants needed a big-time play by Sehorn on a potential game-tying two-point attempt to seal the victory. Bengals QB Jeff Blake scored on a four-yard quarterback keeper to bring Cincinnati within two points with 1:31 left in regulation. Blake attempted to complete a pass to WR Carl Pickens in the end zone on the two-point play but Sehorn shadowed Pickens on a fade pattern, leaped in front and came away with an interception to seal the Giants victory...Awarded a Game Ball for his performance vs. Arizona (11-16) that included 10 solo tackles, four passes defended, one interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Helped limit the Cardinals to just 49 yards rushing by taking away the outside run. Four times Sehorn tackled Cardinals runners after a short gain or for a loss. Set up the Giants first field goal when he blitzed from his right cornerback spot and knocked the ball free from RB Leeland McElroy at the Cardinals 44-yard line. The strip and recovery set up a 33-yard field goal in the second quarter. Blitzed on a third-down play in the second quarter and combined with DE Michael Strahan on an eight-yard sack of QB Jake Plummer. With the Giants clinging to a 16-10 lead and Arizona driving for a potential go-ahead score, Sehorn intercepted Plummer at the 39-yard line and raced 41 yards to the Cardinals 20-yard line to get in position for the game-clinching field goal. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his role against the Cardinals...Ended the Redskins first drive in overtime at Washington (11-23) when he stepped in front of WR Henry Ellard and intercepted a QB Jeff Hostetler pass...Ended a Buccaneers scoring threat in the second quarter vs. Tampa Bay (11-30) when he deflected a QB Trent Dilfer pass intended for WR Robb Thomas that was intercepted by Wooten at the 19-yard line and returned 53 yards to the Tampa Bay 28-yard line to set up a field goal...Finished with his first two-interception game vs. Washington (12-23). Intercepted Hostetler in the end zone at the end of the first half. In the fourth quarter, was in perfect position on a Hostetler pass intended to WR Michael Westbrook in the right sideline. Returned the interception 35 yards for a touchdown to seal the Giants 30-10 victory. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the National Football League...Stepped in front of Irvin at Dallas (12-21) and recorded his sixth interception of the season when he picked off Aikman at the Giants 35-yard line in the second quarter. In the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27), Vikings QB Randall Cunningham attempted to go deep to WR Cris Carter in the second quarter. Sehorn was on the coverage and leaped in front of Carter for an interception that he returned 36 yards to the Minnesota 47-yard line to set up a Giants field goal.

1996: Moved into the starting right cornerback position and along with LB Jessie Armstead, was the team's most effective defensive player...Led the team with five interceptions, including one for a touchdown vs. New England (12-21), and 12 passes defended...Finished third on the team with 97 tackles (83 solos), including three sacks...Tied for third on team with nine special teams tackles...Made his first career start vs. Buffalo (9-1). Came on a third-down blitz during Buffalo's second offensive series and forced QB Jim Kelly to fumble on a 15-yard sack. Kelly threw the ball at Sehorn's side 11 times but completed just four of those passes...Recorded his first interception when he picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass in the third quarter vs. Washington (9-15)...Led the team with nine total tackles (seven solos) at the Jets (9-22)...Came on a third down blitz in the third quarter vs. Minnesota (9-29) and forced Vikings QB Warren Moon to fumble on a sack. Also sacked Moon in the second quarter to finish the game with two sacks. Totaled six solo tackles. Earned a game ball from the Giants coaching staff for his performance...Led the team with a career-high 11 total tackles (eight solos) vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...Moved from the right corner to the left side due to the injury to Phillippi Sparks (foot) at Detroit (10-27). Matched up well against Lions WR Herman Moore, limiting him to just one reception for five yards in the first half and just four catches for 49 yards in the game...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Dallas (11-24) due to the Giants using an extra linebacker since they had the Cowboys pinned inside their own five-yard line to start the game. Led the secondary with eight total tackles, one interception and one forced fumble. Stepped in front of WR Michael Irvin and intercepted a Troy Aikman pass at the nine-yard line at the end of the first quarter. Returned the ball 24 yards to give the Giants a first down at the 33-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a 45-yard field goal. Ended a Cowboys drive in the fourth quarter when he forced Dallas FB Daryl Johnston to fumble and Jessie Armstead recovered...Intercepted Eagles QB Ty Detmer's pass intended for FB Kevin Turner in the end zone to end a drive in the fourth quarter at Philadelphia (12-

1)...Led the team with seven tackles (five solos) and two passes defended at Miami (12-8). Named Defensive Player of the Game....Recorded his fourth interception of the season when he picked off a QB Jim Everett pass in the first quarter vs. New Orleans (12-15)...The Giants started their march to a 22-0 halftime lead vs. New England (12-21) when QB Drew Bledsoe, under pressure from Sehorn and Michael Strahan, intentionally grounded a ball in the end zone for a safety. Improved his team-leading interception total to five when he stepped in front of WR Terry Glenn to intercept a Bledsoe pass. Sehorn scored his first career touchdown on a 23-yard return to give the Giants a 22-0 lead. Led the team with nine total tackles (eight solos).

1995: Playing time increased in the nickel and dime situations as he appeared in 14 games...Finished with six tackles on defense and tied for fourth on the team with eight special teams tackles...Missed the Kansas City (9-17) and Green Bay (9-24) games due to a foot injury that bothered him for much of the season...Recorded the first two defensive tackles of his career vs. Oakland (11-12) as he lined up as part of the nickel defense...Helped spring Thomas Lewis on his 91-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Played in eight games and was inactive for eight games...Worked at both safety and cornerback during his first professional season...Finished with one special teams tackle on the kickoff team at Cleveland (12-4).

College: Played both safety and cornerback during his two-year career at USC...Had seven interceptions as a senior...Also returned punts...Transferred to USC after a record-setting career as a receiver and tailback at Shasta Community College (Redding, Calif.).

Personal: Only played football in his senior year at Mt. Shasta (Calif.) HS as he earned league MVP honors...Standout performer on basketball and track teams...Although he did not play high school or Little League baseball, spent two seasons in the minor leagues with the Chicago Cubs organization...Majored in Communications at USC...Born on April 15, 1971 in Sacramento, Calif.

Finished in top 12 of Cadillac Invitational Golf Outing. This past off-season purchased Planet Toyota in Sanford, N.C.

Transactions: Originally a second round (41st pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Extremely physical corner who has been in the Giants starting lineup since the 1993 season...Has established himself as one of the top cover men in the NFL with 17 interceptions in the last four seasons...Missed 16 games over his first three seasons due to injury.

1998: Started 13 games and finished with 68 total tackles (61 solos), four interceptions and 15 passes defended...Missed games vs. Atlanta (10-11) and vs. Arizona (10-18) due to a shoulder injury and the season-finale at Philadelphia (12-27) with a neck injury...Early in the third quarter of the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6) when the Redskins were pinned at their own five-yard line, Sparks dove after a QB Gus Frerotte pass and tipped the ball into the hands of CB Conrad Hamilton, who raced 17 yards on the return to the two-yard line to set up a Giants touchdown for a 17-10 lead...Recorded his first interception of the season at San Diego (9-27) when he picked off a QB Ryan Leaf pass at the end of the first quarter...Suffered a stinger in his shoulder that forced him out for a couple of plays in the second quarter at Tampa Bay (10-4) but did return to the game. Play helped hold the Buccaneers to just 59 net yards passing...Had the fourth two-interception game of his career vs. Philadelphia (11-22) when he ended two consecutive Eagles drives in the fourth quarter with interceptions. Sparks had two interceptions at Arizona (9-11-94), at Washington (11-23-97) and vs. Tampa Bay (11-30-97). Early in the fourth quarter with the Giants in front, 13-0, the Eagles were at the Giants 11-yard line when Sparks picked off a QB Bobby Hoyer pass in the end zone to keep the Eagles scoreless. His second interception of the day helped set up the Giants final score. Awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the National Football League for his play against the Eagles...Play vs. Denver (12-13) helped limit QB John Elway to 180 yards and no passes over 20 yards...Intercepted QB Rich Gannon in the second quarter vs. Kansas City (12-20) to give the Giants a first down at the Chiefs 36-yard line to get the Giants in scoring position. The Giants failed to convert the turnover on a missed field goal.

1997: Started 13 games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Missed the Giants first two games after being diagnosed with non-infectious viral hepatitis following the preseason-finale against Green Bay (8-22)...Also missed the regular-season finale at Dallas (12-21) after suffering a mild lateral sprain of his left knee in the second quarter vs. Washington (12-21). Thomas Randolph replaced Sparks in the starting lineup in the first two games and at Dallas...Ended the year with 74 total tackles (64 solos), five interceptions, one sack, one forced fumble and 15 passes defended. The five interceptions equalled his career-high of five set in 1995...Returned to the starting lineup at left cornerback vs. Baltimore (9-14)...Broke up a QB Tony Banks pass intended for WR Torrance Small in the second quarter at St. Louis (9-21)...On the first drive of the game vs. Dallas (10-5), RB Emmitt Smith broke free for a 20-yard gain with a clear path to the end zone. Sparks was covering his man on the outside but broke free and ran Smith down from across the field with a touchdown-saving tackle. Forced WR Anthony Miller to fumble after catching a short pass from QB Troy Aikman. Miller was able to recover his own fumble. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cowboys...Helped hold WR Herman Moore to under 100 yards (7-88) at Detroit (10-19), snapping a Moore streak of five straight games with at least 100 yards receiving...Recorded his first interception of the season vs. Cincinnati (10-26) when he stepped in front of Bengals WR James Hundon and picked off QB Jeff Blake's pass at the Giants 30-yard line...Had the second two-interception game of his career at Washington (11-23) with two picks off Redskins QB Jeff Hostetler. Set up the Giants only touchdown when he intercepted Hostetler to end the Redskins first drive in the second half at the 46-yard line. In overtime, Sparks ended another Redskins drive when he fought off WR Henry Ellard to pick off another Hostetler pass at the Giants 49-yard line. Held WR Michael Westbrook one yard short of the first down marker to make the Redskins attempt a failed fourth down conversion in the overtime period. Recorded the first sack of his career when he stopped QB Gus Frerotte for a seven-yard loss at the end of the first quarter...Followed the Redskins game with another two-interception game vs. Tampa Bay (11-30). Play helped end the Buccaneers first three drives. Ended the Bucs first drive when he made a leaping play to break up a third down QB Trent Dilfer pass intended to WR Robb Thomas in the first quarter. Sparks' first interception ended the Bucs next possession when he picked off a Dilfer pass that deflected off the hands of WR Karl Williams and he returned it 68 yards down the left sideline to the Buccaneers 27-yard line. Ended the Bucs following possession after he intercepted Dilfer at the Giants 32-yard line...Came in on a corner blitz at Philadelphia (12-7) that forced Eagles QB Bobby Hoving to hurry a pass that was intercepted by LB Jessie Armstead at the Eagles 38-yard line...Sprained his knee in the second quarter vs. Washington (12-13) and missed the final game at Dallas (12-21)...Returned to the starting lineup in the postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27).

1996: Finished seventh on the team with 61 tackles (52 solos) and three interceptions...Tied for second on the team with nine passes defended...Also forced a fumble...Set up the Giants only points of the second half when he leaped to intercept QB Jim Kelly at the Bills 33-yard line vs. Buffalo (9-1). The interception gave the Giants a first down at the 14-yard line with a 19-yard return...Limited Redskins WR Henry Ellard to just one reception for 16 yards vs. Washington (9-15)...Helped clinch the victory vs. Minnesota (9-29) by intercepting QB Warren Moon at the Giants four-yard line on Minnesota's final possession in the fourth quarter to preserve the Giants 15-10 win...The Eagles stayed away from Sparks' side, completing just one of the two passes thrown his way vs. Philadelphia (10-13)...Missed the Detroit (10-27) and Arizona (11-3) games after suffering a rupture of the plantar fascia in his left foot on the Wednesday prior to the Lions game...Returned to the starting lineup at Carolina (11-10)...In the third quarter of the Dallas game (11-24), Sparks caught Deion Sanders from behind and stripped him of the football at the four-yard line after a 41-yard catch-and-run from Troy Aikman. Sanders beat Sparks on a deep pattern, but Sparks stayed with the play and caused a fumble that Jesse Campbell recovered for the Giants. Marked the first forced fumble of Sparks' career...Ended a New England (12-21) drive at the end of the first half by intercepting QB Drew Bledsoe at the three-yard line to preserve the Giants 22-0 halftime lead.

1995: In his second season as a starter, started in all 16 games at left corner...Finished fourth on the team in tackles with 76, tied for first in interceptions with five and broke up a team-leading 16 passes...Set a personal single-game high with 10 tackles against the Chiefs (9-10). His previous best was nine tackles at Philadelphia (12-27-92)...Giants secondary did a great job of covering the Packers receivers as QB Brett Favre completed just four passes for 11 net yards in the second half at Green Bay (9-17)...Covered Jerry Rice most of the afternoon at San Francisco (10-1). Afterwards Rice remarked that it was the most physical game that he has ever played...Recorded his first interception of the year vs. Philadelphia (10-15) when he picked off a Randall Cunningham pass in the third quarter...Sparks intercepted QB Gus Frerotte deep in Redskins territory at Washington (10-29) to give the Giants a first down at the 16-yard line...Equalled his previous single-season high when he recorded his third interception of the season at Seattle (11-5) when he picked off a QB Rick Mirer pass at the Seattle 46-yard line with :53 left in the first half to help put the Giants in scoring position...Vs.

VETERAN PLAYERS

Oakland (11-12), established a personal single-season high mark with his fourth interception as Sparks ended the only Raider scoring threat in the third quarter when he intercepted QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone...With 3:31 left to play and the Giants ahead, 20-18, at Dallas (12-17), Sparks intercepted his fifth pass of the season by picking off QB Troy Aikman to kill a Dallas drive at the Giants 35-yard line...Served as a team captain during the 1995 season.

1994: Started all 11 games played...Missed five games due to groin strain he suffered in practice during the week prior to the Detroit game (10-30)...Still picked off three interceptions, including the first two-interception game of his career at Arizona (9-11) when he earned a game ball and was named Giants Defensive MVP...Finished sixth on the team with 47 tackles...Also broke up seven passes...Against Philadelphia (9-4), started his first game since tearing ligaments in his foot vs. Rams (9-19-93) and led team in tackles with eight (six solos)...His first interception at Arizona was on the game's second play and set up the Giants first score...Thwarted a Pittsburgh (10-23) scoring drive by intercepting a Neil O'Donnell pass in the end zone...Returned to starting lineup at left corner at Washington (11-27) after missing four games with the groin injury...Helped hold Dallas (12-24) to 112 yards passing in season-ending victory.

1993: Earned starting right cornerback job over incumbent Perry Williams in training camp but missed 11 games with torn ligaments in his foot...Started first three games of season at RCB before tearing ligaments in his foot vs. Rams (9-19) and missing the next 11 games...Returned to play in final two regular season games on special teams and in nickel situations...Finished the season with 11 tackles.

1992: Played in all 16 games as a nickel back and started the final two games of the season at left cornerback when Mark Collins was unable to play because of a rib injury...First NFL start came vs. Kansas City (12-19)...Finished rookie year with 30 tackles and eight passes defended, which tied for third on the team...Also had 12 special teams tackles...Had an interception vs. Seattle (10-25).

College: A two-year starter at Arizona State where he was All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America as a junior and senior...As a senior, was a finalist for Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the nation's top defensive back, when Sparks had 46 tackles, two forced fumbles, six passes defended and two interceptions in spite of missing two games...Played in every game as a junior when he led ASU secondary with 73 tackles and returned 22 kickoffs for a 21.7-yard average...A JC All-America and Conference Defensive Player of the Year at Glendale (Ariz.) Community College.

Personal: Married (Jodi) with a son P.J. and a daughter Jordin...An All-America football player and standout in basketball and track at Maryvale HS in Phoenix, Ariz....Phillippi Dwaine Sparks was born on April 15, 1969 in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Despite not playing any organized football until his junior year of high school, Stone served as team captain his senior year. Spends a considerable amount of time working with inner-city youth.

Transactions: Originally a fourth round (96th pick overall) draft choice, the second of two fourth round selections by Dallas, in 1993. Signed by the Giants as a restricted free agent from Dallas on March 8, 1996.

NFL: A solid reserve and spot starter through his first three pro seasons, stepped into the regular lineup at right guard in his first season with the Giants and has become a fixture...Has played every offensive line position but center at some point in his career.

1998: Started 14 games at right guard...Dressed but did not play vs. Atlanta (10-11) due to a coccyx contusion. Suffered the injury at San Diego (9-27). Started the next week at Tampa Bay (10-4) but was forced out in the second series when he could not get the power that he needed in his blocking because of his injury. Suffered a calf strain during the last drive of the game vs. Denver (12-13) and was de-activated for the game vs. Kansas City (12-20)...Blocking helped RB Gary Brown finish seventh in the NFC with 1,063 yards rushing...Pulled from his guard position and made a key block during FB Charles Way's two-yard touchdown run in the third quarter vs. Washington (9-6) that put the Giants in front, 17-10...Returned to the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10-18) and helped the Giants gain 390 yards in total offense, including a 108-yard rushing performance by Brown...His play at Arizona (12-6) helped the Giants produce 200 yards on the ground, including a 124-yard rushing effort by Brown. Made two key blocks during RB Tiki Barber's 87-yard touchdown run after a short reception from QB Kent Graham in the first quarter...Blocking at Philadelphia (12-27) helped the ground game amass 209 yards, including a 112-yard rushing performance by Brown.

1997: Was in the starting lineup at right guard for all 16 regular season games and the Giants post-season game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Blocking helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards rushing in the final 3:38 vs. New Orleans (9-28) to kill the last 3:38 of the game to preserve the Giants victory...Named Offensive MVP by the coaching staff for his effort vs. Dallas (10-5). Made a key block as FB Charles Way plowed over the right guard during on a three-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter to give the Giants a 20-9 lead...Helped the Giants offense generate 426 yards in total offense at Arizona (10-12), including 239 yards on the ground. Wheatley gained 103 yards on 33 carries, ending a Giants streak of 23 straight games without a 100-yard rusher. The entire offensive line was awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for its performance against the Cardinals...Made a key block that allowed Way to break free for a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13) to put the Giants in front, 10-0.

1996: Started all 16 games at right guard...Helped the Giants control the ball and establish the running game against Minnesota (9-29). Blocking allowed the Giants to take 8:32 off the clock during their first scoring drive...Offensive line limited the Panthers to just one sack at Carolina (11-10). The Panthers entered the game as the NFL's leader in sacks...Named Offensive Lineman of the Game vs. Dallas (11-24) by the coaching staff...Play of the line allowed the Giants to control the ball for 36:28 and allowed the running game to gain 131 yards at Miami (12-8). The Giants ground game held the ball for 10:33 of the final quarter to seal the 17-7 victory.

1995: Played in all 16 games with one start for Dallas...Earned his first start of the season vs. Arizona (9-24), replacing Erik Williams who was out with a strained left calf. Stone helped the Cowboys gain 195 yards rushing and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack to the Cardinals...Was used as the third tight end in short yardage and goal line situations throughout the season...Filled in at right tackle for Williams on a few snaps at Arizona (12-25)...Saw action at both right guard and left guard due to injuries to Larry Allen and Nate Newton vs. Washington (12-3)...Took over at right tackle temporarily for Erik Williams in first half vs. Philadelphia (11-6) and moved to left tackle in the fourth quarter to rest Mark Tuinei...Saw action in all three of the Cowboys postseason games, including the victory over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX.

1994: Although Stone saw most of his action on field goal and extra point attempts, he did receive significant amount of playing time all along the offensive line, usually due to a fallen teammate...Saw fourth quarter action at left guard in place of Nate Newton at Washington (10-2) and against Arizona (10-9)...Played the entire second half at Arizona (10-23) after replacing Newton in the second quarter...Replaced Derek Kennard at right guard against the Giants (11-7) when Kennard suffered a sprained toe midway through the first quarter...Started his first professional game at left guard against Green Bay (1-8-95) in a divisional playoff game for the injured Newton. Also saw action at right tackle in that game for the injured Larry Allen...Filled in at right tackle in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game at San Francisco (1-15-95).

1993: Was active for four games, but did not play in any contests...De-activated for 12 weeks when the Cowboys dropped to 45 players on game day.

College: Made a smooth and rapid adjustment to right tackle on the offensive line his senior year at Boston College after making 68 tackles as a defensive lineman for the Eagles in 1990 and 1991...Anchored an offensive line that ranked 12th in the nation, averaging 233.5 passing yards per game and finished 10th in total offense with an average of 438.4 yards per game....As a junior, started in all 11 games at right defensive tackle and finished with 49 tackles.

Personal: Married (Roxane) with daughters Ronnie and Ronna...Did not play high school football until his junior year at West Roxbury (Mass.) High...Served as team captain and blocked three punts his senior year...Also started at forward on the basketball team, despite only playing as a senior...A sociology major at Boston College...Spent the summer of 1992 working with inner-city youth in the Big East Conference's "Athletes Care" program.

GIANTS

STRAHAN TID BIT...

Won the 1999 NFL Lineman's Challenge in Miami during Super Bowl week, beating out two-time defending champ Warren Sapp.

Transactions: Originally a second round (40th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1993.

NFL: Key ingredient on the Giants defensive front, Strahan has established himself as one of the top players in the NFL over the last two seasons, earning two-straight Pro Bowl berths...Last season set a career-high with 15 sacks, one more than the 14 he had in 1997...Enters the 1999 season in fourth place on the Giants all-time sack list with 47 career sacks....Moved into the starting lineup in his second NFL season in 1994 after missing seven games as a rookie due to a foot injury...Served as a game captain in 1998....Named Giants 1997 Defensive Player of the Year.

1998: Set a career-high with 15 sacks, one more than the 14 he had in 1997...Became the first Giants player to have consecutive seasons of at least 10 sacks since Lawrence Taylor had 10 or more sacks from 1984 through 1990...Led the team in sacks for the fourth straight season, the most since Taylor led for five straight years (1986-90)...Finished with three two-sack games, vs. Washington (9-6), at Oakland (9-13) and at San Francisco (11-30). With two sacks against the Redskins and two at the Raiders the next week, marked the second time in his career that he recorded back-to-back two-sack games. In 1997, Strahan had three sacks vs. Arizona (11-16-97) and then had two the following week at Washington (11-23-97)...Started 15 of 16 games and finished with 67 total tackles (53 solos), a team-leading 15.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, one interception that he returned 24 yards for a touchdown and four passes defended...Missed the Friday practice prior to the game at Washington (11-1) due to tightness in his lower back. Returned for the walk-through session on Saturday and felt well enough to start the game against the Redskins. Two plays into the game, Strahan suffered spasms and was forced to leave the game. Missed some practice time the following week but returned to practice on the Friday prior to the game at Dallas (11-8). Was not in the starting lineup against the Cowboys but did see significant game action...Recorded his third career interception vs. Washington (9-6) in the season-opener when he dropped into coverage from his end position, stepped in front of TE Jamie Asher, and picked off a QB Gus Frerotte pass and returned it 24 yards for a touchdown to give the Giants a 24-10 third quarter advantage. Finished the Redskins game with five solo tackles, two sacks, two passes defended and one interception. Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week by the National Football League and was awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Redskins...The Buccaneers managed to recover the ball...Helped put the Giants in position for their second field goal vs. Atlanta (10-11) when he sacked QB Chris Chandler for a six-yard loss on third down in the first quarter, forcing the Falcons to punt from their own 12-yard line. The Giants fielded the punt at midfield and moved to the 27-yard line where PK Brad Daluiso connected on a 45-yard attempt...Set the tone for the defense with a one-yard sack of QB Jake Plummer on the game's first play from scrimmage vs. Arizona (10-18). Play helped limit the Cardinals to 62 yards on the ground...Forced Plummer to fumble on a sack in the second quarter at Arizona (12-6), but the Cardinals managed to recover the loose football. Helped end a potential Cardinals scoring threat late in the third quarter with a spectacular sequence of back-to-back plays. Combined with LB Corey Widmer on a tackle of RB Mario Bates for a one-yard loss on a first-and-goal play from the Giants one-yard line. On the next play, Strahan tackled Plummer, who was rolling out, for a two-yard loss. A strong pass rush by the Giants defensive line forced Plummer to hurry a pass that was intercepted by CB Jeremy Lincoln in the end zone on the next play to end the scoring threat. Awarded a Defensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his efforts against the Cardinals...Did a good job of keeping pressure on QB John Elway to hold him to just 180 yards vs. Denver (12-13). Bruised his shoulder while chasing Elway out of bounds in the second quarter but returned to the game after missing a couple of plays.

1997: Finished tied for third in the NFL with 14 sacks, the most by a Giants player since Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989...Strahan's previous career-high was the 7.5 sacks he had in 1995...Started all 16 regular season games and the Giants postseason game vs. Minnesota (12-27) at left end...Finished with 69 total tackles (50 solos), 14 sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two passes defended...Named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad...Had 2.5 sacks in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31). Combined with DT Robert Harris for a five-yard sack of Eagles QB Ty Detmer on a third down play in the first quarter, dropped backup QB Rodney Peete for a six-yard loss in the third quarter and followed that play with a five-yard sack of Peete. Head coach Jim Fassel credited Strahan with doing an outstanding job of getting pressure on the Eagles quarterbacks. The entire defensive line was awarded a game ball by the Giants coaching staff...Dominated on three consecutive plays in the fourth quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14). First, he hammered QB Vinny Testaverde so hard that the ball popped out and sailed three yards to a running back. Next, he dropped into coverage and stopped a pass play. Then, a strong pass rush by Strahan forced Testaverde to hurry a pass for an incomplection...Sacked QB Tony Banks for a six-yard loss on a third down play at St. Louis (9-21) to end a Rams drive in the fourth quarter...Had a two-yard sack of Saints QB Heath Shuler vs. New Orleans (9-28)...Named Defensive MVP for his performance at Arizona (10-12) that helped the team hold the Cardinals to just 27 yards on the ground. Sacked Cardinals QB Stoney Case on a third down play from the Giants 48-yard line, resulting in an eight-yard loss to the Cardinals own 44-yard line. Combined with DT Keith Hamilton for an eight-yard sack of Case later in the fourth quarter...Stopped RB Barry Sanders for no gain at Detroit (10-19) on a play late in the second quarter. Sacked QB Scott Mitchell on the next play after chasing him on a scramble out of the pocket...Forced QB Jeff Blake to fumble on a four-yard sack in the third quarter vs. Cincinnati (10-26)...Participated in five of the Giants eight sacks vs. Arizona (11-16). Combined on four sacks and registered one solo sack for a total of three; best sack performance since he had three solo sacks at Green Bay (9-17-95). Finished with six total tackles, including the three sacks. Combined with DT Robert Harris for a one-yard loss in the second quarter, joined with CB Jason Sehorn on an eight-yard sack on a third-down play later in the second quarter, shared a sack with LB Corey Widmer on a three-yard sack in the third quarter before teaming up again with Harris for a one-yard sack in the fourth quarter. Finally got a solo sack with under five minutes remaining...Added a four-yard sack of QB Jeff Hostetler in the fourth quarter at Washington (12-23) and had a one-yard sack of Hostetler in the overtime period. After Strahan wrapped up Hostetler for the sack in overtime, DT Keith Hamilton forced a fumble that Harris recovered for the Giants...Recovered a fumble at the Eagles 40-yard line at Philadelphia (12-7) following a sack and forced fumble by DE Bernard Holsey. The Giants turned the turnover into a touchdown for a 21-7 lead...Hit Redskins P Matt Turk the moment after he mishandled a snap in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13), preventing him from recovering the ball and getting the punt off...Finished with seven total tackles (four), including a nine-yard sack and a fumble recovery vs. Minnesota (12-27) in the postseason. Recovered a QB Randall Cunningham fumble at the Vikings 46-yard line in the first quarter.

1996: Due to injuries along the defensive line during training camp, switched from right end to left end and responded by tying for the team lead with five sacks...Was sixth on the team with 63 tackles (54 solos)...Also forced a fumble and broke up three passes...Helped set the tone early in the game vs. Buffalo (9-1) when he combined with Chad Bratzke for a two-yard sack of QB Jim Kelly on the game's second play...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Jets (9-22) after finishing with two sacks, seven solo tackles and one pass defended. His second sack of QB Neil O'Donnell on fourth-and-four with under two minutes left to play helped end the Jets comeback chances in a 13-6 win...Recorded his team-leading fifth sack in the third quarter at Miami (12-8) when he dropped QB Dan Marino for a three-yard loss on a third-and-five situation...The Giants started their march to a 22-0 halftime lead over New England (12-21) when QB Drew Bledsoe, under a strong pass rush from Jason Sehorn and Strahan, intentionally grounded a ball in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter.

1995: Started 15 games in his second season as a regular and finished with 58 total tackles (48 solos), 7.5 sacks and three forced fumbles...Made his first career interception at Kansas City (9-10) when the Chiefs drove to the Giants three-yard line before Strahan intercepted QB Steve Bono in the end zone to secure the Giants 10-3 halftime lead...Recorded the first three-sack game of his career at Green Bay (9-17). All three of the sacks came in the second half when the Giants defensive line put constant pressure on the Packers, limiting them to just 36 total yards in the second half. Ended one Packers series with two consecutive sacks of Packers QB Brett Favre...Vs. Arizona (10-8), forced Dave Krieg to fumble on an eight-yard sack and Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Cardinals 30-yard line. Provided a good pass rush that forced Krieg to hurry the ball into the waiting arms of Jessie Armstead, who raced 58 yards untouched into the end zone to give the Giants a 27-21 overtime victory...At Washington (10-29), the defense set up a Giants touchdown when rookie Jamal Duff deflected a Gus Frerotte pass and Strahan intercepted and raced 62 yards before being forced out of bounds at the Washington two-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley punched it in from one yard out to give the Giants a 14-3 lead...With 11:16 left in the game at Philadelphia (11-19), Strahan blocked a punt at the Eagles 40-yard line. Strahan chased the ball down to the Giants end zone, but an Eagles defender was able to swat the ball out of the back of the end zone for a safety...Forced Dave Krieg to fumble on a sack, and Robert Harris recovered for the Giants at the 40-yard line at Arizona (11-30)...Did not play at Dallas (12-17) because of a hamstring injury suffered vs. Washington (12-10).

1994: Started 15 games in his first year as a regular in the starting lineup...Was inactive at Dallas (11-7) because of a knee injury that he suffered vs. Detroit (10-30)...Finished third on the team with 4.5 sacks...Had 39 tackles on the year...Made his first professional start vs. Philadelphia (9-4) and recorded a sack of Eagles QB Randall Cunningham...Helped Giants defense hold Cardinals to 39 yards rushing at Arizona (9-11)...Recorded his second sack of the season when he dropped Chris Miller at Rams (10-16)...Got his third sack of the season at Houston (11-21) on QB Billy Joe Tolliver...Vs. Dallas (12-24) in season-finale, sacked QB Troy Aikman on third-and-three at Giants' 20 to force Cowboys to attempt a 37-yard FG, which hit the upright.

1993: Was limited to just nine games played due to foot injury...Missed first five games of the season after suffering torn ligaments in his foot in preseason-opener at Cincinnati (8-7)...Played in nine of last 11 games before injuring his ankle in season-finale vs. Dallas (1-2)...Finished season with three tackles, including one sack...Recorded first career sack in his first NFL game (QB Ken O'Brien, vs. Philadelphia, 10-17)...Was placed on IR on 1-13 because of ankle injury.

College: As a senior, selected All-America first team by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, Sheridan Network and Associated Press when he recorded 62 tackles with a school-record 19 quarterback sacks and 32 tackles totaling 142 yards in losses...Selected Division I-AA Defensive Player of the Year by The Poor Man's Guide...In 1992 was first team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference and SWAC's Player of the Year for the second consecutive season...Was named Black College Defensive Player of the Year...As a junior in 1991, led SWAC with 14.5 quarterback sacks...41.5 career sacks is a Texas Southern record.

Became a student of Shaolin Kung Fu after 1997 season. Credits martial arts for the strides he has made on the field. Says Kung Fu has increased his flexibility, made he more disciplined and improved his concentration.

Transactions: Originally a second round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1996.

NFL: Excellent training camp carried over to the regular season as he enjoyed his best season to date in 1998 with 27 receptions for 360 yards and five touchdowns...Used primarily as a punt returner and third and fourth wide receiver...Promising rookie season was cut short by a knee injury...Showed immediately that he has the ability to be an impact player as he returned two punts for touchdowns, including a team-record 87-yard return vs. Buffalo in the season-opener during his rookie season...Enters 1999 in fourth place on the Giants Top Ten Punt Return List with 1,005 yards. He trails David Meggett (2,230), Emlen Tunnell (2,206) and Phil McConkey (1,708).

1998: Played in all 16 games as a third and fourth down wide receiver and as the Giants punt returner...Had his most productive season to date with 27 receptions for 360 yards and five touchdowns...Returned 25 punts for 252 yards...Also lined up as the deep man on kickoffs returning four kicks for 66 yards...Made the game-winning touchdown catch in the third quarter vs. Washington (9-6) in the season-opener when QB Danny Kanell fired a pass between two defenders for a 22-yard score...Had a season-long 39-yard punt return in the fourth quarter at Oakland (9-13)...Tied the game, 7-7, in the second quarter vs. Dallas (9-21) when he caught a 36-yard touchdown pass in stride from Kanell, taking advantage of his height advantage over Dallas CB Kevin Smith. Took a handoff on a reverse on the play before the touchdown and attempted a pass to WR Ike Hilliard that fell incomplete...Had an 18-yard touchdown reception from Kanell in the fourth quarter vs. Arizona (10-18) to give the Giants a 34-7 lead. Drew a pass interference penalty while being covered by CB J.B. Brown in the first quarter to give the Giants a first down inside the Cardinals 10-yard line during a first quarter touchdown drive...Caught the game-winning 37-yard touchdown pass from QB Kent Graham with just 48 seconds left in the victory vs. Denver (12-13). Made an adjustment to get underneath Broncos CB Tito Paul before using his leaping ability to out-jump the defender for the ball. After the catch, he utilized his agility to keep both feet in bounds for the touchdown...Culminated an 83-yard, 12-play drive in the first quarter vs. Kansas City (12-20) when he ran a slant-and-go pattern and broke free in the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown pass from Graham to give the Giants a 7-0 lead.

1997: Continued his role as the Giants punt returner, finishing with 47 returns for 455 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown return at Detroit (10-19). Fielded a short punt in the third quarter against the Lions and raced 53 yards in and out of traffic for a 17-10 Giants lead. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the National Football League for his efforts against the Lions...Saw action in all 16 regular season games and in the post-season game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Ended the year with 16 catches for 263 yards, including a 56-yard touchdown reception...At the end of the first half vs. Baltimore (9-14), Toomer drew a pass interference call on Ravens CB Dorian Brew in the end zone, giving the Giants a first down at the one-yard line. On the next play, QB Dave Brown completed a touchdown pass to FB Charles Way...Set up the Giants first touchdown vs. New Orleans (9-28) with a 44-yard punt return in the first quarter to give the Giants the ball at the Saints 32-yard line. Brown fired touchdown pass to WR Kevin Alexander on the next play for a 7-0 Giants lead...His 37-yard punt return in the fourth quarter vs. Dallas (10-5) gave the Giants a first down at the Dallas 33-yard line, setting the stage for the Giants only touchdown...During the Giants opening drive at Arizona (10-12), caught a key third down pass from QB Danny Kanell for a 24-yard gain into Cardinals territory at the 32-yard line...Chalked up his first NFL touchdown on a 56-yard pass from Kanell in the second quarter vs. Arizona (11-16) to put the Giants in front, 10-0. Toomer ran a deep pattern down the right sideline, fought off Cardinals CB Ty Howard for the ball and sprinted down the sideline for the touchdown...Caught a 14-yard pass from Kanell for a first down on a third-and-five play in the third quarter vs. Washington (12-13) to keep the Giants first scoring drive of the fourth quarter alive.

1996: Finished with 18 punt returns for 298 yards (16.6 avg.) and two touchdowns...Returned 11 kickoffs for 191 yards (17.4 avg.)...Caught just one pass for 12 yards...Toomer's 87-yard punt return for a touchdown vs. Buffalo (9-1) is the longest punt return in Giants history. The previous team mark was an 83-yard return set by Eddie Dove at Philadelphia on 9-29-63. Named Special Teams Player of the Game by the coaching staff...Started at wide receiver at Dallas (9-8) in place of the injured Thomas Lewis (back). Stumbled on a pass route on the first play from scrimmage that ended in an interception by the Cowboys. Had one reception for 12 yards...Returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter vs. Philadelphia (10-13) to give the Giants a 10-6 lead. Joins former Giant David Meggett (1994) as the only other Giants player to return two punts for a touchdown in one season. Emlen Tunnell holds the Giants team mark for most punt returns for a touchdown in a season with three in 1951. Finished the Eagles game with five punt returns for 96 yards and one kickoff return for 12 yards...Injured the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee at the end of the first half at Washington (10-20). Played the rest of the that game and attempted to go through Wednesday's practice prior to the Detroit game (10-27) before the extent of his injury was diagnosed...Underwent successful reconstructive surgery to repair the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee on October 28...Placed on injured reserve on October 31.

College: Ranks second on Michigan's career lists with 143 receptions for 2657 yards, topped only by Anthony Carter (1612 for 3076, 1979-82)...Only Carter (37), Derrick Alexander (22, 1989-92) and Desmond Howard (32, 1989-91) had more touchdown catches than his 18...All-American Dream Team selection by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft, All-Big Ten Conference second-team choice following senior season in 1995...Second on the team with 44 receptions for 758 yards (17.2 avg) and seven touchdowns and gained 177 yards on 21 punt returns (8.4 avg) with a score and 204 yards on 11 kickoff returns (18.5 avg) as a senior...First-team All-Big Ten Conference choice after he caught 54 passes for 1096 yards (20.3 avg) and six touchdowns as a junior in 1994... Became only the third receiver in school history to gain over 1000 yards in a season, joining Jack Clancy (1079 yards in 1966) and Desmond Howard (1025 in 1990)...His 20.3-yard average per catch ranks seventh on the Wolverines' season record list...Finished second on the team with 29 receptions for 565 yards (19.5 avg) and four touchdowns as a sophomore in 1993.

Personal: USA Today, The Sporting News, Parade and Super Prep All-American selection at De LaSalle (Concord, Cal.) High...Named Gatorade California Player of the Year...Western Region Player of the Year...Rated the top prospect in the West by Super Prep...California Interscholastic Federation Player of the Year as he caught 70 passes for 1204 yards (17.2 avg) and 12 touchdowns while leading the team to a 12-1 record and a berth in the state Class 4-I championship game as a senior...Returned three punts and one kickoff for touchdowns that year...Father, Donald, Sr., played football at Ohio State and is presently a Pac-10 Conference official...Brother, Donald, Jr., was a defensive back at Utah State (1990-94)...Born Amani (pronounced ah-MAH-NEE) Toomer on September 8, 1974 in Berkeley, Calif.

Transactions: Originally a sixth round (206th pick overall) draft choice, the third of three sixth round selections by the Giants, in 1995.

NFL: Hard-working and relentless style has made him one of the team's most consistent players...Established himself as one of the premier blocking backs in the NFL as he received considerable postseason recognition following the 1997 season...Became first rookie since Greg Jackson in 1989 to be in the Giants starting lineup on opening day...Powerful build makes him a very effective blocker...In addition to his blocking expertise, is outstanding as a receiver and ballcarrier...Named Giants 1997 Offensive Player of the Year...Served as a game captain in 1997 and 1998.

1998: Played in all 16 games with 15 starts and finished with 432 yards rushing and three touchdowns on 113 attempts with three touchdowns and 31 receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown...Also added eight special teams tackles...Was not in the starting lineup in the season-opener vs. Washington (9-6) due to the Giants opening in the three wide out set. Took a handoff from QB Danny Kanell in the third quarter and ran around the right end for a two-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 17-10 lead following an interception deep in Washington territory...Bullied his way into the end zone on a one-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-one situation in the second quarter at San Diego (9-27) to culminate a 10-play, 61-yard drive that put the Giants in front, 21-0...Capped the Giants first scoring drive vs. Arizona (10-18) with a one-yard touchdown reception from Kanell...Gained 53 yards rushing on six rushing attempts for a career-high 8.8-yards per carry at San Francisco (11-30). His previous highest average was 8.1 yards per carry vs. Arizona (11-16-97) when he gained 114 yards rushing on 14 carries...Scored the Giants go-ahead touchdown on an eight-yard run in the third quarter at Arizona (12-6). Blocking helped Brown gain 124 yards on the ground...Gained a season-high 62 yards rushing on 10 attempts at Philadelphia (12-27). Awarded an Offensive Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Eagles.

1997: Had a career year with 698 yards rushing on 151 carries with four rushing touchdowns. The 698 yards led the team...Recorded his first 100-yard rushing performance with 114 yards on 14 carries vs. Arizona (11-16), the first 100-yard game by a Giants fullback since 1983 (Rob Carpenter, 116 yards vs. Green Bay 9-26-83) and only the 10th since 1960...Started all 16 regular season games and the Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Finished second on the team in receiving with 304 yards on 37 receptions with one touchdown and returned two kickoffs for 46 yards...Team leader in all-purpose yards with 1,048...The Giants first touchdown in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31) was set up when QB Dave Brown faked a reverse and completed a short pass to Way for a 62-yard gain to the Eagles eight-yard line. Two plays later, Brown ran up the middle for a touchdown and a 7-0 Giants lead. The 62-yarder is the longest reception of Way's career. Also did an outstanding job blocking for RB Tiki Barber, who gained 88 yards on 20 carries. Named Offensive MVP by the coaching staff for his play against the Eagles...Capped a perfect two-minute drill with a one-yard touchdown pass from Brown at the end of the second quarter vs. Baltimore (9-14) to close the Ravens lead to 14-12 following a botched two-point play...Tied a career-high mark with his six receptions at St. Louis (9-21)...Blocking at the end of the game vs. New Orleans (9-28) helped RB Tyrone Wheatley gain 41 yards as the Giants ran out the final 3:38 of the game to seal the victory...Culminated the Giants only touchdown drive of the day vs. Dallas (10-5) in the fourth quarter with a three-yard touchdown run...Had 91 yards rushing on 13 attempts at Arizona (10-12). Blocking and key running ability against the Cardinals helped the Giants chalk up 239 yards on the ground...Followed his 91-yard rushing performance against Arizona with a 90-yard effort at Detroit (10-19). Carried the ball just 13 times for 90 yards for a 6.9-yard average. Had runs of 15, 16 and 28 yards. During the 28-yard run, Way dragged CB Corey Raymond for the last five yards. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play against the Lions...Led the team in rushing with 75 yards on 20 carries vs. Cincinnati (10-26). Scored on two one-yard touchdown runs for his first two-touchdown day. The 20 rushing attempts set a new single-game high mark...Recorded the first 100-yard rushing performance in his NFL career with 114 yards on 14 carries for an 8.1-yard average vs. Arizona (11-16). His 42-yard run in the third quarter against the Cardinals is the longest run of his career. Awarded a Game Ball by the coaching staff for his performance against the Cardinals...Gained 84 yards on 17 carries for a 4.9-yard average at Washington (11-23)...Lead blocking at Philadelphia (12-7) opened the holes for a 114-yard rushing performance by RB Tiki Barber. Made a pivotal block during Barber's 42-yard run to the five-yard line in the fourth quarter...His 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter vs. Washington (12-13) is the longest touchdown run of his career.

1996: Carried the ball 22 times for 79 yards and one touchdown...Caught 32 passes, third on the team, for 328 yards and a touchdown...Added seven special teams tackles and recovered a team-leading three fumbles on special teams and had two kickoff returns for 19 yards...Had a career-day with 78 yards on a team-leading four receptions vs. Buffalo (9-1). Way caught a short pass from Dave Brown in the right flat and turned the play into a 37-yard touchdown to extend the Giants lead to 17-0 in the second quarter...Named Offensive Player of the Game by the coaching staff for his excellent play against Detroit (10-27). Tyrone Wheatley was scheduled to be the Giants third down back but when he got ejected in the second half, Way took over the third down back chores. Caught three passes for 22 yards coming out of the backfield...Made some key blocks vs. Arizona (11-3) that allowed Rodney Hampton to gain 94 yards on 24 carries, his highest output of the season...Recovered a PR Marcus Dowdell muffed punt at the Cardinals 14-yard line in the third quarter at Arizona (11-17). On the Giants first play from scrimmage following the recovery, Way came out of the backfield and caught a 13-yard pass from Brown to help the Giants reach the one-yard line. Three plays later, Brown connected with Wheatley on a touchdown pass...Sprained his ankle in the Giants punt coverage unit in the third quarter vs. Dallas (11-24). Came back on the Giants next series and caught a pass from Brown to help set up the Giants fourth quarter touchdown. The Giants were faced with a third-and-nine situation at the Dallas 14-yard line when Brown completed a pass to Way, who shook off three Dallas defenders to give the Giants a first down at the five-yard line. Two plays later, Brown executed a perfect play-action fake that resulted in a four-yard touchdown pass. Named Offensive Back of the Game by the coaching staff...Lined up on the line of scrimmage as a third wide receiver in a special offensive alignment for part of the game at Miami (12-8). Had a career-high six receptions for 56 yards. Played a big role in helping the Giants running game gain 131 yards and control the clock for 36:28 of the game, including 10:33 of the final quarter. Named Offensive Player of the Game...Stiff-armed one Patriots defender to break free for an 18-yard pass play that gave the Giants a first down at the one-yard line vs. New England (12-21). On the next play, Way scored his first NFL rushing touchdown to give the Giants an early 9-0 lead. Saw more action running the ball than usual due to the injuries to Rodney Hampton (bruised knee) and Tyrone Wheatley (ankle). Set a career-high with seven rushing attempts for 36 yards. Caught three passes for 50 yards.

1995: Played in all 16 games with four starts in his rookie season...Only carried the ball two times for six yards, but caught seven passes for 76 yards and a touchdown...Showed promise as a punishing blocker and special teams player...Became first Giants rookie since Greg Jackson in 1989 to appear in Giants opening-day lineup in the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4)...Blocking helped Rodney Hampton gain 70 yards in the first half at Kansas City (9-10)...Was replaced in the starting lineup by Herschel Walker at Green Bay (9-17)...His first NFL reception vs. Arizona (10-8) resulted in a two-yard touchdown pass from Dave Brown in the third quarter to give the Giants a 14-13 lead...Returned to the starting lineup at fullback vs. Washington (12-10)...His six-yard run in the first quarter against the Redskins was his first run from scrimmage as an NFL player...At Dallas (12-17), did an excellent job as Rodney Hampton's lead blocker. Hampton had a career-day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game high mark with his 187-yard rushing performance, the fourth-best mark in team history.

College: Finished collegiate career ranked seventh on Virginia's career all-time list with 20 touchdowns...All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorable mention and recipient of the Ben Wilson Award, given to the team's Outstanding Offensive player following senior season...One of three team captains as a senior...Closed out his career with 90 yards and a touchdown on 24 attempts in a 20-10 triumph over TCU in the Independence Bowl...All-ACC honorable mention and Academic All-ACC first-team pick as a junior in 1993...Named ACC Offensive Back of the Week as he exploded for 136 yards on 12 attempts and three touchdowns in a 49-29 victory over Maryland that season.

Personal: Married (Tahesha) with daughter Fallon (1-15-97)...Civil Engineering major...Philadelphia Public League Player of the Year as a senior, adding team honors as Best Offensive Player, Best Running Back and Best Linebacker honors while serving as team captain at Northeast High...Also lettered in wrestling and track...School senator his senior year...One of two sons (brother, Cleveland) of Jacqueline and Cleveland Way...Born Charles Christopher Way on December 27, 1972 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

WIDMER TID BIT...

Composes piano music, which he says sounds like theme music to movies.

Has plans to start recording some of his music.

Transactions: Originally a seventh round (180th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1992.

NFL: Enters his fourth season as the starting middle linebacker...With the departure of Michael Brooks prior to the 1996 season, entered the starting lineup at the middle linebacker position and has been there since...Demonstrated his effectiveness on special teams and in short-yardage situations during his first four seasons...Moved into the starting lineup for the first time in his career in 1994 before handing the job back to Carlton Bailey...A former defensive lineman who worked extremely hard to master the linebacker position.

1998: Started 15 of 16 games and closed out the year with 85 total tackles (58 solos), one fumble recovery and five passes defended...Also added one special teams tackle...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10-18) as the Giants began the game in the nickel defense...Recovered a FB Bob Christian fumble following a hit by LB Jessie Armstead in the second quarter vs. Atlanta (10-11) to give the Giants a first down at the Falcons 49-yard line. The Giants fumbled the ball back to the Falcons two plays later...Left the game in the third quarter vs. Green Bay (11-15) with a concussion and was replaced in the lineup by Doug Colman...In the final minute of the game at Arizona (12-6), Widmer knocked down a QB Jake Plummer pass in the end zone on fourth down from the Giants six-yard line to enable the Giants to hang on to a 23-17 lead...Combined with S Tito Wooten to defend a QB John Elway pass intended to TE Shannon Sharpe in the end zone on a third-and-three situation that forced the Broncos to settle for a field goal during their first offensive drive of the game vs. Denver (12-13)...Finished with three solo tackles that stopped RB Bam Morris for no gain vs. Kansas City (12-20).

1997: Played in 16 games with 15 starts and finished second on the team with 90 total tackles (69 solos), 1.5 sacks and four passes defended...Also started in the Giants Wild Card game vs. Minnesota (12-27)...Was not in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (9-14) as the Giants opened the game in the nickel defense...Had a strong rush on QB Rodney Peete in the season-opener vs. Philadelphia (8-31), forcing Peete to hurry a pass that was intercepted by S Sam Games and returned 95 yards for a touchdown to end an Eagles game-tying scoring threat in the fourth quarter...The Giants seemed to escape a Jaguar scoring threat in the second quarter at Jacksonville (9-7) when LB Jessie Armstead deflected a QB Steve Matthews pass that was intercepted by Widmer in the end zone. CB Thomas Randolph was called for a pass interference penalty, giving the Jaguars a second chance at an eventual touchdown...The Saints were in position to win after recovering a QB Dave Brown fumble vs. New Orleans (9-28) that got returned to the Giants 35-yard line with 5:44 to go and the Giants in front, 14-9. On first down, CB Jason Sehorn came in on a corner blitz to knock RB Mario Bates for a two-yard loss. On the next play, Widmer sacked QB Heath Shuler for an eight-yard loss to put the Saints in a third-and-long situation...Stepped in front of FB Daryl Johnston vs. Dallas (10-5) and intercepted a QB Troy Aikman pass in the third quarter. Widmer was called for defensive pass interference on the play to cancel the interception...Played the option play perfectly in the first quarter at Tennessee (11-9), forcing Oilers QB Steve McNair to pitch the ball to RB Eddie George. The McNair mishandled pitch was recovered by S Tito Wooten at the Oilers 46-yard line. Made a juggling interception of a McNair pass at the Giants 28-yard line to end an Oilers threat in the second quarter...Combined with DE Michael Strahan on a three-yard sack of QB Jake Plummer in the third quarter vs. Arizona (11-16) to force the Cardinals into a third-and-long situation...Set a personal single-game high mark with 12 total tackles vs. Tampa Bay (11-30). His previous high was ten vs. Buffalo (9-1-96)...Intercepted a QB Jeff Hostetler pass in the third quarter vs. Washington (12-13) when he dropped into coverage on a pass intended to TE Jamie Asher.

1996: For the first time in his career, was the starter for the entire season as he started all 16 games, finishing second on the team with 103 tackles (68 solos), including two sacks...Also intercepted two passes and forced two fumbles...Led the team with nine tackles (four solos) vs. Minnesota (9-29). Helped limit a Vikings offense that was averaging 351 yards in total offense to just 228 yards...Named Defensive Player of the Game at Washington (10-20) after finishing with five total tackles, including two big hits on Redskins RB Terry Allen. After allowing 252 yards in offense in the first half, the Giants defense responded by holding the Redskins to just 78 yards in the second half...Had the first of three Giants second quarter interceptions inside Lions territory at Detroit (10-27). Set up a 38-yard field goal after he recorded his first career interception to give the Giants a first down at the Lions 21-yard line. Widmer fumbled on the return but Jason Sehorn recovered for the Giants. Sacked QB Scott Mitchell on the next series for his first sack of the 1996 season. Finished with two solo tackles before being forced to leave at the end of the third quarter after re-aggravating the bruised sternum that he suffered at Washington. Helped hold RB Barry Sanders to just eight first half yards and only 47 in the game...Led the team with eight tackles (seven solos) at Arizona (11-17). Came on a third down blitz up the middle and sacked QB Boomer Esiason for an eight-yard loss to force a third-and-long situation. Marked his second sack of the season, a career-high...Registered the first regular season forced fumble of his career vs. Dallas (11-24) when he hit WR Michael Irvin in the second quarter on the play that allowed Tito Wooten to race 54 yards for a Giants touchdown. Play helped hold the Cowboys to 33 yards rushing. RB Emmitt Smith had 18 yards on 11 carries for a 1.6 average...Helped preserve the Giants 17-7 lead in the fourth quarter at Miami (12-8) when he intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass that deflected off RB Karim Abdul-Jabbar and into Widmer's hands at the Giants nine-yard line.

1995: Played in all 16 games and led the team with 20 special teams tackles...Had eight defensive tackles as well...Helped hold return specialist Brian Mitchell to just five punt return yards at Washington (10-29)...Vs. Washington (12-10), the Redskins drove to the Giants three-yard line on their second possession and were faced with a first-and-goal situation. On their first play Widmer stuffed RB Terry Allen for a loss of two yards. The Giants held the Redskins to a field goal attempt, which fell short...Again was solid in short-yardage defense at Dallas (12-17), as he stuffed RB Emmitt Smith at the line of scrimmage on third-and-one from the Giants 10-yard line, forcing the Cowboys to settle for a field goal.

1994: Played in all 16 games with five starts at middle linebacker in the season's first six games...Shared ILB duties with Carlton Bailey the remainder of the season...Finished with 32 tackles on defense and led the team in special teams tackles with 15...Also broke up four passes on the year, including a crucial pass at end of the Cincinnati game (12-11) at the goal line that forced the Bengals to settle for a game-tying FG instead of allowing them a go-ahead TD...Made his first professional start vs. Philadelphia (9-4) and finished with five tackles and one pass defended...Started at middle linebacker at Arizona (9-11) but left the game in the first quarter with a sprained ankle...Recorded first sack of his career when he sacked QB John Freisz for a five-yard loss vs. Washington (9-18)...Was Giants special teams MVP with two solo tackles at Washington (11-27)...Teamed with S Jarvis Williams to stop Cincinnati (12-11) on fourth-and-one from the Giants 27-yard line in the third quarter of Giants 27-20 victory.

1993: Appeared in 11 games on special teams, finishing with six special teams tackles...Appeared at LB in playoff loss at San Francisco (1-15) and forced and recovered a fumble.

1992: Played in the season's final eight games after spending time on injured reserve with a back injury and then being placed on the practice squad during the first eight weeks of the season...Signed to 47-man roster on 11-7...Finished with five tackles on defense and four on special teams...Started rookie season on defensive line before being moved to LB.

College: A two-time All-Big Sky Conference performer at nose tackle for Montana State where he had 286 tackles, 66 for losses and 35 sacks, and six forced fumbles...As a senior, had 82 tackles, 20 for losses, and had seven sacks...As a junior, named Most Valuable Defensive Player of the conference after recording 93 tackles, 25 for losses, and 17 sacks...Also lettered in track as a record-setting field event performer.

Personal: An outstanding football player, wrestler and track athlete at Bozeman (Mont.) HS...While in high school, wrestled abroad on visits to Japan and China...Corey Widmer was born on December 25, 1968 in Alexandria, Virginia.

Father, the late Dr. Bob Williams, was a star QB at Notre Dame who led Irish to 7-0 victory over Oklahoma in 1957 to end Sooners' 47-game winning streak.

Transactions: Originally a first round (18th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1989.

NFL: Has been cleared by the Giants medical staff to attempt a comeback after missing the last two seasons with an eye injury....Suffered a career-threatening eye injury when he was accidentally poked in the eye during one-on-one drills on the third day of training camp in 1997...Experienced double-vision that held him out for the past two seasons...Underwent a second surgical procedure in October of 1998 that inserted a larger orbital implant...Outstanding play in 1995 and 1996 that warranted Pro Bowl consideration...Moved into the starting lineup in 1994 after serving as an important backup and spot starter at center and guard through the first five years of his career.

1998: Placed on the Physically Unable to Perform list on JULY 25 due to the infra orbital fracture to his eye that he suffered in 1997 training camp.

1997: Originally was injured on the third day of training camp when he was accidentally poked in the eye during one-on-one drills with the defensive line....Further examinations of his eye revealed an infra orbital fracture...He underwent surgery on September 12 in an effort to correct the double-vision he experienced following the injury...Eventually was placed on injured reserve on December 1...Was inactive for first 13 games of the year.

1996: Did an outstanding job of helping the Giants establish the running game and control the clock vs. Minnesota (9-29). The Giants put together scoring drives of 8:32, 6:18 and 5:48...Blocking vs. Arizona (11-3) helped Rodney Hampton gain 94 yards rushing on 24 attempts, his highest output of the 1996 season. Offense averaged 3.9 yards per play...The Giants offensive line limited the Panthers to just one sack at Carolina (11-10). Carolina entered the game as the NFL's leader in sacks...Offensive line allowed just one sack against the number one-rated defense vs. Dallas (11-24)...Due to a bulging disk, missed his first game after 33 consecutive starts at Philadelphia (12-1)...Was also forced to miss the game at Miami (12-8)...Returned to the starting lineup vs. New Orleans (12-15).

1995: Started all 16 games despite ankle and thumb problems...Returned to action in time for the season-opener vs. Dallas (9-4) after suffering an ankle sprain in a preseason game against the Saints...Anchored an offensive line that helped the Giants gain 474 total yards (including 218 on the ground) vs. New Orleans (9-24), their highest output since gaining 487 yards on 9-29-91 at Dallas...After offense gave up eight sacks at Philadelphia (11-19), offensive line helped nullify Chicago attack (11-26) as Bears did not sack Dave Brown once...Helped lead the way at Dallas (12-17) when line allowed Rodney Hampton to have a career day against the Cowboys as he set a personal single-game rushing mark with 187 yards, fourth-best in team history. Hampton's performance put him over the 1,000-yard mark for the fifth consecutive season as the Giants gained 244 yards rushing against the Cowboys. Williams threw a key block on Tyrone Wheatley's one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter of the Dallas game.

1994: Started 14 games in his first season as a full-time starter...Was inactive vs. Arizona (11-13) and did not play at Houston (11-21) due to a rib injury...Started vs. Detroit (10-30) but suffered a blow to the abdomen and was forced to leave the game in the first quarter...Following layoff due to rib injury, returned to starting lineup as RB Rodney Hampton rushed for 106 yards at Washington (11-27)...Along with fellow linemen, helped Giants sustain three first half drives at Cleveland (12-4) that totalled 195 yards...Earned Giants overall MVP honors vs. Cincinnati (12-11) as he anchored a line that allowed no sacks as the offense compiled 304 yards...Giants held the ball for 23:17, including the final 9:18 of the game, in second half of victory over Dallas (12-24).

1993: Played in all 16 games for the first time since 1990...Made one start at center vs. Philadelphia (10-17) as Bart Oates recovered from a sprained ankle...Williams and Oates split the center duties 50-50 with Williams playing the second and fourth quarters.

1992: Played in 13 games and started at center vs. Washington (12-6) when he suffered a broken right foot and was lost for the remaining three games of the season.

1991: Played in 14 games as a backup at guard and center with most work coming in short-yardage situations.

1990: Played in all 16 regular season games and three postseason games primarily in short-yardage offense and on special teams...Did get one starting assignment, at guard, vs. San Francisco (9-2) in the season-opener.

1989: Late reporting to camp as the result of extended contract negotiations...Played in 14 games and started the final four games of the season at right guard when Damian Johnson was injured and the offensive line was shuffled...Threw a couple of key blocks at Denver (12-10) as David Meggett scored on a 57-yard game-winning run.

College: Started the final two seasons of his collegiate career at Minnesota...Started at center as a junior and guard as a senior after beginning as a tight end...In 1987, helped Gophers set a school record with 2,651 yards rushing for the season...Team captain as a senior...Played in East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games.

Personal: Married (Rochele) with daughters Danielle (7) and Makayla (2) and son Maxx (5)...A football and baseball star at Mt. Lebanon (Pa.) HS...Brian Scott Williams was born on June 8, 1966 in Mount Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

"I wouldn't be here if it weren't for my brother. It was just the examples he set. I always did everything he did," says Shaun of his brother Dereck, who played at Northern Arizona and graduated with a degree in criminal justice.

Transactions: Originally a first round (24th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 1997.

NFL: Playing time in the nickel defense increased throughout his rookie season...Will compete for the starting job at strong safety during training camp this season.

1998: Played in 13 games during his rookie season as the nickel back and on special teams...Saw limited action at strong safety in the regular defense...Finished with 24 total tackles (19 solos), two interceptions, three passes defended and 10 special teams tackles...Suffered a hamstring injury at San Diego (9-27) and missed the next three games; at Tampa Bay (10-4), vs. Atlanta (10-11) and vs. Arizona (19-18)...Role in the nickel defense increased vs. Dallas (9-21) when the Giants utilized an extra defensive back with Williams in the nickel defensive package replacing injured nickel line-backer Scott Galyon (achilles/calf). Led the team in tackles against the Cowboys with seven total tackles...His strong pass rush on QB Ryan Leaf at San Diego (9-27) forced a pass that was intercepted by CB Carlton Gray and returned 36 yards to the Chargers 27-yard line in the first quarter...Role increased in the nickel defense at Arizona (12-6) when Galyon left in the first quarter with a knee/leg injury. Recorded his first NFL interception when he picked off a QB Jake Plummer pass at the Cardinals 45-yard line with 21 seconds left in the first half, setting up a 51-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso that cut the Cardinals lead to 17-10 as time expired in the first half...Following a WR Ike Hilliard fumble that gave the ball back to the Broncos inside their own territory in the third quarter vs. Denver (12-13), Williams got the ball back for the Giants when he intercepted QB John Elway's pass intended to TE Shannon Sharpe at the Giants 37-yard line. The Giants converted the turnover into a 19-yard field goal for a 13-9 lead midway through the final quarter. Play in the nickel defense helped limit Sharpe to four receptions and just 25 yards as the Giants game plan called for Williams to play a large role shadowing Sharpe...Awarded a Special Teams Game Ball by the coaching staff for his play vs. Kansas City (12-20). Finished with two solo special teams tackles as the gunner on the punt team.

College: All-American first-team pick by The Poor Man's Guide to the NFL Draft and College and Pro Football Newsweekly, adding second-team honors from Associated Press and The Sporting News...All-Pac 10 Conference first-team choice following his senior season in 1997...Started nine games at free safety and finished second on the team with 68 tackles (49 solos)...Deflected nine passes and intercepted two others...All-Pac 10 Conference honorable mention, starting nine games at free safety as a junior in 1996...Third on the team with 59 tackles (36 solos) and had three sacks for minus-21 yards that year...All-Pac 10 Conference honorable mention as a sophomore in 1995...Started every game, except vs. Arizona, at free safety...Second on the team with 69 tackles (51 solos) and five stops for losses of 12 yards that season...Reserve free safety, earning his first career start vs. Arizona as a freshman in 1994...Recorded 21 tackles (14 solos)...Came off the bench to register five tackles (three solos), including a pair of hits on the final series that helped preserve a 31-30 victory over Stanford...That performance earned him his first career start, responding with nine tackles (six solos) and a pass deflection in a 59-23 romp over Arizona State.

GIANTS 31, WASHINGTON 24
At East Rutherford, Sept. 6, 1998

The Giants opened the regular season with a 31-24 victory over NFC East rival Washington to claim their 100th Giants Stadium victory. The Giants defense forced three third quarter turnovers that led to 21 points, as the Giants broke a 10-10 tie to take a commanding 31-17 lead into the fourth quarter. Within a span of one minute in the third quarter, interceptions by CB Conrad Hamilton and DE Michael Strahan turned the 10-10 game into a 24-10 Giants lead. Following a P Brad Maynard punt that pinned the Redskins at their own five-yard line, CB Phillippi Sparks dove after a QB Gus Frerotte pass and tipped the ball into the hands of Hamilton, who raced 17 yards on the return to the Washington two-yard line. The turnover set up a FB Charles Way touchdown run for a 17-10 Giants lead. On Washington's next possession, Strahan dropped into coverage from his defensive end position and picked off a Frerotte pass and returned it 24 yards for a touchdown and a 24-10 Giants advantage. Frerotte injured his shoulder on the Hamilton return and was knocked out of the game on a sack in the third quarter. Backup QB Trent Green, who finished 17-of-25 for 208 yards with two touchdowns, was forced into action for Frerotte. After a Green touchdown pass to FB Larry Bowie closed the gap to 24-17, DT Christian Peter came up with a big play when he caused Green to fumble on a sack that DT Keith Hamilton recovered for the Giants at the Redskins 22-yard line. On the next play, QB Danny Kanell fired a touchdown pass to WR Amani Toomer for a 31-17 lead. The Redskins intercepted a Kanell pass in the fourth quarter, and Green completed five consecutive passes that culminated with a one-yard touchdown pass from Green to TE Stephen Alexander to bring the game to 31-24. Washington attempted two fourth down conversions that were stopped by the Giants on the Redskins final two drives to preserve the victory. Washington jumped to a 7-0 first quarter lead following a 17-yard Frerotte-to-WR Leslie Shepard touchdown pass. Both teams exchanged field goals in the second quarter to give the Redskins a 10-3 lead with 2:57 left to play in the half. The Giants executed the two-minute drill to tie the game, 10-10, at halftime by driving 71 yards in six plays before WR Chris Culloway broke free from a Redskins defender and put himself in position to catch a five-yard touchdown pass from Kanell. In addition to the three turnovers, the Giants defense registered eight sacks.

At Oakland, Sept. 13, 1998

The Giants fell to 1-1 on the season with a 20-17 loss to the Raiders at Oakland-Alameda Coliseum. The game got off to an inauspicious start when Raiders RB Napoleon Kaufman took a handoff and raced 80 yards untouched for a touchdown on the game's first play from scrimmage. The Giants matched the Raiders on their first possession by marching 70 yards on eight plays and tying the game on a ten-yard touchdown pass from QB Danny Kanell to WR Ike Hilliard. The game remained tied until the end of the second quarter when the officials ruled against a fumble by Kaufman that the Giants recovered deep in Oakland territory. The ruling gave possession of the ball to the Raiders and put them in position for a 41-yard field goal and a 10-7 halftime lead. The Giants opened the second half with a 49-yard kickoff return by WR David Patten to begin a drive at the Oakland 46-yard line. The Giants moved to the Oakland 20 before falling short of the first down marker and settling for a field goal. A defensive holding call against the Raiders on PK Brad Daluiso's 42-yard field goal attempt gave the Giants a first down and another chance at a touchdown. On the next play, Kanell fired a pass to the backside of Raiders CB Eric Allen and WR Chris Calloway made the catch for a 20-yard touchdown and a 14-10 Giants lead. Oakland responded with a 42-yard kickoff return to set up a nine-play, 60-yard drive that culminated with a 22-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff George to WR Tim Brown as the Raiders re-captured the lead, 17-14. Later in the third quarter, DT Robert Harris forced Raiders RB Jon Ritchie to fumble after a short pass reception. LB Marcus Buckley recovered for the Giants at the Raiders 15-yard line to position the Giants for a 43-yard Daluiso field goal to tie the game, 17-17, heading into the final quarter of play. A 39-yard punt return by WR Amani Toomer gave the Giants a first down at the Oakland 31-yard line to open the fourth quarter, but Daluiso failed to give the Giants the lead when his 40-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right. After falling behind, 20-17, on a Davis 26-yard field goal, the Giants got the ball back with 1:58 to play and began their final drive at their own 21-yard line. Faced with a fourth-and-17 from their own 34-yard line, Kanell's desperation pass to Hilliard was intercepted by S Eric Turner at the 50-yard line with 23 seconds remaining to seal the Raiders victory. The Giants were outgained in total yards (414-233), in rushing yards (162-71) and converted just one of 14 third down conversions. The Giants committed 15 penalties for 90 yards and the Raiders committed 16 penalties for 113 yards.

At East Rutherford, Sept. 21, 1998

Three big plays - a 59-yard punt return by Deion Sanders for a touchdown, a 71-yard interception return by Sanders for a touchdown and an 80-yard touchdown pass from QB Jason Garrett to WR Billy Davis - led Dallas to a 31-7 victory against the Giants in a Monday Night Football contest at Giants Stadium. It was the Giants first NFC East loss in the Jim Fassel era. For the third consecutive game the Giants offense failed to establish the run, finishing with just 56 yards on the ground. After a scoreless first quarter of play Dallas exploded for 17 points to take a commanding 17-7 lead into halftime. The first Dallas score came when Sanders fielded a punt at the Dallas 41-yard line and busted through the Giants line of defense en route to a 59-yard touchdown return. The Giants tied the game at 7-7 later in the period when QB Danny Kanell finished a nine-play, 74-yard drive with a 36-yard touchdown pass to WR Amani Toomer. Dallas reclaimed the lead on their next possession when the Giants secondary got crossed in coverage, allowing Garrett to complete a pass to Davis for an 80-yard touchdown. With under three minutes to go in the first half, CB Kevin Smith intercepted a Kanell pass at midfield, and the Cowboys converted the turnover into a 40-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. The Giants first four drives in the second half netted just two yards, and the last three gained 107 but resulted in a fumble and two interceptions. A 55-yard pass play from Garrett to Sanders set up an 18-yard touchdown run by Dallas RB Sherman Williams for a 24-7 Cowboys lead for the only scoring in the third quarter. The Cowboys final touchdown came after Sanders picked off a Kanell pass at the 29-yard line and scored on a 71-yard return for the 31-7 final.

Game 4 GIANTS 34, SAN DIEGO 16 At San Diego, Sept. 27, 1998

The Giants evened their record at 2-2 with a 34-16 victory over the Chargers at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium. The Giants converted three of four interceptions off QB Ryan Leaf into 21 points, including an interception that was returned 20 yards for a touchdown by S Percy Ellsworth. QB Danny Kanell completed several clutch throws, and RB Gary Brown emerged with 20 carries for 66 yards as the Giants cracked the 100-yard rushing mark for the first time this season with 105 yards. Kanell converted on third down passes of third-and-11, third-and-four and third-and-10 to get the Giants down to the San Diego four-yard line on their first scoring drive where Brown scored for a 7-0 first quarter lead. The Giants took a 14-0 lead when CB Carlton Gray intercepted a Leaf pass and returned it 36 yards to the Chargers 27, setting up a 25-yard touchdown pass from Kanell to WR Chris Calloway. Following an Ellsworth interception of a Leaf pass, Kanell completed a 17-yard pass to Calloway on third-and-ten to give the Giants a first down at the Chargers 30-yard line. A 22-yard pass to WR Ike Hilliard moved the Giants to the five-yard line en route to FB Charles Way's one-yard touchdown run and a commanding 21-0 second quarter lead. The Chargers scored on their next three drives but were held to field goals to cut the Giants lead to 21-9. San Diego's comeback threat ended on their second series in the third quarter when Ellsworth made a perfect read and picked off a Leaf pass that he took 20 yards for a touchdown to put the Giants in front, 28-9. P Brad Maynard helped set up the interception play with a 61-yard punt that pinned the Chargers at their own 12-yard line. San Diego closed the gap to 28-16 when backup QB Craig Whelihan entered the game and completed a 41-yard touchdown pass to WR Charlie Jones. Field goals of 32 and 19 yards in the fourth quarter by PK Brad Daluiso closed out the scoring in the Giants victory that snapped a two-game losing skid.

Game 5 TAMPA BAY 20, GIANTS 3 At Tampa, Oct. 4, 1998

The Buccaneers converted two QB Danny Kanell interceptions into an early 10-0 first quarter lead en route to a 20-3 victory over the visiting New York Giants. Tampa Bay S Charles Mincy intercepted a Kanell pass on the game's third play from scrimmage and ran 22 yards untouched for a touchdown and a 7-0 Buccaneers lead. Later in the first quarter, Buccaneers DE Regan Upshaw dropped into coverage and picked off a Kanell pass to help set up a field goal. The Tampa Bay defense limited the Giants offense to just eight first downs, 135 yards in total offense and 71 net yards passing. The Giants defense helped keep the game close by limiting the Buccaneers to just 59 net yards passing and controlling the Bucs rushing attack for most of the game. The Giants defense set the Giants offense up twice in prime position. A LB Marcus Buckley interception gave the Giants the ball at the Buccaneers 40-yard line in the second quarter, but the offense failed to move the ball and was forced to punt. With the score 10-0 early in the fourth quarter, CB Carlton Gray forced QB Trent Dilfer to fumble on a sack, and DE Chad Bratzke recovered for the Giants at the ten-yard line to set up a PK Brad Daluiso field goal that closed the score to 10-3. The Giants offense failed to produce on two other key opportunities. First, the Giants fielded a punt in the first quarter at the 50-yard line and drove as far as the Buccaneers 21-yard line before Kanell was intercepted by Upshaw. Then, after stopping Tampa Bay on a fourth-and-one play late in the third quarter at the New York 45, the Giants offense took over and drove to the 27-yard line. The scoring threat ended when the Giants lined up for a field goal attempt but P Brad Maynard did not get a good hold on the snap from center and was forced to attempt a pass that fell incomplete. RB Warrick Dunn and FB Mike Alstott combined for 49 yards rushing on the next series, leading the Buccaneers on a 13-play, 61-yard drive that consumed 8:18 and ended in a 26-yard field goal by Michael Husted for a 13-3 Tampa Bay lead. The Buccaneers put the game out of reach with under two minutes to play after CB Ronde Barber intercepted a Kanell pass and returned it 11 yards to the Giants 11-yard line to put the Buccaneers in position for Alstott's one-yard touchdown run.

At East Rutherford, Oct. 11, 1998

The Giants record dropped to 2-4 following a 34-20 defeat to the Atlanta Falcons in front of a nationally-televised audience on ESPN's Sunday Night Football. Falcons QB Chris Chandler threw for 266 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score. RB Jamal Anderson balanced the Atlanta attack by rushing for 110 yards on 29 carries. Despite struggling in every phase of the game in the second half, the Giants managed to keep it close in the first half after a two-minute drill executed by QB Danny Kanell resulted in a 39-yard touchdown pass to WR David Patten to cut the Falcons lead to 14-13. Kanell completed just 11 of 21 passes for 100 yards before being replaced by backup QB Kent Graham with six minutes left in the fourth quarter. Before being pulled, the Giants had four second half drives that resulted in zero net yards. The game started in the Giants favor as the defense forced a turnover on Atlanta's first drive when LB Jessie Armstead stripped Anderson of the football, setting up a 46-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso to put the Giants in front, 3-0. Atlanta quickly took a 7-3 advantage just four plays after the Giants field goal when Chandler sold the Giants on the play-action fake and connected with WR Tony Martin for a 36-yard touchdown pass. The Giants defense put the offense in scoring position again when they forced a punt that was fielded at the 50-yard line later in the first period. The Giants moved to the 27-yard line where Daluiso narrowed the Atlanta lead to 7-6 with a 45-yard field goal. With the Giants backed up deep in their own territory early in the second quarter, Kanell faded back to pass and Falcons DE Antonio Edwards batted the ball out of Kanell's hands and into his own for a two-yard fumble return for a touchdown and a 14-6 advantage. Atlanta scored on four out of five second half drives to take a commanding 34-13 lead midway through the fourth quarter. Atlanta took the second half kickoff 65 yards in 11 plays for a field goal, and then Chandler picked a part the Giants defense and connected with WR Terance Mathis for a 55-yard touchdown pass on their next offensive series for a 24-13 lead. Anderson led the Falcons to the Giants one-yard line early in the fourth quarter, setting up a one-yard touchdown run by Chandler for a 31-13 lead. On the following series, the Falcons recovered another Kanell fumble at the Giants 15-yard line and scored on a 32-yard Anderson field goal. Graham, who finished 11-of-16 for 105 yards, completed seven of nine passes for 56 yards in leading the Giants to the five-yard line where he scored on a draw up the middle for a 34-20 final.

Game 7
At East Rutherford, Oct. 18, 1998

The Giants snapped a two-game losing streak with a 34-7 victory over the Arizona Cardinals to improve their season record to 3-4. QB Danny Kanell and RB Gary Brown sparked an offense that put together the Giants three longest drives of the season. Kanell completed 22 of 36 passes, matched a career-high three touchdowns and established a career-high with 259 yards. The Giants offensive line controlled the Cardinals "Cactus Curtain" defensive front and helped Brown rush for 108 yards. The Giants outgained the Cardinals 390-190 in total yards, 141-62 in rushing yards and 249-132 in passing yards. On defense, the Giants produced eight sacks, two interceptions and recovered a fumble to set up a Giants touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Giants jumped in front 14-0 with two impressive first half drives. First, Kanell took the Giants on an 11-play, 66-yard drive that culminated when Kanell completed a one-yard touchdown pass to FB Charles Way to convert a fourth-and-goal situation in the first quarter. Next, Brown scored on a one-yard run on the Giants next offensive series to complete an 11-play, 79-yard drive to make it 14-0 early in the second quarter. After fielding a short kickoff by the Giants, the Cardinals got their only points of the day when QB Jake Plummer connected with TE Johnny McWilliams for a 14-yard touchdown pass after fielding a short kickoff by the Giants. The Giants only major mistake on offense occurred in the second quarter when PK Brad Daluiso's 33-yard field goal attempt hooked wide left after LB Jessie Armstead intercepted a Plummer pass that gave the Giants a first down at the Arizona 16-yard line. The Giants got the ball back with 1:02 left in the first half and increased their lead to 17-7 by moving to the Cardinals nine-yard line to set up a successful Daluiso 26-yard field goal attempt. The drive was highlighted by a drop-off pass from Kanell to RB Tiki Barber, who broke for a 27-yard gain to the nine-yard line. S Percy Ellsworth made a leaping interception of a Plummer pass for a Giants first down at the Cardinals 40-yard line in the third quarter to set up a Daluiso 34-yard field goal and a 20-7 Giants lead. Kanell drove the Giants 80 yards in nine plays on the next series and found WR Chris Calloway open for a 19-yard touchdown to increase the Giants lead to 27-7 heading into the final quarter of play. LB Scott Galyon forced and recovered a Plummer fumble on a sack to set up the Giants final touchdown, an 18-yard pass from Kanell to WR Amari Toomer.

1998 GAME REVIEWS

Game 8 WASHINGTON 21, GIANTS 14 At Washington, Nov. 1, 1998

The Giants traveled to Washington and fell victim to the winless Redskins (0-7) in a 21-14 defeat at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium. Washington P Matt Turk pinned the Giants deep into their own territory by landing punts at the seven-yard line and the one-yard line late in the fourth quarter to help negate the Giants comeback chances. The Giants, who fell behind 21-7, struggled offensively with just one of their 13 offensive drives gaining more than 30 yards. Redskins QB Trent Green completed three passes that moved Washington to the Giants seven-yard line for their first score, as he capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 first quarter lead. The Giants answered by taking the ensuing kickoff and scoring on a 90-yard return by WR David Patten to tie the game, 7-7, at the end of the first quarter. The Redskins took their next possession and converted three third down plays before Green connected with FB Stephen Davis for a touchdown pass to complete an 11-play, 69-yard drive to put Washington in front, 14-7, early in the second quarter. The Redskins increased their lead to 21-7 by taking their first possession of the second half and marching 69 yards on 10 plays and scoring on a four-yard touchdown run by RB Skip Hicks. The Giants only productive offensive drive came late in the third quarter on a play that was built around a deep pass from QB Danny Kanell to WR Ike Hilliard. That play resulted in a 46-yard gain and a Giants first down at the Redskins 24-yard line. Two plays later, Kanell fired an 11-yard touchdown pass to Hilliard to close the Redskins lead to 21-14. The Giants had two short yardage failures late in the fourth quarter that ended their hopes of mounting a scoring drive to tie the game.

Game 9 DALLAS 16, GIANTS 6 At Irving, Nov. 8, 1998

The Giants played a tight game with the Dallas Cowboys for the first three quarters until the Cowboys controlled the clock for 12:17 of the final period to turn a 9-6 lead into a 16-6 victory at Texas Stadium. The Giants defense did not force any turnovers and allowed RB Emmitt Smith to gain 163 yards rushing. Smith, who had 106 yards at halftime, powered the Cowboys to the Giants 20-yard line on the game's opening drive before the Giants defense forced the Cowboys to settle for a 37-yard field goal. The Giants answered on their first offensive series by marching 67 yards on 11 plays to tie the game at 3-3 on a 32-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso as the first quarter drew to a close. The teams exchanged field goals in the second quarter for a 6-6 tie at the half. The Giants put together their most time-consuming drive of the season, a 12-play, 79-yard drive that lasted 6:18. A 17-yard pass from QB Danny Kanell to WR Joe Jurevicius on third-and-three gave the Giants a first-and-goal at the Cowboys one-yard line, but the Giants were forced to settle for a 23-yard Daluiso field goal and missed a chance to take the lead. The Giants missed a key opportunity in the beginning of the third quarter when WR Chris Calloway lost a costly fumble after a 23-yard pass play from Kanell that would have given the Giants a first down at the Dallas 35-yard line. The Giants defense did hold the Cowboys on their ensuing drive, but later in the third quarter a combination of poor punting, strong running by Smith and precise passing by QB Troy Aikman allowed Dallas to take the lead. The Cowboys took advantage of a short punt to begin a drive at the Giants 46-yard line. Three QB Troy Aikman passes followed by Smith's strong running helped put the Cowboys in position for a 19-yard field goal and a 9-6 Cowboys lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Cowboys scored on their first possession in the fourth quarter, a drive that took 6:33 off the clock and culminated with a two-yard touchdown pass from Aikman to TE Eric Bjornson for a 16-6 lead. The Giants had just one offensive drive in the entire fourth quarter, reaching their own 45-yard line before punting the ball back to Dallas. The Cowboys ran out the final 6:01 of the game to secure the victory. RB Gary Brown had runs of 34 and 38 yards for the Giants in a performance that saw him chalk up 119 yards on 15 carries for a 7.9-yard average.

At East Rutherford, Nov. 15, 1998

The Giants offense continued to struggle in a lopsided 37-3 defeat to the Green Bay Packers that dropped the Giants to 3-7 on the year. The Giants were outgained in total yards, 433-127; passing yards, 264-62; and rushing yards, 169-65. Minus the last possession when they took a knee on two plays to run out the clock, the Packers were in position to score on nine of 12 drives, including two drives that ended in missed field goals. The Giants had just four offensive drives last more than four plays and only one of those drives gained more than 30 yards. After falling behind 20-3 at the half, the Giants held the ball for just 3:39 in the third quarter and 4:11 in the fourth. After pinning the Giants deep in their own territory, the Packers defense forced the Giants to punt into the wind from their own 19-yard line midway through the first quarter. The Packers took advantage of the good field position and drove 50 yards in 11 plays before QB Brett Favre connected on a two-yard scoring pass to TE Tyrone Davis for a 7-0 lead. S LeRoy Butler intercepted a QB Danny Kanell pass at midfield to help set up a 39-yard field goal by PK Ryan Longwell for a 10-0 Packers lead early in the second quarter. The Giants answered with their only sustained drive of the day, a 62-yard drive that was aided by two passes from Kanell to WR Ike Hilliard. Kanell hit Hilliard for a 19-yard gain and followed that with a 21-yard completion to Hilliard to get the Giants in position for a 24-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal that narrowed the Packers lead to 10-3. The Giants gained a total of just 70 yards for the rest of the game. Two plays after the Giants score, Davis caught a short pass from Favre and outran the Giants safeties for a 60-yard score and a 17-3 Green Bay advantage. On the following series, DE Reggie White knocked the ball out of Kanell's hand, and the Packers recovered at the Giants 30-yard line to set up Longwell's 24-yard field goal to put the Packers in front, 20-3, as time expired in the first half. The Giants gained just 46 yards in the second half as they watched Green Bay score on three of their first four drives to close out a 37-3 rout. Packers RB Darick Holmes became the first Green Bay running back this season to crack the 100-yard barrier with a 111-yard rushing performance.

Game 11
At East Rutherford, Nov. 22, 1998

The Giants shut out the Philadelphia Eagles, 20-0, in an NFC East matchup at Giants Stadium to end a three-game losing streak. The Eagles kept it close despite committing one costly turnover and 73 yards in penalties until the Giants scored 17 second half points to put the game out of reach. Philadelphia only had two drives into Giants territory that were serious scoring threats. In the second quarter, the Eagles reached the Giants 27-yard line but missed on a field goal attempt. Early in the fourth quarter with the Giants in front, 13-0, the Eagles were at the Giants 11-yard line when CB Phillippi Sparks picked off a QB Bobby Hoyer pass in the end zone to keep the Eagles scoreless. The Giants took the lead in the first quarter on a 40-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso. QB Kent Graham, who completed 10 of 21 passes for 153 yards with one touchdown and one interception in his first start in place of Danny Kanell, fired a 22-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway followed by a 15-yard strike to WR Ike Hilliard to push the Giants into Eagles territory to set up the field goal. After a scoreless second quarter, the Giants snapped an 11-quarter streak without a touchdown and extended their lead to 10-0 when RB Gary Brown scored on a four-yard touchdown run to complete a nine-play, 49-yard drive in the third quarter. Graham completed a 14-yard pass to WR Amani Toomer on third-and-13 to keep the drive alive with a first down at the Eagles 22-yard line. After stopping the Eagles on three straight plays on the next series, the Giants got the ball back and ran eight straight running plays to move down field and into position for Daluiso's 49-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter for a 13-0 lead. Sparks' second interception of the day helped set up the Giants final score as Graham completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to RB Tiki Barber right before the two-minute mark of the fourth quarter to seal the victory. Brown paced the Giants running attack with 96 yards on 27 attempt for a 3.6-yard average.

 At San Francisco, Nov. 30, 1998

The San Francisco 49ers amassed 466 yards in total offense to overtake the Giants, 31-7, in a nationally-televised Monday Night Football game at 3Com Park. The Giants were down 14-7 at the half and 21-7 entering the final quarter before the 49ers scored 10 unanswered points to put the game out of reach. After stopping the 49ers on the game's opening series, QB Kent Graham completed a 48-yard pass off a play-action fake to WR Ike Hilliard that gave the Giants a first down at the San Francisco 32-yard line. Three plays later, RB Gary Brown scored on an 11-yard run to give the Giants a 7-0 lead. The Giants defense stopped the 49ers on the next series, but the Giants' ensuing drive ended when DE Roy Barker stripped Graham of the football, allowing LB Ken Norton to recover at the 49ers own 32-yard line. The Giants lead was preserved when PK Wade Richey's 41-yard field goal was wide left. The Giants good fortune was short-lived. On the 49ers next offensive series, WR Terrell Owens turned a one-yard pass reception from QB Steve Young into a 79-yard scoring play when Owens escaped a tackle attempt by CB Conrad Hamilton. San Francisco held the ball for 10:16 of the second quarter, including a 90-yard, 13-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown pass from Young to TE Irv Smith for a 14-7 San Francisco lead at the half. The 49ers maintained their seven-point lead until midway through the third quarter. San Francisco PR R.W. McQuarters returned a Giants punt 26 yards and a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty against S Shaun Williams gave the 49ers a first down at the Giants 37-yard line. That play helped set up a seven-yard scoring run by RB Terry Kirby that put San Francisco in front, 21-7. The Giants still had a chance to get back into the game, but their next two offensive drives ended in missed field goals. San Francisco put the game out of reach by adding a field goal and a touchdown in the fourth quarter. Their final touchdown was a 70-yard run by RB Garrison Hearst, who exploded for 166 yards on 20 carries.

At Tempe, Dec. 6, 1998

The Giants overcame a 17-7 deficit to pull out a 23-19 victory in 39-degree weather at Arizona's Sun Devil Stadium. An 87-yard pass play from QB Kent Graham to RB Tiki Barber, three field goals by PK Brad Daluiso and a 124-yard rushing performance by RB Gary Brown helped power the Giants offense. The Giants defense forced three turnovers, one that prevented a potential touchdown and two that led to Giants scores. The Cardinals built a 17-7 lead midway through the second quarter. First, Arizona QB Jake Plummer connected with RB Adrian Murrell for a 20-yard touchdown pass to complete an 11-play, 80-yard drive. The Giants tied the game on the ensuing drive when Barber caught a short pass from Graham on a third-and-19 play and broke free for the 87-yard touchdown for the Giants sixth-longest scoring play from scrimmage in team history. Arizona answered on their next drive by taking a 14-7 lead on an eight-yard touchdown run by Murrell. Plummer set up the score with a 54-yard pass to RB Larry Centers for a first down at the Giants eight-yard line. The Cardinals extended their lead to 17-7 after a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on a P Brad Maynard punt put the Cardinals in position for a 21-yard PK Chris Jacke field goal. Late in the first half, rookie S Shaun Williams picked off a Plummer pass to give the Giants a first down at the Cardinals 45-yard line with just 21 seconds left in the half. Two plays later, Daluiso was good from 51 yards out to cut the Arizona lead to 17-10 at halftime. The Giants scored on their first three drives in the second half to take the lead. Daluiso capped a 63-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal to get the Giants within four at 17-13. Then, DE Cedric Jones stripped Plummer of the football on a sack to help set up the Giants go-ahead touchdown with a first down at the Cardinals 36-yard line. Brown and FB Charles Way's strong runs pushed the Giants to the Arizona eight-yard line where Way scored on an eight-yard run for a 20-17 Giants lead. On the next series, Plummer completed a 19-yard pass followed by a 38-yard pass to give Arizona a first down at the Giants one-yard line. DE Michel Strahan and LB Corey Widmer stopped RB Mario Bates for a one-yard loss on first down. Strahan tackled Plummer behind the line of scrimmage for a two-yard loss on second down, and CB Jeremy Lincoln intercepted a Plummer pass in the end zone on third down to enable the Giants to hold their lead. The Giants then drove to the Arizona 28-yard line where Daluiso made a 45-yarder to put the Giants in front, 23-17, early in the fourth quarter. The Giants needed one more effort by the defense following a QB Kent Graham interception that put Arizona in scoring position with a first down at the Giants 40-yard line. In the final minutes of the game, Widmer knocked down a Plummer pass in the end zone on fourth down from the Giants six-yard line. Three plays later, head coach Jim Fassel elected to take a safety when P Brad Maynard ran out of the end zone, and the Giants hung on for the victory.

Game 14
At East Rutherford, Dec. 13, 1998

The Giants ended the Denver Broncos bid for an undefeated season with a defensive effort that held the high-powered Denver offense to a pair of field goals and only one touchdown in a 20-16 victory. The Giants improved to 6-8 to keep their slim playoff hopes alive. Quarterback Kent Graham completed a 37-yard touchdown pass to WR Amani Toomer to give the Giants the lead with just 48 seconds left in the game. Denver took the ensuing kickoff and reached the 30-yard line before S Percy Ellsworth knocked down QB John Elway's desperation pass in the end zone on the last play of the game to ensure the Giants' victory. The Giants overcame fourth quarter fumbles by WR Ike Hilliard and RB Gary Brown to pull off the upset. The Giants were clinging to a 10-9 lead in the fourth quarter when Hilliard dropped the ball while running inside Denver territory. After S Shaun Williams ended the Broncos drive with an interception, Brown, who finished with 112 yards on 18 carries, broke free for a 45-yard gain to the Denver 18-yard line. The Giants advanced to the Broncos five-yard and caught a break when a Brown fumble in the end zone was negated by an offside penalty against Denver. The Giants failed to score on two plays from inside the five-yard line and settled for a 19-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal that increased the Giants lead to 13-9. The Broncos marched 76 yards in 13 plays on their next drive and captured the lead when RB Terrell Davis scored on a 27-yard run to put Denver in front, 16-13, with 4:08 remaining in the game. The Giants immediately moved into scoring position when Graham completed a 36-yard pass to WR Chris Calloway for a Giants first down at the Denver 38-yard line. On the next play, Brown lost his first fumble in nearly four full seasons when he was stripped at the 29-yard line by S Tyrone Braxton with 3:36 left on the game clock. After holding the Broncos offense, Toomer misplayed a Denver punt, forcing the Giants to begin a drive at their own 14-yard line with 1:49 left to play and no timeouts. Graham scrambled 23 yards to the Denver 38-yard line before completing an 11-yard pass to WR Joe Jurevicius on third down to give the Giants a first down at the Denver 37-yard line with just 57 seconds left to set up Graham's game-winning touchdown to Toomer. Denver opened the game with a 7:59 drive that reached the Giants six-yard line and ended in a PK Jason Elam field goal for a 3-0 Broncos lead. The Giants tied the game at 3-3 on their first offensive drive. That drive was kept alive by a 19-yard run by Brown on third-and-one from the Denver 42-yard line. The Broncos took a 6-3 lead on their next drive after a 38-yard field goal by Elam early in the second quarter. The Giants moved 80 yards on 15 plays on a drive that took 5:25 minutes off the clock and ended when Graham threw a swing pass to RB Tiki Barber who turned the play into a 21-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 10-6 lead right before the end of the first half.

At East Rutherford, Dec. 20, 1998

The Giants kept their playoff chances alive with a 28-7 victory over the visiting Kansas City Chiefs to raise their record to 7-8 in the 1,000 regular season game in team history. The Giants jumped out to a 21-0 lead and cruised to victory behind a solid defense that forced four interceptions and limited the Kansas City running game to 66 yards. S Percy Ellsworth set the tone early when he intercepted a deflected QB Elvis Grbac pass on the third play of the game and returned the pick 43 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 Giants lead. After stopping the Chiefs on the next series, QB Kent Graham engineered an 83-yard drive that included a 14-yard toss to WR Amani Toomer on third-and-eight to keep the drive alive. The march down the field culminated with a 12-yard touchdown pass from Graham to Toomer for a 14-0 Giants first quarter lead. The Giants defense stopped the Chiefs on a fourth-and-one conversion in the second quarter, allowing the Giants to take over on downs at the Kansas City 44-yard line. Graham converted a key third down pass to push the Giants to the one-yard line and RB Gary Brown scored from there for a 21-0 halftime lead. Graham hooked up with WR Ike Hilliard for a 32-yard gain on third-and-eight to keep the drive going. In the third quarter, a 23-yard burst by RB Tiki Barber highlighted a 67-yard drive that Graham capped off by scoring from six yards out on a quarterback draw to give the Giants a 28-0 advantage. Kansas City finally got on the scoreboard late in the third quarter with a seven-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a Grbac to TE Tony Gonzalez four-yard touchdown pass. Brown (25-103), who had his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season, helped the Giants run out the clock in the final quarter to seal the victory.

Game 16
At Philadelphia, Dec. 27, 1998

The Giants entered the last week of the regular season with a shot of making the postseason field as the final Wild Card team. The Giants needed a win over Philadelphia combined with Tampa Bay and Arizona losses to enter the NFC playoffs. The Buccaneers defeated the Cincinnati Bengals, 35-0, in an early afternoon game to end the Giants playoff hopes. Still, the Giants defeated the Eagles, 20-10, at Veterans Stadium to finish the year with a four-game winning streak that enabled the Giants to turn a 3-7 start into an 8-8 final record to avoid a losing season. The Giants engineered two impressive drives in the second half to overcome a 10-6 deficit. On the first, QB Kent Graham took the Giants 77 yards in 12 plays. Graham converted two third down attempts and ended the drive successfully when his pass intended to WR Ike Hilliard deflected into WR Chris Calloway's hands in the end zone for a 13-10 Giants lead at the end of the third quarter. The Eagles came right back, taking the ensuing kick and reaching the Giants 11-yard line early in the fourth quarter. But S Sam Gaines intercepted QB Koy Detmer's pass to put the Giants in position for their final touchdown drive to preserve their lead. RB Gary Brown (25-112), who finished with his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game to hit the 1,000-yard milestone, powered the Giants 81 yards on 11 plays before Graham connected with Calloway on an 18-yard touchdown for the Giants final touchdown in the fourth quarter. The Giants went three-and-out on their first two series of the game before taking a 3-0 lead on a 45-yard scoring drive at the end of the first half that ended with a 43-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso. Philadelphia RB Duce Staley broke free for a 64-yard touchdown run at the beginning of the second quarter to give the Eagles a 7-3 lead. The Giants answered by reaching the Philadelphia 16-yard line on their next series but failed to take the lead after being held to a 33-yard Daluiso field goal. Philadelphia increased its lead with a field goal at the end of the second quarter to take a 10-6 halftime lead.

1998 GIANTS PRESEASON REVIEW

GIANTS, 24, CINCINNATI 17 at Giants Stadium, August 8, 1998

The Giants defense provided four turnovers to set up all 24 points in a 24-17 victory over the visiting Cincinnati Bengals in the 1998 preseason opener. CB Phillip Sparks was the triggerman for the Giants first two turnovers. He ended the Bengals first drive of the game when he caused a RB Corey Dillon fumble that S Rodney Young returned 18 yards to the Cincinnati 34-yard line. QB Danny Kanell, who finished the night 8 of 15 for 85 yards with one touchdown in first quarter action, moved the Giants to the four-yard line to set up a touchdown run by RB Tiki Barber for a 7-0 lead. Two possessions later Sparks stepped in front of WR Carl Pickens to intercept a QB Jeff Blake pass at the Bengals 44-yard line, setting up an eventual nine-yard touchdown pass from Kanell to TE Howard Cross for a 14-0 Giants lead. CB Jason Sehorn ended the Bengals next drive when he picked off a Blake pass and returned it 26 yards to the Cincinnati 25-yard line to set up a 38-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal and a 17-0 lead. The Bengals only first half score came as the result of a Giants turnover. Backup QB Kent Graham fumbled when sacked and Cincinnati recovered at the Giants 26-yard line to set up a field goal. In the second half, the Giants second defense picked up where the Giants first unit left off. First round draft choice S Shaun Williams forced and recovered a RB Eric Bienenmy fumble at the Bengals 46-yard line. The Giants moved to the 14-yard line before third-string QB Mike Cherry connected with WR Omar Douglas for a touchdown and a 24-3 Giants advantage. Cincinnati scored 14 points in the fourth quarter to close the gap to 24-17, but the Giants defense held on for the victory.

JACKSONVILLE 24, GIANTS 10 at Jacksonville, August 14, 1998

The Jaguars defeated the Giants, 24-10, in a game that was delayed at the start by severe lightening and thunderstorms at Jacksonville's ALLTEL Stadium. The final score was not indicative of the difference in performance between the two teams. The Giants were outgained in total yards, 347-174, outgained in rushing yards, 219-41, held to just seven first downs and had only four of 14 offensive series that lasted longer than three plays. The Jaguars drove deep into Giants territory on their first three possessions, but two missed field goals sandwiched between a QB Mark Brunell touchdown pass on the Jaguars second drive of the game kept the score close at 7-0 heading into the second quarter. The Giants had a chance to tie the game when CB Jason Sehorn intercepted a pass and ran it back 30 yards for an apparent touchdown, but the play was called back because of a defensive holding call against CB Phillip Sparks. QB Danny Kanell, who struggled in finishing two-of-nine for 47 yards, hit WR Ike Hilliard for a 31-yard gain to move the Giants into Jaguars territory at the 36-yard line midway through the second quarter. The pass helped set up the Giants only first half points, a 34-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal. The Jaguars got the ball back with 1:52 remaining in the first half and executed a perfect two-minute drill, setting up a 26-yard field goal for a 10-3 halftime lead. Jacksonville ran the score to 17-3 in the third quarter when RB Tavian Banks reversed field on a sweep and broke free for a 59-yard touchdown. The Giants only touchdown of the game came at the end of the third quarter when QB Kent Graham connected with WR Amani Toomer for a short gain. Toomer, who was ruled by the officials not to have been downed by the defense, raced to the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown play to close the Jaguars lead to 17-10 heading into the final quarter of play. The Jaguars added a touchdown in the fourth quarter when third-string QB Jonathan Quinn connected with WR Alvis Whitted on a 31-yard touchdown pass.

At JETS 27, GIANTS 23, at Giants Stadium, August 20, 1998

The Giants lost a preseason battle with the Jets, 27-23, but more importantly CB Jason Sehorn was lost for the season due to a knee injury. Sehorn tore the anterior cruciate ligament and the medial collateral ligament of his right knee during his first-ever kickoff return on the game's opening play. He returned the kick 33 yards before injuring his knee on a tackle and fumbling the ball away in the process. The Jets took over at the Giants 38-yard line and drove to the three-yard line before QB Glenn Foley completed a touchdown pass to WR Wayne Chrebet for a 6-0 Jets lead following a failed extra point attempt. The Giants answered back on their first offensive series by culminating a 10-play, 61-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Tiki Barber for a 7-6 advantage. QB Danny Kanell, who completed his first six passes and finished 16-of-25 for 156 yards, completed throws of 19 yards each to WR Ike Hilliard and WR David Patten to put the Giants in position for a 33-yard PK Brad Daluiso field goal for a 10-6 lead. Hilliard answered any lingering questions about his back and neck problems by catching seven passes for 74 yards. Foley completed passes of 21 and 23 yards to set up a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Curtis Martin on the ensuing drive to put the Jets back in front, 13-10. The Giants recaptured the lead before halftime when rookie FB Greg Comella scored on a one-yard run up the middle to make it 17-13. S Percy Ellsworth increased the Giants lead to 23-13 when he intercepted a Foley pass intended for RB Keith Byars and raced untouched for a 42-yard score to open the third quarter. Two big plays by the Jets turned the game in their favor. First, RB Leon Johnson returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown to make it 23-20. Then, QB Vinny Testaverde connected with WR Dedric Ward on a 15-yard pass before Ward turned the play into an 81-yard touchdown to close out a 27-23 Jets victory.

BALTIMORE 14, GIANTS 6 at Giants Stadium, August 28, 1998

The Giants closed out the 1998 preseason with a 1-3 record following a 14-6 defeat at the hands of the visiting Baltimore Ravens. One of the highlights for the Giants was the play of second round draft choice WR Joe Jurevicius. The 6-5, 230-pound rookie caught three passes for 118 yards, including a 59-yard reception from QB Kent Graham to get the Giants down to the Ravens four-yard line to set up a field goal in the third quarter. After a scoreless first half that saw each team exchange punts on the first ten possessions, the Giants jumped in front, 6-0, with a pair of field goals in the third quarter. A 19-yard pass from Graham to TE Andy Haase and a 16-yard run by RB Tyrone Wheatley to open the second half led to a 46-yard field goal by PK Brad Daluiso for a 3-0 lead. Graham hit Jurevicius for the 59-yard pass play on the next Giants drive, but the Giants were forced to settle for a 22-yard Daluiso field goal after failing to score on three straight plays from the four-yard line. Baltimore jumped in front on their next offensive series, driving 81 yards on six plays and taking the lead on a 23-yard touchdown run by RB Errict Rhett. After recovering a Graham fumble at the Giants 13-yard line early in the fourth quarter, S Percy Ellsworth ended a Baltimore scoring threat when he intercepted his second Ravens pass of the night, this one a QB Wally Richardson toss in the end zone. The Ravens put the game out of reach with 28 seconds remaining when RB Priest Holmes scored on a five-yard touchdown run up the middle for a 14-6 final.

GIANTS HISTORY

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

HISTORY CAPSULE

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to knock their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "sneakers game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever was a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to teams like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s, the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces started to fall together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February of the Super Bowl year it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was brought to New York before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record.

The Giants have won 17 NFL Divisional Championships and six NFL championships, including two Super Bowl championship titles. Their success has made them a fixture in the National Football League and the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area.

WHY GIANTS?

After Tim Mara purchased the Giants in 1925, he decided to call his team the New York Football Giants since they played at the Polo Grounds, the same stadium as the heralded New York Giants baseball team. The baseball team got its name from all of the giant buildings that made up the city of New York. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, Mara believed that the name Giants would strike a chord with the people and help provoke interest in his football club.

Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after just the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds against the Frankford Yellow Jackets and lost their home debut, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927

Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the thirteen game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and only allowed a mere 20 points all year.

1928

After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929

Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930

For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931

After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932

Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard-fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass reception champion with 21 catches.

The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

1934

In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27 point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935

After beginning the season with a 3-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit.

1936

The first NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick in it was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, making only the third time in the teams twelve-year history that it finished without a winning record.

1937

Seventeen rookies helped make up the twenty-five man roster in 1937. The 1937 season also marked the debut of the now familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938

A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. Forty-eight thousand one hundred twenty fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants had the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939

On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940

The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing that for the tenth year in a row.

1941

With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and a third place finish in the NFL East. The tone for the season was set early when the Giants defeated the Washington Redskins in the first game of the season. What was so amazing about the 14-7 victory was that the Giants didn't make a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown and later the Giants would score on an intercepted return. The Giants handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944

Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945

The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946

Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947

The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948

The team's renovation movement was stepped up in 1948 when the team acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The Giants reached another milestone in their illustrious existence, yet it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949

Giants head coach Steve Owen's switch from the "A" formation to the "T" resulted in bringing the Giants back to .500 with a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950

The New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees with the Giants. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game. It marked the first time the Giants finished above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946.

1951

End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

HISTORY OF THE GIANTS

Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953

Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr., out of Morgan State was the Giants 27th draft pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954

Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955

On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956

Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958

After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

In February, defensive coach Tom Landry left the team to become the first ever head coach of the expansion Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished an injury-plagued 1960 season with a 6-4-2 record. Head coach Jim Lee Howell announced his retirement at the end of the season and Allie Sherman was promoted to the top slot.

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became the full-time defensive coach for the upcoming 1964 season. For the first time in seventeen years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. In addition to Tittle, offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record in the process of allowing 501 points, an NFL record at the time. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up its first and second-round picks in 1967, its number one pick for 1968, and its second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 passing touchdowns led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. Even with seven consecutive losses, the Giants finished with three straight wins to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the playoffs with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

1971

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut. The Giants finished with a 2-11-1 record.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for the scheduled open of Giants Stadium for the 1976 season. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of their final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, second worst in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. They did upset Dallas 38-35 after eight straight defeats. Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft, New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, but then obtained running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. A three-game losing streak dropped the club to 5-6, and then Simms was injured. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime victory over Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

1982

A wild, wooly and turbulent year which saw the NFL players' strike shorten the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night game from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout for most of the season, returning to play in just the final five games, and then on December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants — Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings — were named to the Pro Bowl.

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie place-kicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an all-time NFL record with 35 field goals during the year.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants won the NFC wild card playoff spot again, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second-place in the NFC East as Simms set three all-time single season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson—were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the Divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, by a 21-0 score, the toughest outing the Bears encountered in the entire playoffs. Five players—Taylor, Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall—were named to the Pro Bowl. All told, there were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set an all-time one season rushing mark with 1,336 yards plus an all-time mark for TDs in a season with 21 while Simms broke all-time club records with 40 completions in a game for 513 yards passing. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set an all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the Super Bowl victory with an NFL all-time playoff mark of 88% passing accuracy with his 22-for-25 passing in the 39-20 title conquest of the Denver Broncos. Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and all-time attendance records were set for both home and away, as well as single game home attendance.

Not exactly a year to remember. After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a final 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in this players' strike season and the replacement games which followed. Add to that a rash of injuries which sidelined no less than 11 starters at one time or another, and the fifth-place finish was the result. While the Giants had a 6-4 record after the players' strike had been settled, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

The Giants bounced back from the debacle of '87 and after splitting their first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 mark into the final weekend of the season. Alas, an upset setback at the hands of the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth as well. With that final 10-6 record, the Giants' overall mark over the five past seasons reached 54-32 for a winning percentage of .628, and those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year consecutive span. RB Joe Morris set an all-time club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and WR Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' all-time rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants startled the experts by winning their second NFC East championship in four years with a final 12-4 record, after most of those experts had predicted no better than a .500 season for the club. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set all-time club marks in punt returns with 582 yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards during the year. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equalled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants began the year on a hot streak, winning their first 10 games for a solid NFC East lead, then held on to win the title with a final 13-3 record, despite losing QB Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including LB Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. The Giants also set all-time attendance records, both for season home and one-game home marks. Veteran RB Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the long-time Mara family ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer, and in May, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting QB, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the rest of the campaign. Simms added his 15th all-time club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6-10 campaign as injuries to key players hurt the team and the team's performance ultimately cost Handley his job following the season. Phil Simms regained his starting QB spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th passer in NFL history to surpass 30,000 yards passing. Jeff Hostetler then started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, LB Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants. RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, the Giants general manager George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman did so in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a Wild Card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC Divisional Playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor will be eligible for election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame following the 1998 season.

1994

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak to close out the season with a 9-7 record. The Giants came into week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoff field. The Giants defeated the Cowboys, 15-10, but the season officially ended when the Bucs failed to defeat the Packers in a 34-19 loss. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. RB Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in the team's history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The last time a Dan Reeves-coached team finished with a losing record was 1990 when the Denver Broncos went 5-11. Eight of the Giants' 11 losses arguably could have ended with a different result. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. Fassel spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Giants, first as quarterbacks coach in 1991, then as offensive coordinator in 1992. Following his service with the Giants, Fassel spent time with Denver, Oakland and Arizona. Despite the inability to reach the .500 mark all season, the Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of six straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The Giants season officially ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card matchup. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. LB Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

1998

The Giants were alive for a playoff berth in the final week of the season after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final week of the regular season, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third Wild Card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

THE GIANTS STADIUMS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

THE POLO GROUNDS (1925-1955)

YANKEE STADIUM (1956-1973)

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

SHEA STADIUM (1975)

THE YALE BOWL (1973-1974)

GIANTS STADIUM HISTORY

After calling four different stadiums home in their first 50 years in the National Football League, the Giants moved into Giants Stadium in 1976. The idea of playing at a stadium built in the Meadowlands first attracted the Giants attention when they realized that they could provide 15,000 more seats and help meet the increasing demands of the fans without a major switch in location. Giants Stadium is only 6.9 miles from Times Square, compared to Yankee Stadium which is 6.6.

In May of 1967, a local New Jersey newspaper first proposed the idea of building a Sports Complex. The idea of the complex could not begin until a major sports franchise could be attracted to the concept. With an aging Yankee Stadium, the Giants and the Yankees became immediate targets. The original construction idea called for separate stadiums for football and baseball with convenient parking and easy highway access just miles from New York City.

In 1970, the William Cahill administration began serious efforts to lure the Giants. On August 27, 1971, the Giants signed a 30-year lease for a 75,000-seat Stadium to be built by the 1975 season. The New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority was established by an act of the state legislature on May 10, 1971 to finance, construct and administer the complex. It was also decided that the complex would include a stadium for football and a racetrack. The Authority was granted powers through legislature to lease property, borrow money, issue bonds and conduct horse racing. To finance the complex the state was authorized to issue revenue bonds backed by the state-run racetrack proceeds. The complex was built and operated with no expense to the taxpayers.

Prior to construction of the facility, the project was hit with many obstacles. First, there were legislative disputes that resulted from objections to the complex, then environmentalists were concerned about the issue of wildlife preservations and air pollution from the increase of cars. Despite these problems, the Authority pushed the project along, hiring real estate consultants, accountants, bond attorneys and brokerage firms.

In September of 1973, New Jersey Governor-elect Brendan Byrne negotiated a new lease with the Giants, and the sale of bonds began and was completed in 1974. Simultaneous construction of the racetrack and stadium began in 1972. September 1, 1976 marked the opening of the Meadowlands racetrack. The Giants made their debut in Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

75 YEARS OF GIANTS

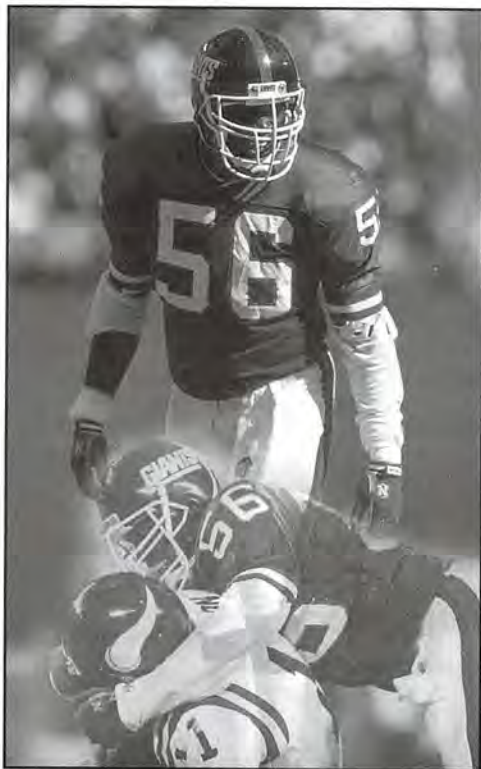

NEW YORK GIANTS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

LAWRENCE TAYLOR LINEBACKER NORTH CAROLINA ENSHRINED IN 1999

Lawrence Taylor played for the Giants from 1981 through 1993 after joining the team as a first round draft pick in 1981. He finished his 13-year career as the No. 2 all-time quarterback sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named NFC's

Defensive Player of the Week nine times during his career (since that recognition was initiated in 1984) and was the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October, 1986 and again in September, 1989. In 1989 he was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. Taylor had the finest statistical season of his career in 1986 and it earned him unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. That year, he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 total tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles. As a rookie in 1981, he set the tone for his Hall of Fame career as he earned every defensive and rookie postseason honor possible.

"On Sundays, there are a lot of reasons to go out and play. Ultimately, the reason you go out there is to hear those chants from the fans, those congratulations. Over the 13 years I played, they've given me a lot of things to smile about. I'm very appreciative of what they've given me."

Lawrence Taylor talking about Giants fans (Jan. 9, 1994)

"Thirteen years of enjoyable times. I've done everything I can do. I've been to Super Bowls, I've been to playoffs, I've been a dominant force. I've earned the respect of players and people in general around the country. That's what you want to do in a good career."

Lawrence Taylor following his retirement (Jan. 15, 1994)

WELLINGTON MARA

CO-OWNER - FORDHAM - ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, made up the four-man class of the 1997 Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, are the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor.

Mara, whose entire lifetime has been dedicated to pro football, has helped the Giants produce 17 NFL/NFC divisional titles and six NFL championships during his 61-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937.

TIM MARA

FOUNDER - NO COLLEGE - CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 (others claim it was $2,500) in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved on the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, showed up at the Polo Grounds as a Chicago Bear and helped draw a crowd of over 70,000 people to save the Giants. After seeing the crowd that formed, Mara decided that under the right circumstances, professional football could be a big success. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse with three NFL and eight divisional titles. He was honored in 1963 as one of seventeen charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MORRIS (RED) BADGRO

END - SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA - ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1927 and played nine seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro was a part of the Giants championship team of 1927. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's first Championship game in 1933. He scored the first touchdown in NFL Championship game history in 1933. In the Championship game, the Giants spotted the Chicago Bears a 6-0 lead on two field goals at Wrigley Field. The Giants took a 7-6 halftime lead when Badgro caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from QB Henry Newman in the second quarter. He tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. Badgro was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1930, 1931 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees. He played pro baseball with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. Badgro was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

ROOSEVELT BROWN

TACKLE - MORGAN ST. - ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was an All-NFL eight straight seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the championship game, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was known as a big, fast blocker who could make the block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.

FRANK GIFFORD

HALFBACK, FLANKER - S. CALIFORNIA - ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-60 and then again from 1962-64. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first pick in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,753 combined yards during his career. Gifford's record includes 3,609 yards rushing, 367 receptions and 484 points. He was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL annals. Gifford played in seven Pro Bowls during his career and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. He holds three Giants team records - touchdowns (78), highest average gain (500 attempts) rushing (4,30) and most receiving yards (5,434). A real triple-threat in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and then decided to return in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including the 1956 World Championship team.

MEL HEIN

CENTER - WASHINGTON ST. - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Originally joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons for the Giants, a record of team service that is matched by only Phil Simms. He was named All-NFL eight straight years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. The Giants bid the highest at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years. He played in a Giants team record 172 games. Hein never missed a game in the National Football League or in college and high school. He took time out only in two games and was injured only once. Hein was named the League's Most Valuable Player after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the 1938 World Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers at the Polo Grounds.

CAL HUBBARD

TACKLE - GENEVA - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-29, and then again in 1936. He was one of 17 charter enshrinees into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season the Giants defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He was acquired by the Green Bay Packers in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record in 1929, edging out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants a 20-6 loss, the Giants only loss of the season.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER - W. VIRGINIA - ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff was originally drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 after an All-America career at West Virginia and became an immediate star as middle linebacker. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era,

Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. Huff was named Outstanding Lineman in the NFL for his play in 1959. He anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. Huff was traded to the Washington Redskins before the start of the 1964 season and is currently a color analyst during Redskins radio telecasts.

TOM LANDRY

COACH - TEXAS - ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry played with the Giants from 1950-55 as a defensive back and was an assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-59. The Giants 1956 Championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually find their way to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had a Hall of Fame coaching staff. Head coach Jim Lee Howell's staff had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended that the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS
HALFBACK, FULLBACK - GEORGE WASHINGTON/OREGON
ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was a second-round draft choice in the first-ever NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Leemans was personally scouted by Giants co-owner Wellington Mara. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

VINCE LOMBARDI
COACH - FORDHAM - ENSHRINED IN 1971

Lombardi was head coach of the Green Bay Packers and the Washington Redskins after spending the 1954-58 seasons as an assistant with the Giants. Behind Lombardi's leadership running the offense, the Giants captured the League Championship in 1956. In 19 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record, including five NFL titles and victories in Super Bowl I and Super Bowl II. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67), a feat without precedent or parallel in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

STEVE OWEN
COACH - PHILLIPS UNIVERSITY - ENSHRINED IN 1966

A great defensive star of the 1920s, Owen played for the Giants from 1926-36. He captained the 1927 team which won the National Football League title and held their foes to a record low of 20 points. Owen coached the Giants for 23 years from 1930 to 1953 and had a coaching record of 150-100-17, including eight divisional and two NFL title teams. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system. Owen went to college at Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma. After a year coaching at his alma mater following his graduation in 1921, Owen joined the Kansas City Cowboys and came to the Giants in 1926 and was named All-NFL at tackle for four years.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END - ARNOLD COLLEGE - ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was originally drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams Championship teams. In 1956, Giants co-owner Wellington Mara orchestrated a trade for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants title drive that season. Robustelli played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. During his career, he played in eight NFL title games and seven Pro Bowls. He was named All-NFL seven years, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Was acknowledged as the field leader on a Giants defense that was largely responsible for the Giants participation in six championship games and the 1956 League Title. He also served as a defensive player-coach. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

KEN STRONG

HALFBACK - NEW YORK UNIVERSITY - ENSHRINED 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35 and then from 1939-47 and excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, place kicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants all-time leading scorer with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 title over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game" on the ice-covered Polo Grounds. Was named All-NFL in 1934 and scored 64 points to top the NFL in 1933. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in 14 NFL years.

Y.A. TITTLE

QUARTERBACK - LOUISIANA ST. - ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern division championship. Tittle spent 11 seasons in the NFL and two seasons in the All-American Conference before coming to the Giants. In 1962, Tittle completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards. His 33 touchdowns that season set an NFL record and his seven touchdown passes against the Washington Redskins tied another league mark. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963. He led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes set an all-time one-season record, and his 202 career scoring aeriels also established a record. All told, Tittle had 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with over 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957 when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963 and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLLEN TUNNELL

DEFENSIVE BACK, TOLEDO/IOWA - ENSHRINED 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948. He also attended Toledo University. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a try out. The Giants reached a milestone in their illustrious existence by signing Tunnell as their first black player. He holds the Giants team-record with 74 interceptions and 257 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kick returns than the NFL rushing leader. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

DEFENSIVE TACKLE - WASHINGTON - ENSHRINED 1984

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950 through the 1953 season. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big, extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays. Weinmeister began his pro career in the All-American Football Conference with the New York Yankees in 1950, and moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. He played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAME MEMBERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA

FULLBACK - SYRACUSE - ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. He left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He shined in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. His career rushing totals in the NFL, which place him 19th on the league's all-time rushing list, are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs.

RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH - GONZAGA - ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. Flaherty introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. He played with the Los Angeles Wildcats and the New York Yankees in addition to the Giants. Suggested to coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1938 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK - CARLISLE - ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL Championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

WILBER (PETE) HENRY

TACKLE - WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK - REGIS COLLEGE - ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber left retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40 and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER - TEXAS WESTERN - ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-72, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. At the time of his retirement, Maynard was the all-time leading receiver in NFL history. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7) and 88 touchdowns. Maynard's yardage still ranks fourth all-time and his number of catches is seventh. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK - WASHINGTON - ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963 and helped the Giants advance to the championship game that season. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.

FRAN TARKENTON

QUARTERBACK - GEORGIA - ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. Originally with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961, he moved to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in stunning trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.

JIM THORPE

HALFBACK - CARLISLE - ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter enshrinee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time that the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun... Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons which set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana which knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries to say nothing of a classic headache.

1993-GIANTS 17, VIKINGS 10

NFC Wild Card Game

Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 half-time lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Revez 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

1993-49ers 44, GIANTS 3

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

1997-VIKINGS 23, GIANTS 22

NFC Wild Card Game

Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings in a Wild Card matchup at Giants Stadium. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

THE GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

1927 GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen was later to say. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Windy City crew. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain which set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara.

1933 Chicago Bears 23, GIANTS 21

1934 GIANTS 30, Chicago Bears 13

With the temperature at nine degrees and the Polo Grounds covered with a sheet of ice, this one became famous as the "sneakers" game when Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to open the second half with his club trailing 10-3. The Giants responded with four touchdowns which had a crowd of 35,059 roaring approval. The Bears had a string of 33 games without a defeat going into this one, but fell behind 3-0 on a 38-yard FG by Ken Strong. A TD by Nagurski and a field goal by Manders got the Bears in front 10-3 at the half, when Owen sent for the sneakers to take advantage of the slippery footing. Ahead 13-3 on another Manders' FG, the Bears were swamped in a fourth-period Giant uprising which saw Ed Danowski throw a 28-yard TD pass to Ike Frankian and Ken Strong race 42 yards for another TD just moments later for a 17-13 lead. Danowski and Strong raced for subsequent touchdowns against the stunned Bears to turn the game into a rout.

1935 Detroit Lions 26, GIANTS 7

With a crowd of about 15,000 looking on, the Lions took a 13-0 lead in the first period when Leroy "Ace" Gutowsky plunged over from the 2-yard line and Earl "Dutch" Clark shook loose on a 40-yard touchdown romp. The Giants closed the gap at 13-7 in the third period when Danowski connected with Strong for a 42-yard touchdown pass, but the Lions' defense accounted for two more scores in the final period on a blocked punt and intercepted pass. Ernie Caddel scored the first on a 4-yard slant and Buddy Parker the second on a 9-yard run.

1938 GIANTS 23, Green Bay Packers 17

A slam-bang, bruising thriller was staged for the largest crowd (48,120 at the Polo Grounds) to see a championship game up to that time. With the victory, the Giants became the first team to win the championship twice since the divisional splitup. The Giants blocked two punts early in the game, and capitalized on both with Ward Cuff kicking a 13-yard FG and Tuffy Leemans blasting over on a 6-yard plunge. Arnie Herber's 50-yard TD pass to Carl Mullenau got the Packers on the scoreboard, but Danowski hit Hap Barnard for a 20-yard TD pass and a 16-7 lead. The Packers closed to 16-14 at halftime on Clark Hinkle's 6-yard TD, then took the lead 17-16 on Engebretsen's third-period FG. New York then stormed back to the Packer 23 from where Danowski passed to Hank Soar for the game-winning TD.

1939 Green Bay Packers 27, GIANTS 0

The Packers came up with sweet revenge in a grudge match played before 32,279 at Milwaukee's State Fair Grounds. Cold weather and a 35-MPH wind made aerial sorties a bit dubious, but Green Bay scored quickly on a 7-yard pitch from Herber to Milt Gantenbein. Engebretsen kicked a 29-yard FG in the third period for a 10-0 lead, and the Packers wrapped it up with touchdowns by Joe Laws on a 20-yard pass from Cecil Isbell, a one-yard plunge by Jankowski and Ernie Smith's 42-yard field goal.

*Victory clinched the NFL Championship; there was no Championship game played at that time.

GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

1941 Chicago Bears 37, GIANTS 9

Attendance was only 13,341 at Wrigley Field, just two weeks after Pearl Harbor Day. The Giants led 6-3 in the first period on a Tuffy Leemans to George Franck touchdown pass of 31 yards, but the Bears scored on a pair of field goals, then broke the game wide open in the second half on touchdowns by Norm Standlee (2), George McAfee and Ken Kavanaugh.

1944 Green Bay Packers 14, GIANTS 7

1946 Chicago Bears 24, GIANTS 14

Sid Luckman was the big man for the Bears in this win before 58,346 at the Polo Grounds. He passed for a 21-yard TD to Ken Kavanaugh to open the scoring, then ran 19 yards for a score later in the game. Dante Magnani's 19-yard pass interception accounted for the third Bear score, while the Giants hit the scoring column on touchdown passes from Frank Filchock to Frank Liebel and Steve Filipowicz.

1956 GIANTS 47, Chicago Bears 7

1958 Baltimore Colts 23, GIANTS 17 (OT)

Some people call this the greatest game ever played, and perhaps it was for drama and its sudden-death ending. With a crowd of 64,185 on hand at Yankee Stadium, the Giants led 3-0 on a 36-yard Pat Summerall FG in the first period, with the Colts taking over 14-3 at halftime on scores by Alan Ameche from the 2-yard line and Ray Berry on a 15-yard pitch from Johnny Unitas. The Giants scored in the third period on a 1-yard plunge by Mel Triplett after an 86-yard gainer from Conerly to Rote with Webster picking up Rote's fumble. The Giants went in front 17-14 on Conerly's 15-yard TD throw to Gifford, but the Colts tied it with seven seconds to play on Steve Myrah's 13-yard FG and won in the overtime on Ameche's 1-yard plunge, the 13th play of a Colt drive.

1959 Baltimore Colts 31, GIANTS 16

A sellout crowd of 57,577 was on hand at Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for the big rematch of the divisional champions. The home crowd had plenty to cheer about in the early going as Unitas hit Lenny Moore for a 60-yard TD bomb, but the Giants surged back to stop the Colt offense. With Summerall kicking three field goals (23, 26 and 23 yards), the Giants led 9-7 going into the final period. But the Colts stormed back with a furious final period onslaught as Unitas scored on a 4-yard run, threw a 12-yard TD pass to Richardson and Johnny Sample returned an interception for another score.

1961 Green Bay Packers 37, GIANTS 0

With a crowd of 39,029 looking on in Green Bay, Paul Hornung paced the Packers to a stunning 37-0 triumph by scoring 19 points on a touchdown, three field goals and four conversions. On leave from his Army duties in Fort Riley, Kan., Hornung scored on a 6-yard slant in the second period to break a scoreless deadlock and set off a Packer splurge which accounted for 24 points in that quarter. The Giants were unable to recover from this onslaught and suffered their first shutout in nine seasons. Bart Starr's touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and a pair of Hornung field goals closed out the scoring in the second half.

1962 Green Bay Packers 16, GIANTS 7

Bitter cold weather at Yankee Stadium was no deterrent to 64,892 fans who turned out for the year's big one. As things turned out, a trio of field goals by Packer guard Jerry Kramer made the difference in a game where both defensive units turned in superlative jobs. The only Giant score was a result of defensive work when Erich Barnes blocked a Max McGee punt and reserve end Jim Collier fell on the ball in the end zone.

GIANTS IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

1963 Chicago Bears 14, GIANTS 10

The Bear defense turned the tide in this championship game, played in 10 degree weather in Wrigley Field. Taking the early lead on a 14-yard Y.A. Tittle TD pass to Frank Gifford and Don Chandler's FG, the Giants were the victims of five pass interceptions thereafter, two of which set up the Bear scores. Larry Morris swiped the first one for a return of 61 yards, while Ed O'Bradovich's steal of a screen pass set up what turned out to be the winning score. Tittle suffered a knee injury in the first half, but gallantly returned to action in the second half, though he was hampered and hobbled by his injury.

1986 GIANTS 39, Denver Broncos 20

Led by the brilliant record-setting passing of Phil Simms, the Giants won their first Super Bowl with a 30-point second-half onslaught before 101,063 spectators at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Simms pitched 22-for-25 for 268 yards and three TDs, setting an all-time NFL playoff mark of 88.0% completion and winning the MVP honors in the game. Down 10-9 at halftime, the Giants rang up 24 unanswered points to take a commanding 33-10 lead in the fourth period with Simms' TD passes going to TEs Zeke Mowatt and Mark Bavaro and to WR Phil McConkey. Linebacker Carl Banks was a star on defense with 10 solo tackles as the Giants concluded their greatest season ever with a 17-2 record.

1990 GIANTS 20, Buffalo Bills 19

The Giants won their second Super Bowl championship before 73,813 at Tampa Stadium by battling back from a 12-3 deficit in what many considered to be the best of all Super Bowls. Ahead 20-19 in the final moments of play, the Giants prevailed when Buffalo kicker Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt in the final moments of the game. QB Jeff Hostetler, replacing the injured Phil Simms during the playoffs, hit 20-for-32 for 222 yards and one TD, while the veteran RB Ottis Anderson had 102 yards rushing and one TD and won the MVP honors. The Giants set an all-time Super Bowl record for time of possession with 40:33 in their ball-control offensive game plan.

GIANTS 1999 TRAINING CAMP THE UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY

Founded in 1844 as the state's first school for the training of teachers and the oldest chartered public institution of higher education in New York, the University at Albany today is one of the top research universities in the nation. Designated as a University Center of the State University of New York, Albany has a broad mission of undergraduate and graduate education, research and public service.

Approximately 16,000 students are enrolled in eight degree-granting schools and colleges offering more than 135 academic programs from bachelor's degree through the doctorate.

Located three miles from the center of the city of Albany, the main 525-acre campus was designed by noted architect Edward Durell Stone and completed in the 1960s. Stone grouped the academic buildings in a series of quadrangles, essentially under one roof with colonnades to provide all-weather passage from one building to another. Dormitories for 6,000 students are arranged in four three-story quadrangles with a twenty-story tower in each quadrangle. The Carillon Tower, placed in a sunken plaza, is the centerpiece of the academic campus.

Albany students receive a top-quality education at a great price when they come to the University. Money Magazine has ranked Albany among the 25 "Best College Buys" in the nation.

GIANTS IN THE COMMUNITY

GIANTS COMMUNITY RELATIONS MISSION STATEMENT

The entire New York Giants organization is committed to the betterment of the lives of the youth and families of the tri-state community, home to the Giants for their entire seventy-five year history. The Giants Community Relations department works as a mechanism to create and implement efficient and effective programs that work towards the organizational goal of improving the community. The department allows the Giants to team up and work with local organizations for the enhancement of the tri-state community. The Giants appreciate the opportunity, through an alliance with our neighbors to give back to a community that has given so much to us.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS PROGRAMS

Ronald McDonald House of New York City

Last November, members of the 1998 team played host to the Second Annual Evening with the New York Giants to benefit the Ronald McDonald House of New York City.

Since 1978 the Ronald McDonald House of New York City, the largest facility of its kind in the world, has provided a home away from home for families from all over the globe while their children are undergoing treatment at one of New York's renowned cancer centers. Here families find the emotional support, comfort and convenience of a caring community in a time of great stress. Families are asked to pay a nominal fee of $20 per night, which is often waived.

Last year's Giants benefit kicked off with the dedication of the Giants Room on the Sports Floor at the House. The room has a Giants theme with much of the memorabilia being donated by NFL licensees.

On hand for the ribbon cutting ceremony were Wellington Mara, President and Co-Chief Executive Officer; Bob Tisch, Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer; John Mara, Executive Vice President; cornerback Jason Sehorn, and Vivian Harris, Founder and President of the Ronald McDonald House.

After the dedication, the celebration continued at the Park Avenue Country Club in Manhattan. Team members hosted the event. Celebrity Chairman Jessie Armstead was responsible for rounding up the troops. In his second year as Chairperson, Jessie continues to do a wonderful job assisting with the preparation of the team's major fund-raiser. His dedication and pride on the field follows him off the field as well.

Phil McConkey, former New York Giants great, was the Master of Ceremony for the event. Giants alumni, Otis Anderson, Stephen Baker, Harry Carson, and Joe Morris joined him.

Dinner was followed by a live auction where assistance from Howard Cross, Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan helped raise in excess of $15,000, which brought the grand total for the evening to $55,000.

The night concluded with many new friendships made, stories told and autographs signed, but most of all a sense that all had come together to support a wonderful cause.

New York Giants Courage House

The New York Giants Courage House opened during the 1997 season and continues to work with My Sisters' Place and the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation to fight domestic violence. The New York Giants Courage House is a multi-partied effort to combat the debilitating effects of domestic violence. The three parties began their collaboration when they realized the all shared a common interest in preventing domestic violence and supporting its victims. "The Giants are thrilled to be joining forces with the Ed Block Courage Foundation, Inc. and My Sisters' Place. We feel that three voices are stronger than one and we hope to see positive results" said Giants Director of Community Relations Allison Stangeby on the opening of the house.

The Ed Block Courage Award Foundation has been in existence for over 20 years. With the support of sponsors such as the National Football League Players Association, NFL Alumni, the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society, NFL Charities and the NFL, the Foundation is committed to helping abused children and families in crisis by raising funds to provide shelter and treatment. Since supporting the opening of the Pittsburgh Steelers Courage House in 1989, the Foundation formulated the Courage House National Support Network. The goal of the Network is to open a Courage House in each of the 30 NFL cities. The New York Giants marked the seventh NFL team to open a Courage House. Chicago, Miami, Detroit, Dallas, and Baltimore are the other NFL cities that have established Courage Houses.

My Sisters' Place is a non-profit agency that has dedicated its efforts toward ending violence and abuse in the family. The agency's goal is two-fold: 1) assisting the victims of domestic violence and 2) changing societal attitudes which give rise to violence against women and children.

In December of 1996, My Sisters' Place sought financial support from Giants Foundation to fund the construction of a shelter for battered women and their children which led to the start of their current relationship. The Giants are committed to hosting an annual fund-raiser to benefit My Sisters' Place and are planning to host a Walk-A-Thon in March of 2000.

Giants Wives Annual Coat Drive

Last November the Giants Wives Organization in conjunction with New York Cares and the assistance Hoffman Moving & Storage of Ramsey, NJ, kicked off the start of their Tenth Annual New York Cares Coat Drive.

New York Cares is an organization founded in 1987 as a not-for-profit agency committed to linking New Yorkers eager to improve their city with local social service and community-based organizations in desperate need of their help. For the past four years, the Giants Wives Organization has made Giants Stadium a stop for fans to donate coats for the needy.

For one game each season, players wives, coaches wives and front office wives, gather to collect coats at each entrance into the Stadium. The wives greet the fans and accept the coats. There have been instances where fans have given the wives the "coats off their back".

Save your gently used coats for the 1999 Coat Drive, which will be held on Sunday, November 14, 1999 when the Giants host the Indianapolis Colts.

Lou Retino High School Football Coach of the Week Program

In 1998 the New York Giants named John Porcelli of Morristown High School the 1998 Lou Retino High School Football Coach of the Year. Coach Porcelli won his second consecutive and third overall state championship title at Morristown High in December at Giants Stadium after defeating Westfield 37-14 in the North Jersey Section 2 Group 3 title game. The Colonials are riding a 19 game winning streak. Morristown High finished the 1998 season with a perfect 11-0 record.

In recognition of Coach Porcelli's success and commitment, he received a framed certificate signed by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, NFL Director of Youth Development Gene Washington and Giants Head Coach Jim Fassel. A $1000 check was donated to the Morristown High School football program. All members of the football team received T-shirts, an announcement was made during the Giants Today show, and Coach Porcelli was a special guest at the Giants vs. Chiefs game on December 20.

The Lou Retino High School Football Coach of the Week/Year Award, started in 1996, is part of the Giants' continuing effort to promote youth football. Each week during the high school football season the Giants select one area high school head coach as the Coach of the Week winner and award $500 to their football program. The selection is based on the coach's continued commitment toward promoting youth football, developing motivated student-athletes and overall community involvement. At the conclusion of the season, the Giants choose a Coach of the Year that earns $1000 for their school's football program. Coach of the Week winners are not eligible for the Coach of the Year award.

In ten years as head coach at Morristown, Coach Porcelli's record stands at 62-31-2. His overall coaching record is 81-56-4. Porcelli spent five years as the Columbia High School head coach prior to making the move to Morristown in 1989. The Colonials' state championship last season was their third state title (1993, '97, '98) under Porcelli. For Porcelli's accomplishments two seasons ago he was named Coach of the Year by the Star Ledger, the Daily Record and the Morris County Football Coaches Association. In addition to Porcelli's coaching duties, he also serves as Supervisor of Physical Education, Health, Driver Education and Athletics for the Morris School District. For his efforts as an administrator, he has also been named Administrator of the Year by the Morris County Football Coaches Association.

The award is named in memory of former Union High School (NJ) coach Lou Retino, the 1995 National High School Football Coach of the Year, for his fine commitment to the game of football, his community and the betterment of his athletes lives.

The Giants Score for Thanksgiving by visiting Eva's Kitchen

Anyone who follows the NFL knows what Tuesday during football season is ...players day off. Time to sleep in, food shop, run errands, and heal aching bones. On Tuesday, November 24, 1998, fourteen New York Giants decided to put their lives on hold and assist those who are less fortunate.

Early last season, Charles Way mentioned that he and the other running backs would like to volunteer to work in a soup kitchen during the Thanksgiving holiday. With that, the wheels went into motion to arrange for the players to work at a soup kitchen on their day off. As word spread through the locker room other members of the team jumped on board.

Eva's Kitchen, located in Paterson, NJ, serves 240 homeless people a day. For many, this is the only meal they receive. Eva's Kitchen, which began in 1982 as a simple soup kitchen, continued to grow to meet the needs of the poor. Today, it provides medical care, shelter, counseling and rehabilitation for substance abuse for men and women, as well as serves over 500 meals a day without charge.

Eva's Village opened its doors in June 1996, is a 50,000 square foot complex, devoted to serving the hundreds of poor who come seeking help, hope and a road back to dignity.

There are seven integrated programs which form a circle of care that can take a person from the street and rehabilitate him or her physically, emotionally and spiritually. They are Eva's Kitchen, Eva's Primary Health Clinic, Eva's Shelter for Men, Eva's Recovery Center for Men, Eva's Recovery Shelter for Women, Eva's Family Shelter and Eva's Outpatient Addiction Services.

On that Tuesday last November the players arrived at Eva's Kitchen at 10:30AM to help with the set up of the cafeteria. Charles Way, Tyrone Wheatley, Tiki Barber, Chris Calloway, Lonnie Palelei, Lance Scott, Tito Wooten, Roman Oben, Pete Monty, Ryan Phillips, Greg Comella, Sam Garnes, Scott Galyon and George Williams, not only know their way around the football field but can make their way around a cafeteria as well. The players assisted in every aspect of the day, from setting the tables, preparation of the food, serving, to cleaning up.

Football 101

Last December, the New York Giants hosted their first-ever NFL Workshop for Women – Football 101. The program was an unbelievable success. The seminar was designed to increase the fan base of the NFL, which 47% are women. The evening, started with a buffet dinner, followed by the seminar and concluded with a tour of the stadium and Giants Locker Room. The program, taught by Michael Strahan, Charles Way, Tyrone Wheatley, Howard Cross, Brad Daluiso, Brad Maynard, and Percy Ellsworth, provided the women with the basics of football, as well as insight to what a player's life is like during the season.

Aside from entertaining the crowd, the players answered questions and signed autographs.

Be sure to visit our website at www.giants.com in the future for information and NFL Workshops for Women during the 1999 season.

Boys Harbor

For the past two years members of the New York Giants traded in helmets and shoulder pads for basketball sneakers and shorts to spend the afternoon at Boys Harbor in Harlem NY. In March of '98 team members were on hand after being challenged to a game of basketball by a group of young men from the Midnight Basketball program at the Harbor. The Giants were told not to quit their day jobs after being defeated 77-64

by the team from Boys Harbor. Last March the Giants decided not to play a full court game but instead competed in a three-point shootout competition. The Giants again showed why they play in the NFL and not the NBA after being defeated by a score of 58-34.

On both occasions the first half of the afternoon was devoted to members of the Giants visiting students in a classroom setting to discuss more important issues than basketball and football. The Giants spoke to students for an hour about remaining positive, setting goals, staying in school and away from drugs. The Giants then answered questions regarding being a professional athlete and signed autographs for all students.

The Boys Harbor is a private non-profit multi-service educational youth agency that services children and families of Harlem and the Bronx. The Harbor has been in existence for 60 years and consists of six main programs: Pre- and After-School Educational Services; the Camp; Behavioral Services; College Preparation Services; the Academy; and the Conservatory for the Performing Arts. In addition to these programs, the Harbor also operates a year-round Midnight Basketball Program. The goal of the program is two fold: 1) to provide a safe, supervised recreation venue for East and Central Harlem young adults, and 2) to provide General Equivalency Degree instruction and referrals to other helpful programs and services in the community.

Read Across America

The Giants helped kick off Read Across America Month on March 2nd, Dr. Suess's Birthday, by sending four players to three schools in the NY/NJ area to read some of Dr. Suess's popular titles. Fifth-year full-back Charles Way visited the Robert Mascenik Elementary School in Iselin, N.J. Howard Cross, who is entering his 11th year as a tight end, visited Ridge Ranch Elementary school in Paramus, N.J. Defensive linemen George Williams and Bernard Holsey stopped by Public School #205 in Brooklyn to read Green Eggs and Ham to 400 elementary school students.

THE GIANTS FOUNDATION

Mission Statement

The Giants believe that the youth of today represent our community's future. The Giants Foundation was created to act as a network for financial and social support for disadvantaged youth and their families throughout the greater metropolitan area. All grant recipients must be 501 (c) 3 charitable organizations involved in areas such as education, health, youth-related services or civic affairs. The Giants Foundation was founded by the New York Giants Football Club.

Foundation Board

Wellington Mara (president and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), Preston Robert Tisch (Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer for the Giants), John K. Mara (Executive Vice President and General Counsel for the Giants) and Jonathan Tisch (Treasurer for the Giants).

Fund Raising – The Giants raise funds through their annual golf outing and through the sale of the Giants calendars, yearbooks and other related fundraising efforts.

Giants Golf Classic

June 1, 1999 marked the Eighth Annual Giants Golf Classic benefiting the Giants Foundation. Through the Giants Foundation, local charitable organizations are the benefactors of the New York Giants Golf Classic. Friends of the New York Giants, along with past and present Giants players, gather to participate in a shotgun start format.

After 18 holes of golf on the Edgewood Country Club course, golfers and guests attend a beef-steak dinner and live auction. Live auction items include trips to the Super Bowl, away games on the team plane as well as season tickets to the Giants.

The day is full of laughs, good food, teamwork and a bit of competitiveness. Friendships are formed, stories are told and money is raised to assist Giants Foundation in administering grants to local charities.

It is a great day that many people look forward to each year.

Giants Academy

The New York Giants joined forces with Communities in Schools to open Giants Academy in September, 1994. The school, which is located in Newark, NJ, began as a small project involving 6th, 7th and 8th grade students who were designated as "at risk" students. The program was initially housed in the Louise A. Spencer School and has since taken over the Newark Boys and Girls Club.

Communities in Schools is a national leader in promoting and facilitating the coordinated delivery of existing health, social, education and other support services at educational sites for the benefit of at-risk youth and their families. These services are delivered in a personal and accountable manner.

The mission of New Jersey Communities in Schools is to develop public and private partnerships, that connect appropriate human services with at-risk youth in addressing such critical issues as school attendance, literacy, job preparedness, teen pregnancy, drug and alcohol abuse, teen suicide and school violence.

Giants Academy now encompasses kindergarten through 8th grade students. The program has been extremely successful not only in assisting the students with social issues but academically as well. A number of students have been awarded grants to attend private high schools on the east coast.

New York Giants players stop by the school from time to time to encourage the children to continue their hard work and commitment to live a drug and alcohol free life.

Students from Giants Academy also visit the Giants during Training Camp at the University at Albany each summer. This gives the children an opportunity to leave the city for a day and visit a college campus. It also gives them an inside look at what the players must endure to prepare for the season.

GAME NOTES

The Giants will meet the Cowboys in a Monday Night contest for the fourth time in the 1990s...After sweeping the season series in 1997, the Giants dropped both games to Dallas last year, snapping a Giants three-game win streak in the series. In last year's second meeting in Dallas, RB Gary Brown finished with 119 yards on 15 carries for a 7.9-yard average. The 7.9-yard average is the highest for a Giants running back with at least ten rushing attempts since FB Charles Way averaged 8.1 vs. Arizona last season (11-16-97) when he finished with 114 yards on 14 carries...Brown had the Giants second- and third-longest runs of the season for the Giants with a 34-yarder in the second quarter and a 38-yard burst in the third quarter...The 163-yard rushing performance by Emmitt Smith in the second meeting last year was the most by a back against the Giants since Smith gained 163 in the season-opener in 1995 (9-4-95) at Giants Stadium. The 49ers Garrison Hearst would rush for 166 yards against the Giants later in the season.

Last Meeting: 1996 - (12-21) Patriots 23, at

GAME NOTES

The Giants will face the Patriots for just the sixth time ever. The Giants hold a 3-2 advantage in the series. The Giants will travel to New England for only the third time in club history and visit Foxboro Stadium for only the second time in regular season play. The last time the Giants played in Foxboro was in the regular season-finale of the 1990 season when the Giants escaped with a 13-10 win en route to their second Super Bowl championship. The last meeting between the teams was in the regular season-finale of the 1996 season. The Giants jumped out to a 22-0 first half lead but failed to hold on as the Patriots scored 20 points in the fourth quarter for a 23-22 victory.
